The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1973 Enhancing Humanity N. Aloni, 2007-10-01 In Jean Paul Sartre's Nausea Roquentin feels bound to listen to the sentimental ramblings about humanism and humanity by the Self Taught Man Is it my fault muses Roquentin in all he tells me I recognize the lack of the genuine article Is it my fault if as he speaks I see all the humanists I have known rise up I have known so many of them And then he lists the radical humanist the so called left humanist and Communist Humanist the Catholic humanist all claiming a passion for their fellow men But there are others a swarm of others the humanist philosopher who bends over his brothers like a wise older brother with a sense of his responsibility the humanist who loves men as they are the humanist who loves men as they ought to be the one who wants to save them with their consent and the one who will save them in spite of themselves Quite naturally the skeptical Roquentin ends by saying how they all hate each other as individuals not as men Fully aware of the misuse and false comfort in the use of the term Professor Aloni proceeds to restore meaning to the word as well as appropriate its educational significance There is a freshness in this book a restoration of a lost clarity a regaining of authentic commitment □□□□□□□□ ,1970 History of Education Review ,2006 Exploring Dynamic Mentoring Models in India Payal Kumar, 2017-08-02 This edited collection explores the variations of mentoring in India in comparison to western models providing rich contextual interpretation and paving the way for a greater understanding of mentoring as a phenomenon With India having the world's largest youth population its longstanding mentoring tradition is increasingly being replaced by emerging mentoring models in which younger generations are constantly exposed to both Indian and western influences Paying particular attention to formal and informal mentoring models the contributions cover the corporate sector higher education the developmental sector and venture capitalist enabled entrepreneurial mentoring Offering a uniquely non western perspective this innovative study also showcases both mentor and protégé perceptions of mentoring and will be of great appeal to both practitioners and scholars of leadership Paperbacks in Print ,1969 Publisher and Bookseller ,1968 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series Bookseller ,1968 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series Exploring and Teaching Healthcare Communication

Exploring Educational Policy Transfer Yijun Yang, 2024-08-23 This book examines the detailed process of China's borrowing from the Japanese vocational education model from the perspective of educational policy transfer It is expected that a systematic examination of the history of China's borrowing of Japanese vocational education through the lens of educational policy transfer will on the one hand fill the gap in the study of the history of vocational education in China from the perspective of educational policy transfer and on the other hand allow the applicability of the educational transfer theoretical framework to be tested through the example of China's borrowing from Japanese vocational education

The Western Esoteric Traditions Nicholas Goodrick-Clarke, 2008-10-14 Western esotericism has now emerged as an academic study in its own right combining spirituality with an empirical observation of the natural world while also relating the humanity to the universe through a harmonious celestial order This introduction to the Western esoteric traditions offers a concise overview of their historical development Nicholas Goodrick Clarke explores these traditions from their roots in Hermeticism Neo Platonism and Gnosticism in the early Christian era up to their reverberations in today's scientific paradigms While the study of Western esotericism is usually confined to the history of ideas Goodrick Clarke examines the phenomenon much more broadly He demonstrates that far from being a strictly intellectual movement the spread of esotericism owes a great deal to geopolitics and globalization In Hellenistic culture for example the empire of Alexander the Great which stretched across Egypt and Western Asia to provinces in India facilitated a mixing of Eastern and Western cultures As the Greeks absorbed ideas from Egypt Babylon Assyria and Persia they gave rise to the first esoteric movements From the late sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries post Reformation spirituality found expression in theosophy Rosicrucianism and Freemasonry Similarly in the modern era dissatisfaction with the hegemony of science in Western culture and a lack of faith in traditional Christianity led thinkers like Madame Blavatsky to look East for spiritual inspiration Goodrick Clarke further examines Modern esoteric thought in the light of new scientific and medical paradigms along with the analytical psychology of Carl Gustav Jung This book traces the complete history of these movements and is the definitive account of Western esotericism Whitaker's Five-year Cumulative Book List ,1968 Exploring Perspectives on Creativity Theory and Research in Education Daniel A. Tillman,2024-04-16 Collectively the sixteen chapters in this book investigate the power of creativity in the classroom many through the specific lens of limited resources as an opportunity The chapters are divided into two sections eight chapters comprising Section I Theory and Research and then the eight chapters comprising Section II Additional Perspectives and Future Directions Within these two sections the more than two dozen authors that contributed to this book tackle a wide range of the possibilities for designing creative classroom based instruction wherein limited resources are highlighted and valued rather than avoided or lamented The two main sections of this book are each preceded by a brief introductory summary highlighting those sections attributes and objectives with the intention of providing helpful structure to the reader but the book has also been designed such that each chapter stands independently and can be jumped to directly like a handbook In its totality this book exploring perspectives on creativity theory and research in education is designed to serve as a valuable resource for teachers teacher educators school administrators parents and education researchers along with anyone else that is interested in optimizing our opportunities for nurturing creativity within classrooms Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1968 Paperbound Books in Print ,1975 Decolonizing Marketing Theory and Practice Hasan Gilani,2024-11-22 In academic institutions worldwide the call to decolonize the syllabus curriculum and the entire university experience is growing louder and more urgent Yet the conversation must extend beyond blogs hashtags and social media trends This book dives deep into the critical need to challenge and transform the foundations of marketing education Addressing the urgent need for deeper conversations this book delves into the multifaceted process of decolonizing marketing theory and practice to foster a more inclusive field Through an insightful collection of contributions this book critically examines the entrenched roots of colonization capitalism and inequality urging us to move beyond simply adding non white authors and non Western case studies to the curriculum Decolonization should begin with a focus on inclusivity and equality progressing towards the recognition and exploration of diverse contexts and paradigms Through rigorous analysis and innovative perspectives this book identifies key areas in marketing pedagogy that require decolonization urging a move away from exclusionary practices and Western centric ideologies It identifies crucial areas where texts knowledge and contexts need to be decolonized advocating for a paradigm shift from a culture of exclusion and Western centric ideologies to one that embraces inclusivity and a broad range of philosophical perspectives from the non Western world Aimed at researchers and academics in the field of marketing this book offers a profound exploration of teaching and learning dynamics from a more inclusive and diverse perspective By fostering engagement with a wider audience it seeks to enrich the discourse around marketing education with a more nuanced and enriched perspective Decolonizing Marketing Theory and Practice is an essential resource for those committed to creating a more equitable and comprehensive understanding of marketing in a global context Handbook of Research on Educational Communications and Technology David H. Jonassen, 2004 This edition of this handbook updates and expands its review of the research theory issues and methodology that constitute the field of educational communications and technology Organized into seven sectors it profiles and integrates the following elements of this rapidly changing field
