James L. Resseguie, 2021-10-11 This narrative commentary systematically examines John's Apocalypse from a narrative critical perspective. After an introduction to narrative criticism, the volume focuses on point of view, setting, rhetoric, character, and plot in the Book of Revelation. The rhetorical and symbolic significance of numerals are discussed at length, as are the multifaceted characters in the book, such as demonic animals, locusts, beasts, dragon, birds, and apocalyptic animals, the Lamb, and the four living creatures. The symbolic significance of topographical, architectural, agricultural, and other settings is emphasized. The final chapter of the book is a summary of some of the major theological themes of Revelation. The volume provides a useful methodology for the study of a much-disputed book of the Bible.
