Sermon As Symphony Preaching The Literary Forms Of The New Testament:

The Sermon as Symphony Mike Graves, 1997 The Sermon as Symphony examines ten literary forms in the New Testament and illustrates their use in sample sermons from some of today's best known preachers among them Eugene Lowry William Willimon and Frederick Buechner Preaching the New Testament as Rhetoric Tim MacBride, 2014-11-05 Since the rise of the New Homiletic a generation ago it has been recognized that sermons not only say something to listeners they also do something A truly expository sermon will seek not merely to say what the biblical text said but also to do what the biblical text did in the lives of its original audience In Preaching the New Testament as Rhetoric MacBride looks how at the discipline of rhetorical criticism can help preachers discern the function of a New Testament text in its original setting as a means of crafting a sermon that can function similarly in contemporary contexts Focusing on the letters of Paul he shows how understanding them in light of Greco Roman speech conventions can suggest ways by which preachers can communicate not just the content of the letters but also their function In this way the power of the text itself can be harnessed leading to sermons that inform and most importantly transform Preaching the New Testament Ian Paul, David Wenham, 2013-04-05 The New Testament writers proclaimed their message passionately and persuasively This volume explores how we can preach faithfully from those texts The chapters cover the main texts and genres of the New Testament and offer particular insights into the infancy narratives parables miracles the Sermon on the Mount ethics future hope and judgment archaeology and history hermeneutics and the New Homiletic Building on sound principles of interpretation communication and application this book supports the efforts of preachers and Bible teachers to proclaim the good news to listeners today Contributors include Charles Anderson D A Carson the late R T France Justin Hardin Mariam Kamell I Howard Marshall Jason Maston John Nolland Peter Oakes William Olhausen Klyne Snodgrass Helge Stadelmann Christoph Stenschke Stephen Travis Paul Weston and Stephen Wright The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors

Snyder, 2021-08-17 Preaching and music are both regular elements of Christian worship yet they often don't interact or inform each other in meaningful ways Theologian pastor and musician Noel A Snyder considers how preaching that seeks to engage hearts and minds might be helpfully informed by musical theory so that preachers might craft sermons that sing The Art and Craft of Biblical Preaching Haddon W. Pelton, 2019-03-21 A resource to help pastors correctly identify the big idea of a passage and apply it well Preaching with Accuracy provides preachers with a method for finding the big idea in each passage of the Bible since correctly identifying the main point is key to accurately conveying the essential theology of the passage Pelton lays out a reliable well informed method for identifying the main point of a preaching passage and understanding that passage well in its context Numerous examples are given at each step of the way to show how meaning develops throughout the process of interpretation Pelton then guides the preacher through applying a Christ centered hermeneutic that will result in biblical sermons that benefit and equip believers The Dynamics of Preaching (Ministry Dynamics for a New Century) Warren W. Banting, 2019-12-20 Faithful biblical sermons not only attempt to capture what the biblical text says but also what the text is trying to do Biblical sermons will take direction from both the content and the intent of the biblical text In Taken Up and Preached Blayne Banting supplies examples of sermons from his own preaching ministry to illustrate the Homiletical Bridge methodology he developed in his previous book Take Up and Preach A Primer for Interpreting Preaching Texts 2016 Theopoetry of the Psalms C.J.A. Preaching that Matters Lori J. Carrell, 2013-04-11 Listeners do love their pastors and they agree with the sermon content they hear Lori Carrell once explained to a group of pastors but most sermons don't ask for change and most listeners don't experience spiritual growth as a result of the sermon A participant responded Let's get practical I want my preaching to make a difference What changes are worth making and how do I make them In Preaching that Matters Lori Carrell shares answers to that question drawing on the experiences of thousands of people preachers and their listeners whose effort she has studied over many years In each chapter of this book she offers research revelations about high impact preaching that will encourage and challenge readers to continue to grow as preachers She then links these principles with Reflective Practice Challenges RPCs exercises that honor the rich experiences of pastors while opening opportunities for self analysis spiritual introspection conversation with a trusted other or implementation of research based preaching recommendations The activities have been used by hundreds of other pastors and each RPC has been carefully selected for its demonstrated contribution to the process of transforming sermon communication A selection of the RPCs are available as a downloadable file E mail resource material rowman com for more information As a communication expert Carrell approaches preaching from a sermon communication paradigm She begins with the task of identifying the spiritually transformative purpose of the sermon and then explores exegeting organizing deepening and delivering the sermon as well as listening to the listeners and planning for continued transformation Her own goal is simple to inspire and equip clergy to make changes that will enhance the transformative power of their preaching To connect with others reading Preaching That Matters and to find an online accountability partner join the book's Google communities

Biblical Preaching Robert Curry, 2023-12-11 Preaching is a demand of the Bible that is fitted with a specific purpose and a strong theological base It is the proclamation of the word of God and is done in churches throughout the world Preaching plays a role in the spiritual formation of its hearers helping to form a community of faith whose members are sharing in and supporting one another in a spiritual journey The topics of preaching can be found in both the Old and New Testaments within several different genres but closer attention might be given to the genres of the parables of Jesus and the speeches in the book of Acts As a topic of preaching the parables can be understood as examples of allegory simile and or metaphor The speeches in Acts offer a picture window of a sort into the homiletical mindset of the apostles and other disciples as they proclaimed the gospel to the world as they knew it Preaching is a demand of the Bible and a specific task of those who are privileged to do it
