Language, Cognition, and Deafness Michael Rodda, Carl Grove, 2013-08-21

First published in 1987 This book is intended as an introduction to the field of communication and deafness with particular reference to cognition and the various forms of language used by hearing impaired people It is aimed at an audience comprising teachers and student teachers of the deaf speech pathologists and students of speech pathology social workers and students of social work psychologists and students of psychology and to some extent the parents of deaf children and deaf people themselves It attempts to provide a concise summary of the topic and indeed as well as being for the audience just described it will be useful to anyone with an interest in the psychological sociological and linguistic ramifications of hearing loss Figurative Language Comprehension Herbert L. Colston, Albert N. Katz, 2004-12-13 Figurative language such as verbal irony metaphor hyperbole idioms and other forms is an increasingly important subfield within the empirical study of language comprehension and use Figurative Language Comprehension Social and Cultural Influences is an edited scholarly book that ties together recent research concerning the social and cultural influences on figurative language cognition These influences include gender cultural differences economic status and inter group effects among others The effects these influences have on people s use comprehension and even processing of figurative language comprise the main theme of this volume No other book offers such a look at the social and cultural influences on a whole family of figurative forms at several levels of cognition This volume is of great interest to scholars and professionals in the disciplines of social and cognitive psychology psycholinguistics and second language acquisition as well as cognitive and other fields of linguistics where scholars have interests in pragmatics metaphor symbol discourse and narrative Some knowledge of the empirical and experimental methods used in language research as well as some familiarity with theories underlying the use comprehension and processing of figurative language would be helpful to readers of this book Educating Deaf Students Marc

Context, Cognition, and Deafness M. Diane Clark, Marc

Marschark, Michael A. Karchmer, 2001 This sharply focused volume on the cognitive development of deaf children calls upon experts in anthropology psychology linguistics basic visual sensory processes education cognition and neurophysiology to share complementary observations William C Stokoe's Deafness Cognition and Language leads fluidly into Jeffery P Braden's analysis of clinical assessments of deaf people's cognitive abilities Margaret Wilson expands on the impact of sign language expertise on visual perception The study and analysis of Italian deaf preschoolers with hearing families presented by Elena Pizzuto Barbara Ardito Maria Cristina Caselli and Virginia Volterra chronicles fascinating insights on the children's cognition and language development Context Cognition and Deafness also shows that theory can intersect practice as displayed by editor Marschark and Jennifer Lukomski in their research on literacy cognition and education Amy R Lederberg and Patricia E Spencer have combined sequential designs in their study of vocabulary learning Ethan Remmel Jeffrey Bettger and Amy Weinberg explore the theory of mind development The emotional development of deaf children also receives detailed consideration by Colin D Gray Judith A Hosie Phil A Russell and Ellen A Ormel Kathryn P Meadow Orleans delineates her perspective on the coming of age of deaf children in relation to their education and development Marschark concludes with insightful impressions on the future of theory and application an appropriate close to this exceptional coherent volume

Teaching Deaf Learners Harry Knoors PhD, Marc Marschark, 2014-01-22 Teaching Deaf Learners asserts that the education of deaf learners profits from an ecological approach to learning and teaching What is known about the characteristics of deaf learners implies that teaching deaf learners should not be the same as teaching their hearing peers Appropriate teacher education is of crucial importance given the increasing diversity of deaf learners and their educational contexts Analyzing Syntax and Semantics Virginia A. Heidinger, 1984 On adoption of the materials the teacher may request the Instructor's Manual and Test Packet These aids are free and have teaching guidelines and a set of tests for each of the chapters complete with answer keys Reaching and Teaching Students with Special Needs Through Art Beverly Levett Gerber, Doris M. Guay, Jane Burnette, 2024-09-30 This second edition of Reaching and Teaching Students with Special Needs Through Art is written for art educators special educators and those who value the arts for students with special needs It builds on teachers positive responses to the first edition and now combines over 700 years of the educational experience of arts and special educators who share their art lessons behavior management strategies and classroom stories The revised second edition provides updated chapters addressing students with emotional behavioral disabilities learning disabilities intellectual disabilities physical disabilities and visual and hearing impairments The newly revised second edition includes chapters on students with autism spectrum disorder preschool students and students experiencing trauma All chapters have been updated to include current definitions and language recommended teaching strategies art lesson adaptations behavior management strategies and references to related chapters Follow up activities are provided for further insights into each group of students A new summary chapter connects how the authors collaborations resulted in changes to two professional organizations Since the first edition many of the featured authors established the new Division of Visual and Performing Arts Education DARTS at the Council for Exceptional Children CEC and earlier formed a new National Art Education Association

NAEA Interest group Special Needs in Art Education SNAE now Arts in Special Education ASE This edition is ideal for preservice arts methods courses and education courses on accessibility and inclusion at the undergraduate and graduate levels It continues to offer current yet proven best practices for reaching and teaching this ever important population of students through the arts Oxford Handbook of Deaf Studies, Language, and Education Marc Marschark, Patricia Elizabeth Spencer, 2005 This title is a major professional reference work in the field of deafness research It covers all important aspects of deaf studies language social psychological issues neuropsychology culture technology and education

Teaching Hearing-impaired Children in Regular Classrooms Peter M. Blackwell, 1983 This guide is designed to assist regular classroom teachers in helping the hearing impaired child to master the English language It is noted that the hearing impaired population is not homogenous Different factors involved in the decision to place a hearing impaired child in a regular classroom are considered The types of language problems hearing impaired children experience are enumerated including problems with the function and structure of language The need for a comprehensive assessment and the development of an individualized education program for hearing impaired children are highlighted The assessment should include psychological medical audiological and speech and language evaluations conducted by qualified professionals Language programming at the elementary and secondary school levels is discussed with emphasis on the establishment of appropriate goals It is concluded that whatever the reason for placing a hearing impaired student in a regular classroom the task of helping that child move through the difficult process of mastering the English language is a great responsibility RW

American Annals of the Deaf, 1984 Remarkable Conversations Barbara Miles, Marianne Riggio, 1999 This book addresses the needs of children of all abilities from those who use nonlinguistic forms of communication such as objects or body movements to those who use linguistic forms such as sign language or writing Effectively Educating Students with Hearing Impairments B. Embracing the Melody of Expression: An Psychological Symphony within Sentences And Other Systems A Language And Learning Curriculum For Hearing Impaired Children

In some sort of eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of quick communication, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony produced by the prepared word frequently diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, set within the pages of Sentences And Other Systems A Language And Learning Curriculum For Hearing Impaired Children a stunning fictional value full of raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful musician of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological trip, well unraveling the hidden tunes and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this emotional analysis, we shall discover the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing type, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
