Adaptations of Laurence Sterne's Fiction

Mary-Celine Newbould, 2016-03-23 Exploring how readers received and responded to literary works in the long eighteenth century M C Newbould focuses on the role played by Laurence Sterne's fiction and its adaptations Literary adaptation flourished throughout the eighteenth century encouraging an interactive relationship between writers readers and artists when well known works were transformed into new forms across a variety of media Laurence Sterne offers a particularly dynamic subject the immense interest provoked by The Life and Opinions of Tristram Shandy Gentleman and A Sentimental Journey through France and Italy inspired an unrivalled number and range of adaptations from their initial publication onwards In placing her examination of Sterneana within the context of its production Newbould demonstrates how literary adaptation operates across generic and formal boundaries She breaks new ground by bringing together several potentially disparate aspects of Sterneana belonging to areas of literary studies that include drama music travel writing sentimental fiction and the visual Her study is a vital resource for Sterne scholars and for readers generally interested in cultural productivity in this period

Home-life in Germany Charles Loring Brace, 1853 Home Life in Germany by Charles Loring

Brace first published in 1853 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it The Works of Laurence

Sterne Laurence Sterne,1839 The Afterlives of Eighteenth-Century Fiction Daniel Cook,Nicholas Seager,2015-09-29 This collection of essays offers insights into the ways in which eighteenth century novels have been adapted and appropriated by later writers It will be of interest to students of the rise of the novel interdisciplinary approaches to literature and the developing field of adaptation studies The Bride of Omberg Emilie Flygare-Carlén,1853 Literary Studies Walter Bagehot,1927 Word and Image in the Long Eighteenth Century Christina Ionescu,Renata Schellenberg,2008

Interrelated by a common thread which is the emphasis on the interdependence of literature and the visual arts the essays selected for this collection illustrate how eighteenth century specialists approach word and image studies today In addition to highlighting various concepts and concerns of particular pertinence to current scholarship these studies also serve the important practical function of sensitising the reader to both the possibilities and limitations of this sort of interdisciplinary undertaking Without foregrounding the visual these contributions aim to look at verbal visual interaction through the prism of equality and balance that marks word and image studies that is without valorising one to the detriment of the other The choice of images as objects of study reflects the democratisation of the visual domain advocated by visual culture studies from theatre iconography and painted portraits of actors to drawing books and educational prints graphic satire and royal portraiture conversation pieces and domestic interiors literary illustrations and versified prints after well known paintings and engravings commissioned for calendars and periodicals If the choice of images is inclusive and diverse so is the choice of texts epistolary novels conduct manuals Salon criticism plays drawing books pamphlets historical writings verses accompanying engravings and satirical prints are among those examined from a word and image perspective The primary objective of this collection is to advance research in the field of word and image theory and methodology by stimulating dialogue on the rich and complex verbal visual interaction structuring mixed media of expression and underpinning cultural formations in eighteenth century Europe Peaceful coexistence mutual collaboration or striking collision how do words and images interact in eighteenth century art literature and culture How do they reflect and communicate values stereotypes and ideologies
