Mister Javelin Guy Hadsall, Patrick R. Foster, 2007 To Serve the Living Suzanne E. Smith, 2010-06-01 For African Americans death was never simply the end of life and funerals were not just places to mourn In the hush harbors of the slave quarters African Americans first used funerals to bury their dead and to plan a path to freedom Similarly throughout the long and often violent struggle for racial equality in the twentieth century funeral directors aided the cause by honoring the dead while supporting the living To Serve the Living offers a fascinating history of how African American funeral directors have been integral to the fight for freedom

The Cambridge Companion to F. Scott Fitzgerald Ruth Prigozy, 2002 Eleven specially commissioned essays by major Fitzgerald scholars present a clearly written and comprehensive assessment of F. Scott Fitzgerald as a writer and as a public and private figure No aspect of his career is overlooked from his first novel published in 1920 through his more than 170 short stories to his last unfinished Hollywood novel Contributions present the reader with a full and accessible picture of the background of American social and cultural change in the early decades of the twentieth century The introduction traces Fitzgerald's career as a literary and public figure and examines the extent to which public recognition has affected his reputation among scholars critics and general readers over the past sixty years This volume offers undergraduates graduates and general readers a full account of

Fitzgerald's work as well as suggestions for further exploration of his work The Poems of John Dewey John Dewey, 1977 A literary discovery of considerable magnitude these 98 previously unpublished poems by John Dewey written principally in the 1910-18 period illuminate an emotive aspect in his intellectual life often not manifest in the prose works Rumors of the existence of the poems have circulated among students of Dewey's life and writings since 1957 when Mrs Roberta Dewey gained possession of them from the Columbia University Columbian collection But except for the few persons who saw copies made by the French scholar Deladelle five years after Dewey's death the poems have remained inaccessible until now None of the poems has hitherto been published Mrs Roberta Dewey and Dewey's children from his first marriage seem not to have known of Dewey's experiments in verse during his lifetime And as evidence presented here now shows only two or three acquaintances knew of actual poems written by Dewey one of them the Polish American novelist Anzia Yezierska who had a brief emotional involvement with Dewey in the 1917-18 period The factual rather than inferential evidence of Dewey's relationship with Anzia Yezierska appears in the poems which taken as a whole provide revealing insights into Dewey's feelings and illuminate not only aspects of his emotions but of his thought as well The fact that Dewey did not publish the poetry himself together with the circumstances of its discovery and unusual history has led to the exceptionally careful editorial treatment of the poems given here Scholars will find all the evidence for the authorship of the manuscripts clearly presented and all the changes and alterations carefully recorded This edition has received the Modern Language Association of America Center for Editions of American Authors Seal as an approved text Outing, 1917 Theatre Magazine W. J. Thorold, Arthur Hornblow, Arthur Hornblow (Jr.), Perriton Maxwell, Stewart Beach, 1921

The Jews of Chicago Irving Cutler, 1996 Vividly told and richly illustrated with more than 160 photos this fascinating history of the cultural religious fraternal economic and everyday life of Chicago's Jews brings to life the people events neighborhoods and institutions that helped shape today's Jewish communities 15 maps Graphs tables
