Sequel To Survivors Of The Leopoldville Disaster:

Sequel to Survivors of the Leopoldville Disaster Raymond J. Roberts, Ryan G Van Cleave, 1999 Letters Home Philip M. Coons, 2012-03-30 During World War II nothing connected a serviceman and his sweetheart back home like a handwritten letter. It was a link to home to the life a soldier had left behind. In Letters Home Philip M Coons shares the almost daily letters that his father Harold M Coons wrote to his mother Margaret Richman Coons during basic training at Fort Bragg North Carolina Camp Rucker Alabama and his subsequent deployment with the United States Army's 66th Division to the European Theater of Operations. Comprised of more than 500 letters Coons traces his father's remarkable journey from green soldier to seasoned vet and shares how this war affected the world on both a global and individual scale. As part of the 66th Division Coons crossed the Atlantic on the HMS Britannic, stopped for a short while in southeastern England, crossed the English Channel on Christmas Eve 1944 and ended his journey in Brittany France. Here the 66th guarded the German submarine base pockets at L'Orient and St Nazaire. Through it all Coons documents a soldier's daily life with its sometimes grueling days and nights revealing moments of despair, hope, friendship and courage within the midst of war. A poignant intimate look at the on-the-ground experiences of a member of the Greatest Generation, Letters Home is a worthy addition to any World War II bookshelf.

The Leopoldville Trilogy Raymond J. Roberts, 2001-06-01 Leopoldville: a Tragedy Too Long Secret Allan Andrade, 2008-12-09 Allan Andrade has conducted his own investigation of the Leopoldville incident. The American, British and Belgian governments engaged in a cover up, filed the papers away as secret. Dennis Hevesi, The New York Times: "This story should hold a special place in every state's history. Simply put, the soldiers that lost their lives deserve the proper respect and remembrance for their sacrifice and those that survived need to be recognized for their valor." New York City Congressman Gary L Ackerman: "On behalf of the residents of New York City I express my appreciation to Allan Andrade for researching and writing a book on this tragedy." New York City Mayor Rudolph W Giuliani: "With skills developed over 20 years as a New York City Police investigative lieutenant, he started digging into the dusty hidden files with the tenacity of a real-life Columbo. Andrade tracked down not only survivors but also relatives of the victims: sons, daughters, brothers, sisters, wives. Andrade had the difficult task of telling the truth about the sinking of the SS Leopoldville and finding again that it is not for the dead that we grieve but for the living." Reuters Television Investigative Reporter Lawrence Bond: "Retired NYC Police Lieutenant Allan Andrade has investigated and put together the facts and poignant individual stories of the Leopoldville disaster. Future historians of this incident will be compelled to use his research as a starting point for their own work." Originally published in 1997, the book has been revised to include new material and photographs. Allan Andrade was the American historical consultant for a TV documentary regarding the Leopoldville disaster. The documentary was produced by Northern Sky Entertainment Ltd, Toronto, Canada, during 2008. I was flown to England, revisited the sites directly connected to the tragedy. He was aboard a research vessel directly over the wreck when professional divers dove to film it. He also visited Cherbourg France destination of the Leopoldville and Normandy American Cemetery where some of the Leopoldville victims are buried With him were a Leopoldville survivor 2 relatives of 2 different soldiers who were killed one where body recovered one where body never found The program Deep Wreck Mysteries Sunk on Christmas Eve aired on the National Geographic Channel during February 2009 Épaves des côtes de France Bernard
