Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references Higher Education ,1962 Midland Schools ,1922 The Publishers Weekly ,1901 The Judge ,1918 Encyclopedia of American Short Films, 1926-1959 Graham Webb,2020-07-27 Short subject films have a long history in American cinemas These could be anywhere from 2 to 40 minutes long and were used as a filler in a picture show that would include a cartoon a newsreel possibly a serial and a short before launching into the feature film Shorts could tackle any topic of interest an unusual travelogue a comedy musical revues sports nature or popular vaudeville acts With the advent of sound on film in the mid to late 1920s makers of earlier silent short subjects began experimenting with the short films using them as a testing ground for the use of sound in feature movies After the Second World War and the rising popularity of television short subject films became far too expensive to produce and they had mostly disappeared from the screens by the late 1950s This encyclopedia offers comprehensive listings of American short subject films from the 1920s through the 1950s Normal Instructor and Primary Plans ,1914 Success Magazine ,1908
