Mexicano and Latino Politics and the Quest for Self-Determination Armando Navarro, 2015-01-08 This book examines the current status of Mexicano and Latino politics in the United States Political scientist and community activist Armando Navarro maintains that both represent a dysfunctional and failed mode of politics attributable to their system maintenance and mainstream ideological orientation and approach As colonial agents they protect both a United States that is decaying and declining and the degenerative liberal capitalist system Navarro argues that the United States is not a representative democracy but in fact is a White Corpocratic Dictatorship controlled by Capital which is evolving into a Fascist State The book provides an in depth analysis and contention that Mexicanos and Latinos in Aztlan Southwest are an occupied and internal colonized people It argues they are the Palestinians and Kurds of the United States His supposition is sustained by the book's profiles of Mexicano political history demography socioeconomics electoral politics immigration and the Triad Crisis e g Second Great Depression Global Economic Crisis and Global Capitalist Crisis Each chapter provides the justification and case for Navarro's two unique alternative change models applicable to today's bankrupt and failed Mexicano and Latino Politics in the twenty first century The preferred model is Aztlan's Politics of a Nation Within a Nation APNWN which is based on the models of the Mormon Nation of Utah and that of French Quebec Navarro therefore calls for the reformation of the United States liberal capitalist system by way of social democracy for the empowerment of Mexicanos and

Latinos His second model is Aztlán's Politics of Separatism APS which offers two strategic options 1 Aztlán Southwest becoming a separate and sovereign nation state or 2 its reannexation and re integration with Mexico Navarro outlines a plan of action for building a New Movement designed to attain APNWN or APS In addition several ominous forecasts are made such as the United States being in a state of decline and no longer a hegemonic superpower due to the rise of a multi polar world Moreover Navarro attributes the United States decline to the inherent contradictions of global capitalism His sobering message is that if the current economic conditions are left unchanged this will produce an End of Times scenario the unleashing of the Four Horseman of the Apocalypse associations instrumental in the landmark 2006 immigration reform marches echo mutualista societies at their peak in the 1920s Then Mexican immigrants from San Diego to New York engaged in economic medical cultural educational and legal aid This path breaking study culminates with an examination of Southwest community organizing networks as crucial counterweights to the outsized role of large financial contributions in the democratic political process It also finds ways in which this community organizing echoes the activity of mutualista groups in the very same neighborhoods a century ago

Ends of Assimilation John Alba Cutler, 2015-01-02 Ends of Assimilation examines how Chicano literature imagines the conditions and costs of cultural change arguing that its thematic preoccupation with assimilation illuminates the function of literature John Alba Cutler shows how mid century sociologists advanced a model of assimilation that ignored the interlinking of race gender and sexuality and characterized American culture as homogeneous stable and exceptional He demonstrates how Chicano literary works from the postwar period to the present understand culture as dynamic and self consciously promote literature as a medium for influencing the direction of cultural change With original analyses of works by canonical and noncanonical writers from Amrico Paredes Sandra Cisneros and Jimmy Santiago Baca to Estela Portillo Trambley Alfredo Valdez and Patricia Santana Ends of Assimilation demands that we reevaluate assimilation literature and the very language we use to talk about culture
