

The background of the book cover is a landscape painting. It depicts a wide valley with a river or lake in the center. The river reflects the light from the sky. The surrounding hills and mountains are covered in green vegetation. The sky is filled with soft, white and grey clouds, suggesting a bright but slightly overcast day. The overall style is reminiscent of 19th-century landscape art.

Martyn Lloyd-Jones, 2009-01-14 This substantial volume includes more than fifty never before published expository sermons on John 4 from one of the twentieth century's greatest preachers. It was just a conversation between two people by the side of a well in Samaria. One a local woman came to perform her daily task of drawing water. Another a Jewish man tired from traveling sat down for a drink. But he wasn't just any Jewish man and this wasn't just any conversation. The man Jesus revealed himself as the Messiah leading to the conversion of not only the Samaritan woman but many from her town. Now for the first time fifty-six sermons by Martyn Lloyd Jones on this passage of Scripture are available in Living Water. Lloyd Jones known for his ability to clearly communicate profound theological concepts digs into this familiar passage from the fourth chapter of the Gospel of John exposing fresh layers of truth. His perceptive analysis is helpful for all who thirst for the living water that only Jesus can provide. Two Treatises ... Jeremiah Burroughs, 1656 Half-Past Dawn Richard Doetsch, 2011-09-27 From the international bestselling author of The 13th Hour comes a thrilling story of one man's race against time to find his wife and catch a revenge-blinded assassin in this novel full of nonstop action, mind-bending switchbacks and psychological puzzles. Bookreporter Jack Keeler wakes up one bright June morning to the shock of his life: a half-healed gash over his right eye, a hastily stitched-together bullet wound in his shoulder, an intricate tattoo in a foreign script covering the length of his forearm, and a front-page headline that reads NEW YORK CITY DISTRICT ATTORNEY JACK KEELER IS DEAD. He has until dawn to piece together what happened and to find his missing wife Mia, an FBI agent. The ensuing race is a twisting, turning, adrenaline-charged, hyper-speed adventure that uncovers an ancient people lost to legend, an assassin who will stop at nothing to avenge his death sentence, a diary whose contents foretell the future, and a curious mystery hidden deep inside the country's most dangerous prison. Love Anytime Rosie Moore, 2018-05-05 Love Anytime is a mostly fictitious love story with some true-life episodes included. It is the story of a young girl who tries to circumvent and overcome a problem or difficulty in a clever and surreptitious way. She thinks she finds the answer when she meets the love of her life, until war, imprisonment, and the chaos of life keep them apart. Will their love survive? Spirit of the Season Fern Michaels, 2022-09-27 This heartwarming holiday tale from internationally bestselling author Fern Michaels epitomizes the magic of Christmas: a holiday homecoming, a bucolic setting, the remembrance of loved ones past and present, and the discovery of a future that, like the perfect gift, is as satisfying as it is surprising. Joy Preston misses her beloved late grandmother dearly. But when she learns the terms of Nana's will, she's shocked and more than a little irked. Joy moved to Colorado years ago and is now CEO of a successful nail polish company. Her life is in Denver. How can Nana have expected her to give that up, even temporarily, to take over a bed and breakfast in North Carolina for six months? Still, there's no denying Heart and Soul's charm, especially at holiday time. The B&B is always elaborately decorated for the season with themed guest rooms and dazzling lawn displays created for the annual Parade of Homes competition. The entire town takes part in the festivities, and soon Joy is too letting her reservations melt away. Yet there's another reason for Heart and Soul's popularity.

Rumor has it that during the holidays guests can be reunited with the spirit of a loved one who's passed on Joy is skeptical yet she feels her Nana's influence all around her perhaps even indulging in a little matchmaking between Joy and a handsome estate attorney who just might inspire a magical new beginning Ten Minutes To Park Street Mike Ryan, 2014-04-01 When his Green Line trolley breaks down on the way to a meeting at the State House Dan Pulaski meets a beautiful stranger and feels a connection Unfortunately service resumes thirty minutes later When Dan gets off at Park Street Station he can't hear her name above the commotion During the delay attorney Joy Hawley who also is late for her meeting notices a man with a blue novelty tie She recognizes the writing on the tie as the preamble of the United States Constitution When Joy is caught staring she starts a conversation with Dan She tries to tell him her name and he tries to tell her his When the doors open at the station the ensuing noise muffles their responses Did you ever feel you had a connection with a stranger Would you dismiss it as a fluke or would you not stop trying to find that person until you had exhausted every possible avenue Election, Barth, and the French Connection Pierre Maury, 2016-07-29 Karl Barth's famous account of the doctrine of election in his mammoth Church Dogmatics has been described as the heart of his theology a great hymn to the grace of God in Christ He maintained that we must look away from all others and excluding all side glances or secondary thoughts we must look only upon the name of Jesus Christ God's election is primarily about his self decision or self determination not about his election of individuals In this book we discover Barth's fascinating French connection pastor theologian Pierre Maury 1890-1956 His close friendship and especially a paper he gave in 1936 helped stimulate Barth's reflection Also included are some never before translated works of Maury as well as a revision of a previously published piece on predestination Four theologians then reflect on their significance for us today from historical textual pastoral and theological standpoints and seek to draw conclusions for us in our contemporary setting sixty to eighty years from their original composition Abandoned Dan Foley, 2020-01-03 Every time James Sutton gets close to someone it ends in disaster He's abandoned at birth by his parents at nine by his best friend Alex and his dog Trixie at eighteen by his girlfriend Donna and at thirty when his adoptive father commits suicide and leaves James alone again On a rare warm day in January James witnesses a man suffer a heart attack The paramedics arrive in minutes and whisk the man away failing to see the pair of glasses lying on the ground where the man collapsed For James and his abandonment issues this will not do It's time for a little payback on behalf of everyone and every thing that has ever been neglected or discarded James is going to set things right again one body part at a time Proceedings of the International Conference of Women Physicians, 1920

Martyn Lloyd-Jones, 2013-03-31 Just hours before his betrayal and arrest Jesus offered his famous High Priestly Prayer one of the most intimate moments between Christ and his Father recorded in Scripture John 17 has thus greatly encouraged Christians for millennia as it boldly affirms our connection to Christ In this masterful verse by verse exposition of Jesus s words renowned Bible teacher and preacher Dr Martyn Lloyd Jones lays before us the richness the depth the wonder and the assurance of God s plan of salvation      Eudaimonia - Happiness Is Not Enough M. J. Newby, 2011 What the love of wisdom is and how it enables us to live in today s world are explored in this ambitious work Rich insights into what human maturity means and how it is reached have become too easily lost or confined to the world of high academia Well being the true goal of human being has been tragically reduced to happiness and its meanings lost No subject could be more important and few modern works deal with it that are not religious dogmatic and furtively proselytising. Profound ideas are here applied to such unlikely things as skateboarding, love, making, getting rich, tourism and playing cricket, all of which can become a means to the development of mental strength and genuine love. Post-religious spirituality clarified here is the development of the psyche, which is as important as finding or losing oneself and winning or losing in the arena of living. In the age of fiction, our lives are enriched by myriad vital stories personally loved and also endowed with wider meanings through living in the shared master story for today: the incomplete saga of the salvation of the planet. Radical implications for education, human communication, politics and a sustainable future permeate the text, which calls upon authoritative voices from recent times and the deeper past: from Socrates to Habermas, from Judaism and Christianity to Islam and the traditions of the East. This is no mere history but the building of a radical approach to human spirituality, lifestyle, communication and life goals. Although the way is hard, deliverance from the darkness of consumerism, the pressure of rivalry and confusion about ultimate goals is offered in this book. The thorough bibliography and referencing enable the reader to pursue a wide range of topics and render the work suitable for the hard-pressed student as well as readers for leisure.
