Models of Efficient Reading Karen M. Cohen, Richard Fuller West, George Marsh, 1978      Annual Report International Reading Association, 1978      Reading and Understanding Joseph H. Danks, Kathy Pezdek, 1980 This monograph the sixth in a series on the development of the reading process is concerned with the development of reading comprehension In the first chapter Comprehension in Listening and Reading Same or Different Joseph H Danks analyzes the evidence for the proposition that the comprehension processes for language in print and language in speech are the same and for the contrary proposition that there are significant differences in the understanding of the message in print and speech In the second chapter Arguments for a Constructive Approach to Comprehension and Memory Kathy Pezdek reviews pertinent research literature on comprehension from the constructive memory approach to the issue She makes a case for the proposition that the meaning of a sentence is not simply the sum of the separate meanings of the individual words and that sentence comprehension is in a very real sense the determiner of the words of the sentence She also reviews factors of constructive memory that influence reading comprehension MKM      Language Awareness and Reading Lynn H. Waterhouse, Karen M. Fischer, Ellen Bouchard Ryan, 1980      Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980      Resources in Education ,2001-10      Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning Eli Hinkel, 2016-11-18 Volume III of the Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning like Volumes I and II is a comprehensive state of the art overview of current research into social contexts of second language L2 foreign language FL teaching and learning language policy curriculum types of instruction incremental language skills such as listening speaking reading writing vocabulary and grammar international communication pragmatics assessment and testing It differs from earlier volumes in its main purpose to provide a more in depth discussion and detailed focus on the development of the essential language skills required for any type of communication speaking listening reading vocabulary grammar and writing Volume III preserves continuity with previous volumes in its coverage of all the classical areas of research in L2 FL teaching and learning and applied linguistics but rather than offering a historical review of disciplinary traditions it explores innovations and new directions of research acknowledges the enormous complexity of teaching and learning the essential language abilities and offers a diversity of perspectives Chapter authors are all leading authorities in their disciplinary areas What's new in Volume III Updates the prominent areas of research including the sub disciplines addressed in Volumes I and II and represents the disciplinary mainstays Considers and discusses perspectives held by different schools of thought on the what the how and the why of teaching foundational language skills including theories pedagogical principles and their implementation in practice Captures new and ongoing developments and trends in the key areas of L2 FL teaching and learning and innovative research topics that have gained substantial recognition in current publications including the role of corpora technology and digital literacy in L2 FL teaching and learning Examines new trends in language pedagogy and research such as an increased
