Martha Berry Little Woman With A Big Dream:

Martha Berry, a Woman of Courageous Spirit and Bold Dreams Joyce Blackburn, 1992 Martha Berry started a revolution that has changed the lives of more young men and women than she ever dreamed possible and her dreams were big ones Martha Berry started a revolution that has changed the lives of more young men and women than she ever dreamed possible and her dreams were big ones Starting with a tiny log cabin Martha Berry devoted her life to building a school where underprivileged children could be taught a vocation along with academic studies From her first contacts with the poor mountain children of Georgia she faced disapproval from her more wealthy relatives and friends and she encountered many disappointments But her determination coupled with her charm and genius inspired both the poor and the wealthy to aid in her crusade for a better education for all children Today Berry College stands as a fitting monument to the vision of this inspired woman who was honored for her work by three presidents of the United States Berry College Ouida Dickey, Doyle Mathis, 2011-08-15 Illustrated with more than one hundred photographs a detailed and comprehensive history of Berry College located in northwest Georgia reviews its humble beginnings in 1902 as a trade school for rural Appalachian youth to its present day standing among the Southeast's best liberal arts colleges Soldiers in Petticoats Betty Jamerson Reed, 2019-11-04 Sophia Sawyer Emily Prudden and Martha Berry encountered sexism prejudice financial hardship discrimination challenging travel conditions exclusion from the right to vote and social complacency On one occasion two militiamen showed up at the school door and threatened to arrest the teacher if she continued teaching black children to read Another instructor dealt with murder and mayhem violence loss of life and racial hostility And a third was shunned by her neighbors because she associated with poor mountaineers and begged to keep her school open Their victories against overwhelming obstacles on behalf of struggling youth in the Southern Appalachian region as well as in Oklahoma and Arkansas led each into a deeper Christian life With vision audacity and resolution these teachers enabled students to succeed Their accomplishments as educators and as Christians provide inspiration for today's readers Sawyer Prudden and Berry were viewed in their culture as weak However they battled ignorance bias superstition and even dirt as they effectively changed the lives of thousands of children and adults Women and Philanthropy in Education Andrea Walton, 2005-02-15 This book illuminates the philanthropic impulse that has influenced women's education and its place in the broader history of philanthropy in America Contributing to the history of women education and philanthropy the book shows how voluntary activity and home grown educational enterprise were as important as big donors in the development of philanthropy The essays in Women and Philanthropy in Education are generally concerned with local rather than national effects of philanthropy and the giving of time rather than monetary support Many of the essays focus on the individual lives of female philanthropists Olivia Sage Martha Berry and teachers Tsuda Umeko Catharine Beecher offering personal portraits of philanthropy in the 19th and 20th centuries These stories provide evidence of the key role played by women in the development of philanthropy and its importance to the education of women Philanthropic and Nonprofit Studies Dwight F Burlingame and David C Hammack editors Georgia's Remarkable Women Sara Hines Martin, 2015-11-01 Georgia's Remarkable Women Daughters Wives Sisters and Mothers Who Shaped History recognizes the women who helped to shape the Peach State Female teachers writers entrepreneurs and artists from across the state are illuminated through short biographies and archival photographs and paintings Setting their own standards and following their passions they continue to inspire new generations with their achievements Meet Rebecca Latimer Felton the first woman to sit as a U S senator Juliette Gordon Low the resilient founder of the Girl Scouts Sarah Freeman Clarke a painter who dared to pursue art and literature as a career Gertrude Ma Rainey the Mother of the Blues whose voice transcended race and class and Margaret Mitchell author of the enduring tale of survival Gone with the Wind Martha Berry Ouida Dickey, 2001 This volume is presented as part of the Centennial 1902 2002 Celebration of Berry College its founder Martha Berry and its predecessor institutions These Sketches are organized into five parts that emphasize both the history and the important influences that Martha Berry and the institutions have inspired and given through these 100 years Front flap of dustjacket Appalachian Children's Literature , 2010-04-13 This comprehensive bibliography includes books written about or set in Appalachia from the 18th century to the present Titles represent the entire region as defined by the Appalachian Regional Commission including portions of 13 states stretching from southern New York to northern Mississippi The bibliography is arranged in alphabetical order by author and each title is accompanied by an annotation most of which include composite reviews and critical analyses of the work All classic genres of children's literature are represented Weavers of the Southern Highlands Philis Alvic, 2014-07-11 Weaving centers led the Appalachian Craft Revival at the beginning of the twentieth century Soon after settlement workers came to the mountains to start schools they expanded their focus by promoting weaving as a way for women to help their family's financial situation Women wove thousands of guest towels baby blankets and place mats that found a ready market in the women's network of religious denominations arts organizations and civic clubs In Weavers of the Southern Highlands Philis Alvic details how the Fireside Industries of Berea College in Kentucky began with women weaving to supply their children's school expenses and later developed student labor programs where hundreds of students covered their tuition by weaving Arrowcraft associated with Pi Beta Phi School at Gatlinburg Tennessee and the Penland Weavers and Potters begun at the Appalachian School at Penland North Carolina followed the Berea model Women wove at home with patterns and materials supplied by the center returning their finished products to the coordinating organization to be marketed Dozens of similar weaving centers dotted mountain ridges The Papers of Martin Luther King, Jr., Volume VI Martin Luther King, Clayborne Carson, 1992 Initiated by The King Center in association with Stanford University Grieving the Death of a Friend Harold Ivan Smith, 2025-05-27 The death of a friend is one of the most significant but unrecognized experiences of grief Almost everyone will at some point in their lives suffer

the death of a beloved friend Yet though this experience is just as common as the loss of a father or mother there are fewer resources for those who experience this devastating and sometimes confusing loss Drawing on his own experiences losing dear friends as well as the experiences of others grief counselor and educator Harold Ivan Smith guides readers through this unique grief In this updated edition of his 1996 classic Smith encourages readers to embrace and listen to their grief as a natural response to loss and to give themselves time to work through sadness ambiguous feelings memories and the reality of living without a valued friend With gentle and wise words Smith speaks to those who have gone through this loss and those yet to face it Catalog of Copyright Entries.
