Abbenhuis, S. Buttsworth, 2009-03-30 This collection seeks to move noncombatant perspectives to center stage acknowledging their importance destabilizing the primacy of the combatant and explaining or undermining the staging of warfare as a singular and acontextual production Voices of the Left Behind Olga Rains, Lloyd Rains, Melynda Jarratt, 2006-02-25 The personal stories of nearly 50 war children helped by Project Roots War Brides Melvnda Jarratt, 2009-05-25 For thousands of young British girls the influx of Canadian soldiers conscripted to Britain during the Second World War meant throngs of handsome young men The result was over 48 000 marriages to Canadian soldiers alone and a mass emigration of British women to North America and around the world in the 1940 s For many brides the decision

Goldstein, 2003-07-17 Gender roles are nowhere more prominent than in war Yet contentious debates and the scattering of scholarship across academic disciplines have obscured understanding of how gender affects war and vice versa In this authoritative and lively review of our state of knowledge Joshua Goldstein assesses the possible explanations for the near total exclusion of women from combat forces through history and across cultures Topics covered include the history of women who did fight and fought well the complex role of testosterone in men s social behaviours and the construction of masculinity and femininity in the shadow of war Goldstein concludes that killing in war does not come naturally for either gender and that gender norms often shape men women and children to the needs of the war system lllustrated with photographs drawings and graphics and drawing from scholarship spanning six academic disciplines this book provides a unique study of a fascinating issue
