Looking Within Selected Poems 1954 :

The Necropolitical Theater Jeffrey K. Coleman, 2020-05-15 The Necropolitical Theater Race and Immigration on the Contemporary Spanish Stage demonstrates how theatrical production in Spain since the early 1990s has reflected national anxieties about immigration and race Jeffrey K Coleman argues that Spain has developed a necropolitical theater that casts the non European immigrant as fictionalized enemy one whose nonwhiteness is incompatible with Spanish national identity and therefore poses a threat to the very Europeaness of Spain The fate of the immigrant in the necropolitical theater is death either physical or metaphysical which preserves the status quo and provides catharsis for the spectator faced with the notion of racial diversity Marginalization forced assimilation and physical death are outcomes suffered by Latin American North African and sub Saharan African characters respectively and in these differential outcomes determined by skin color Coleman identifies an inherent racial hierarchy informed by the legacies of colonization and religious intolerance Drawing on theatrical texts performances legal documents interviews and critical reviews this book challenges Spanish theater to develop a new theatrical space Jeffrey K Coleman proposes a convivial theater that portrays immigrants as contributors to the Spanish state and better represents the multicultural reality of the nation today Looking Within Nancy Morejón, 2003 A bilingual edition of poetry from an important Cuban poet The Whole Island Mark Weiss, 2009-11-25 Cuba's cultural influence throughout the Western Hemisphere and especially in the United States has been disproportionately large for so small a country This landmark volume is the first comprehensive overview of poetry written over the past sixty years Presented in a beautiful Spanish English en face edition The Whole Island makes available the astonishing achievement of a wide range of Cuban poets including such well known figures as Nicolás Guillén José Lezama Lima and Nancy Morejón but also poets widely read in Spanish who remain almost unknown to the English speaking world among them Fina García Marruz José Kozer Raúl Hernández Novás and Angel Escobar and poets born since the Revolution like Rogelio Saunders Omar Pérez Alessandra Molina and Javier Marín The translations almost all of them new convey the intensity and beauty of the accompanying Spanish originals With their work deeply rooted in Cuban culture many of these poets both on and off the island have been at the center of the political and social changes of this tempestuous period The poems offered here constitute an essential source for understanding the literature and culture of Cuba its diaspora and the Caribbean at large and provide an unparalleled perspective on what it means to be Cuban The Cambridge Companion to Latin American Poetry Stephen M. Hart, 2018-03-22 This Companion provides a chronological survey of Latin American poetry analysis of modern trends and six succinct essays on the major figures Seeing in Spanish Ryan Prout, Tilmann Altenberg, 2011-05-25 Seeing in Spanish brings together 22 chapters which share a focus on aspects of visual cultures from the Spanish speaking world Together these chapters address film photography cover art body art posters television architecture ekphrasis biography murals graffiti and digital photo montage Between Don Quixote and Daddy Yankee the essays move from the seventeenth century to the present and traverse Europe the Americas and cyberspace The book is divided into five sections The first of these on Spain includes chapters on the representation of women on LP covers in Spain in the 60s and 70s portrayals in Spanish cinema of Saint Teresa Luis Buñuel's adaptation of Tristana urban and rural space in recent Spanish documentary film Catalan television fine art in Don Quixote and visions of adoption in three narratives by Spanish writers and filmmakers The second section on Mexico and Peru includes chapters on the fragmentary body in images of Mexico the art of Abraham Angel Jesú Ruiz Durand's agrarian reform posters Diego Rivera's murals and the role of artistic production in staging the 2006 Oaxaca conflict The third section on Cuba looks at the portrayal of women and of children in recent cinema from the island It also examines Nancy Morejon's celebration of the life and art of exiled Cuban artist Ana Mendieta Section four includes chapters on Chile and Argentina It addresses street art and graffiti new forms of publishing Chilean cinema after Pinochet and Violeta Parra's appliqué and collage works Section five embraces Colombia Bolivia and virtual spaces The contributions to this last section of the book examine childhood in Colombian cinema the online creativity of pro and anti fans of reggaeton and the photographic diaries of T Ifor Rees the UK's first ambassador to Bolivia In addition to the geopolitical structure which underpins the book's five sections the introduction suggests pathways through the contributions focussed on public art and graffiti women children cyberspace and diplomacy and reconstruction and disintegration Seeing in Spanish includes 50 illustrations stills from films photographs reproductions of paintings and screen grabs from the internet which complement the chapters analyses of aspects of Hispanic visual cultures To aid accessibility footnotes throughout the book provide English translations of all references from texts in other languages Taken together the book's 22 chapters make a valuable contribution to the existing literature on figures like Don Quixote and Saint Teresa They also break new ground in approaches to novel areas of scholarship such as sleeve design artisanal book production and digital image manipulation The book will appeal to students and scholars of Spain and Latin America as well as to a general readership with an interest in the visual cultures of the Spanish speaking world

Black Cosmopolitanism Ifeoma Kiddoe Nwankwo, 2005-07-13 Through readings of slave narratives fiction poetry nonfiction newspaper editorials and government documents including texts by Frederick Douglass and freed West Indian slave Mary Prince Ifeoma Kiddoe Nwankwo explicates the growing interrelatedness of people of African descent through the Americas in the nineteenth century

Liberation Memories Keith Gilyard, 2003 Seeking to strengthen our understanding of this important literary figure Keith Gilyard departs from standard critical frameworks to reveal Killens's novels as artful renderings of rich African American rhetorical forms and verbal traditions thought social movements legal history environmental history and ideologies of racial inclusion This volume connects the region's long history of slavery to the major political social cultural and economic developments of the last two centuries Written by leading scholars in each of those topics the volume provides an introduction to the field of Afro Latin American studies that is not available from any other source and reflects the disciplinary and thematic richness of this emerging field

Stories of Latin American Women of African Heritage María Mercedes Jaramillo, Lucía Ortiz, 2025-07-24 Stories of Latin American Women of African Heritage Daughters of Muntu highlights the significant contributions of women in the African diaspora to the Americas A translation to English of the highly influential Hijas del Muntu the chapters of this edited collection illuminate life experiences and examine narrative threads and traces of identity whose common theme is the history of struggle for equal rights and participation in society The diverse women in these stories come from all walks of life from the singers and poets to favela leaders and mainstream politicians Their stories are told through interviews personal accounts and traditional academic biography Stories of Latin American Women of African Heritage Daughters of Muntu will be a valuable resource to those interested in Latin American Studies Gender Studies and Race Studies among other disciplines

Guarding Cultural Memory Flora María González Mandri, 2006 In Guarding Cultural Memory Flora González Mandri examines the vibrant and uniquely illuminating post Revolutionary creative endeavors of Afro Cuban women Taking on the question of how African diaspora cultures practice remembrance she reveals the ways in which these artists restage the confrontations between modernity and tradition González Mandri considers the work of the poet and cultural critic Nancy Morejón the poet Excilia Saldaña the filmmaker Gloria Rolando and the artists María Magdalena Campos Pons and Belkis Ayón In their cultural representations these women conflate the artistic the historical and the personal to produce a transformative image of the black woman as a forger of Cuban culture They achieve this in several ways by redefining autobiography as a creative expression for the convergence of the domestic and the national by countering the eroticized image of the mulatta in favor of a mythical conception of the female body as a site for the engraving of cultural and national conflicts and resolutions and by valorizing certain aesthetic and religious traditions in relation to a postmodern artistic sensibility Placing these artists in their historical context González Mandri shows how their accomplishments were consistently silenced in official Cuban history and culture and explores the strategies through which culturally censored memories survived and continue to survive in a Caribbean country purported to have integrated its Hispanic and African peoples and heritages into a Cuban identity The picture that finally emerges is one not only of exceptional artistic achievement but also of successful redefinitions of concepts of race gender and nation in the face of almost insurmountable cultural odds

Modern Poetry explores three interrelated subjects The first is a general exposition of the radical or deeply realistic aspects of the poetry and visual arts of the modern period The focus is on the works of Ezra Pound as understood through a prism of postmodern thought The second subject is the poetry and poetics of Charles Olson a pivotal figure during the transition from modernism to postmodernism The third subject is contemporary innovative poetry with special attention to transcultural neobarroco and language centered aspects of composition The grounding for this section is found in the works of William Carlos Williams Aime Cesaire and Jose Lezama Lima A reversal of the relation between the center and periphery decentering the New York to Paris vector is crucial for understanding the Caribbean as a seedbed for both innovative and identity based poetics Wellman's purpose is to amplify the cultural importance of expressivity in a field where critical discussion is often dominated by constructivism and conceptualism Expressivity in Modern Poetry offers a new reading of the relation between twentieth century modernism and contemporary poetic practice

Africa and the Americas Richard M. Juang, Noelle Morrisette, 2008-03-12 This encyclopedia explores the many long standing influences of Africa and people of African descent on the culture of the Americas while tracing the many ways in which the Americas remain closely interconnected with Africa Ranging from the 15th century to the present Africa and the Americas Culture Politics and History explores the many ways Africa and African peoples have shaped the cultural life of the Americas and how in turn life in the Americas reverberates in Africa This groundbreaking three volume encyclopedia offers hundreds of alphabetically organized entries on African history nations and peoples plus African influenced aspects of life in the Americas It also features authoritative introductory essays on history culture and religion demography international relations economics and trade and arts and literature In doing so it traces the complex and continuous movement of peoples of African descent to the West the mechanics and lingering effects of colonialism and the slave trade and the crucial issues of cultural retention and adaptation that are essential to our understanding of the effects of globalization

White Nationalism, Black Interests Ronald W. Walters, 2003 A study of the most racially conscious aspect of the Conservative movement and its impact on politics and current public policy The rise of the Conservative movement in the United States over the last two decades is evident in current public policy including the passage of the Welfare Reform Act the weakening of affirmative action and the approval of educational vouchers for private schooling At the same time new rules on congressional redistricting prohibit legislators from constructing majority black congressional districts and blacks continue to suffer disproportionate rates of incarceration and death penalty sentencing In this significant new study the distinguished political scientist Ronald W Walters argues that the Conservative movement during this period has had an inordinate impact on American governing institutions and that a strong though very often unstated racial hostility drives the public policies put forth by Conservative politicians Walters traces the emergence of what he calls a new White Nationalism showing how it fuels the Conservative movement invades the public discourse and generates policies that protect the interests of white voters at the expense of blacks and other nonwhites Using historical and contemporary examples of White Nationalist policy as well as empirical public opinion data Walters demonstrates the degree to which this ideology exists among white voters and the negative impact of its policies on the black community White Nationalism Black Interests terms the current period a second Reconstruction comparing the racial dynamics in the post Civil Rights era to those of the first Reconstruction following the end of the Civil War Walters s analysis of contemporary racial politics is uniquely valuable to scholars and lay readers alike and is sure to spark further public debate Racial Experiments in Cuban Literature and Ethnography Emily A. Maguire, 2018-07-02 An important contribution to U S Caribbean dialogues in the field of Afro Diasporic literatures and cultures Jossianna Arroyo author of Travestismos culturales literature y etnografía en Cuba y Brasil Maguire s close readings of women ethnographers like Lydia Cabrera and Zora Neale Hurston result in a very original approach to dealing with the topic of race and how it overlaps with the categories of gender Outstanding work James Pancrazio author of The Logic of Fetishism Alejo Carpentier and the Cuban Tradition Ingeniously tells the story of the tensions between artist and ethnographer that inform the Cuban national narrative of the twentieth century Racial Experiments in Cuban Literature and Ethnography is essential reading for a large audience of students and scholars alike within Caribbean American and African Diaspora studies Jaqueline Loss author of Cosmopolitanisms and Latin America In the wake of independence from Spain in 1898 Cuba s intellectual avant garde struggled to cast their country as a modern nation They grappled with the challenges presented by the postcolonial situation in general and with the location of blackness within a narrative of Cuban ness in particular In this breakthrough study Emily Maguire examines how a cadre of writers reimagined the nation and re valorized Afro Cuban culture through a textual production that incorporated elements of the ethnographic with the literary Singling out the work of Lydia Cabrera as emblematic of the experimentation with genre that characterized the age Maguire constructs a series of counterpoints that place Cabrera s work in dialogue with that of her Cuban contemporaries including Fernando Ortiz Nicol s Guill n and Alejo Carpentier An illuminating final chapter on Cabrera and Zora Neale Hurston widens the scope to contextualize Cuban texts within a hemispheric movement to represent black culture Emily A Maguire is associate professor of Spanish at Northwestern University Black Writing, Culture, and the State in Latin America Jerome C. Branche, 2021-04-30 Imagine the tension that existed between the emerging nations and governments throughout the Latin American world and the cultural life of former enslaved Africans and their descendants A world of cultural production in the form of literature poetry art music and eventually film would often simultaneously contravene or cooperate with the newly established order of Latin American nations negotiating independence and a new political and cultural balance In Black Writing Culture and the State in Latin America Jerome Branche presents the reader with the complex landscape of art and literature among Afro Hispanic and Latin artists Branche and his contributors describe individuals such as Juan Francisco Manzano who wrote an autobiography on the slave experience in Cuba during the nineteenth century The reader finds a thriving Afro Hispanic theatrical presence throughout Latin America and even across the Atlantic The role of black women in poetry and literature comes to the forefront in the Caribbean presenting a powerful reminder of the diversity that defines the region All too often the disciplines of film studies literary criticism and art history ignore the opportunity to collaborate in a dialogue Branche and his contributors present a unified approach however suggesting that cultural production should not be viewed narrowly especially when studying the achievements of the Afro Latin world

2023 Günter Berghaus, Dalila Colucci, Tim Klähn, 2023-12-04 This thirteenth volume of the International Yearbook of Futurism Studies explores some of the many facets of Neo Futurism from the second half of the twentieth century to the present day It looks both at the revival and the continuation of Futurist aesthetics whether in explicit or palimpsest form in a variety of media literature visual art design music architecture theatre and photography The essays delve into the broad spectrum of artistic research and offer a good dozen case studies that document with a transnational and interdisciplinary orientation the manifold forms of Neo Futurism in various parts of the world They investigate how historical Futurism's intellectual and artistic perspective was appropriated and developed further in a more or less conscious faithful and original way all the while confronting its progenitor's cultural social and political misconceptions

Interdisciplinary contributions to neo futurism as a global phenomenon The Collected Poems of Frank O'Hara Frank O'Hara, 1995-03-31 Available for the first time in paperback The Collected Poems of Frank O'Hara reflects the poet's growth as an artist from the earliest dazzling experimental verses that he began writing in the late 1940s to the years before his accidental death at forty when his poems became increasingly individual and reflective
