Memories of Burnley True North Holdings,1997-12-01 Bread Winner Emma Griffin,2020-04-14 The overlooked story of how ordinary women and their husbands managed financially in the Victorian era and why so many struggled despite increasing national prosperity Nineteenth century Britain saw remarkable economic growth and a rise in real wages But not everyone shared in the nation s wealth Unable to earn a sufficient income themselves working class women were reliant on the breadwinner wage of their husbands When income failed or was denied or squandered by errant men families could be plunged into desperate poverty from which there was no escape Emma Griffin unlocks the homes of Victorian England to examine the lives and finances of the people who lived there Drawing on over 600 working class autobiographies including more than 200 written by women Bread Winner changes our understanding of daily life in Victorian Britain Goodison Memories Steve Zocek,2022-04-11 Goodison Park is one of British sport s most fabled venues the home of Everton FC since 1892 and one of the last traditional football amphitheatres It has witnessed highs and lows and been graced by the likes of Dixie Dean Tommy Lawton Alan Ball Bob Latchford Gary Lineker Pele and Eusebio As the Toffees prepare to move to the waterfront Goodison Memories celebrates that legendary stadium with vivid recollections not from Evertonians but from opposition players managers officials and sports journalists The result is a collection of candid interviews that capture the essence of Goodison Park Listen to their tales of the Everton players they remember with fondness priceless anecdotes and memories of the atmosphere and features of the stadium Have you ever wondered what it was like for the broadcasters to sit on the TV gantry the press to work from the press box What was it like for match officials to take charge of the game and handle the characters on the Goodison turf Goodison Memories holds all the answers The Memory of the People Andy Wood,2013-08-15 Did ordinary people in early modern England have any coherent sense of the past Andy Wood s pioneering new book charts how popular memory generated a kind of usable past that legitimated claims to rights space and resources He explores the genesis of customary law in the medieval period the politics of popular memory local identities and traditions gender and custom literacy orality and memory landscape space and memory and the legacy of this cultural world for later generations Drawing from a wealth of sources ranging from legal proceedings and parochial writings to proverbs and estate papers he shows how custom formed a body of ideas built up generation after generation from localized patterns of cooperation and conflict This is a unique account of the intimate connection between landscape place and identity and of how the poorer and middling sort felt about the world around them The Local Historian ,1994 Issues for autumn 1961 include the Standing Conference for Local History Bulletin Southern Memories During the War Between the States Anne L. Terio,2011-04-19 This book provides part of the story about the Park Family of Georgia and certain events that happens to them during the War of the Federal Aggression Most people are taught in school to call it The War Between the States February 1861 to May 1865 I have always been told in my family that it was not a civil war since a civil war is a war within a state between people residing in that state The War Between the States comprised individual states declaring for Northern or Southern causes and loyalties During this time there was a higher degree of loyalty to ones state much more than to the new United States How can I share the story of the Park family and make it as exciting and interesting as it truly is Certain family stories are based on the papers of Anita Pressley a great great granddaughter of Joseph Park one of the three brothers who moved to Georgia Her papers include notes from family Bibles oral accounts from descendants still residing in Greene County in the early 1920s and 1930s and other relatives living throughout Georgia My Burnley Memories Leslie Chapples,1992
