Mary Hallock Foote Doris Bickford-Swarthout,1996 Mary Hallock Foote Darlis A. Miller,2002 Devoted wife and mother Acclaimed novelist illustrator and interpreter of the American West At a time when society expected women to concentrate on family and hearth Mary Hallock Foote 1847 1938 published twelve novels four short story collections almost two dozen stories and essays and innumerable illustrations In Mary Hallock Foote Darlis A. Miller examines the life of this gifted and spirited woman from the East as she adapted herself and her artistic vision to the West Foote's images of the American West differed sharply from those offered by male artists and writers of the time She depicted a more gentle West a domestic West of families and settlements rather than a Wild West of soldiers American Indians and cowboys Miller examines how Foote's career was molded by the East West tensions she experienced throughout her adult life and by society's expectations of womanhood and motherhood This biography recounts Foote's Quaker upbringing her education at the School of Design for Women at Cooper Union New York her marriage to Arthur De Wint Foote including his alcohol problems her life in Boise Idaho and later Grass Valley California her grief over the early death of daughter Agnes Foote and the previously unexplored last two decades of her life Miller has made extensive use of every major archive of letters and documents by and about Foote She sheds light on Foote's numerous stories essays and novels And examines all pertinent sources on Foote's life and works Anyone interested in the American West women's history or life histories in general will find Miller's biography of Mary Hallock Foote fascinating

Illuminative Moments in Pacific Northwest Prose Richard W. Etulain,2024-03-12 Richard W Etulain examines the emergence of Pacific Northwest prose beginning in the early nineteenth century up to the present The book provides an introductory overview to a vast subject through illuminative moments that illustrate major shifts in the literary history of the region The book's focus is on novels histories and other nonfiction works that trace Pacific Northwest prose in chronological order through three periods the frontier regional and post regional eras Etulain provides extensive coverage of the writings of notable authors including novelists Frederic Homer Balch and Mary Hallock Foote offering an understanding of frontier romantic and Local Color Writers He also explores the works of H G Merriam and novelist H L Davis illustrating regional prose writings Finally Etulain includes a panoply of writers who exemplify an emphasis on gender race and ethnicity and environmental texts from the post WWII period Illuminative Moments in Pacific Northwest Prose delivers a first time overview of the region's literary contributions that will interest both scholars and general readers alike

Mary Hallock Foote Lee Ann Johnson,1980 Drawn to Purpose Martha H. Kennedy,2018-02-14 Winner of the 2019 Eisner Award for the Best Comics Related Book Published in partnership with the Library of Congress Drawn to Purpose American Women Illustrators and Cartoonists presents an overarching survey of women in American illustration from the late nineteenth into the twenty first century Martha H Kennedy brings special attention to forms that have heretofore received scant notice cover designs editorial illustrations and political cartoons and reveals the contributions of acclaimed cartoonists and illustrators along with many whose work has been overlooked Featuring over 250 color illustrations including eye catching original art from the collections of the Library of Congress Drawn to Purpose provides insight into the personal and professional experiences of eighty women who created these works Included are artists Roz Chast Lynda Barry Lynn Johnston and Jillian Tamaki The artists stories shaped by their access to artistic training the impact of marriage and children on careers and experiences of gender bias in the marketplace serve as vivid reminders of social change during a period in which the roles and interests of women broadened from the private to the public sphere The vast often neglected body of artistic achievement by women remains an important part of our visual culture The lives and work of the women responsible for it merit much further attention than they have received thus far For readers who care about cartooning and illustration Drawn to Purpose provides valuable insight into this rich heritage

American Women Prose Writers, 1870-1920 Sharon M. Harris, 2000 Essays on American prose writers during a period marked by enormous cultural change in a short period of time Like female sexuality issues of race and ethnicity were some of the most volatile themes addressed in women s prose writings of this period Some of the many ethnic and religious groups that emerged as significant literary voices were Jewish Native American African American Euramericans and Asian

Exile, Nature, and Transformation in the Life of Mary Hallock Foote Megan Riley McGilchrist, 2021-11-30 This book is about exile and transformation It is primarily about Mary Hallock Foote nineteenth century artist and writer easterner turned westerner but it is a hybrid work as well as being about Mary it is about what it has been like for me a twenty first century American expatriate Californian turned Londoner to find common ground in the life of a nineteenth century woman
