Since 1940 Tony Hilfer,2014-09-25 In this remarkable book Tony Hilfer provides a major survey of the wealth of post war American fiction He analyses the major modes and genres of writing from realist to postmodernist metafiction and black humour the fiction of social protest women s writing and the traditions of African American Southern and Jewish American fiction Key writers discussed include William Faulkner Norman Mailer Ralph Ellison Saul Bellow Joseph Heller Vladimir Nabokov and Joyce Carol Oates The book concludes by exploring contemporary trends through detailed case studies of Donald Barthelme and Toni Morrison A New Introduction to American Studies Howard Temperley,Christopher Bigsby,2014-07-21 A New Introduction to American Studies provides a coherent portrait of American history literature politics culture and society and also deals with some of the central themes and preoccupations of American life It will provoke students into thinking about what it actually means to study a culture Ideals such as the commitment to liberty equality and material progress are fully examined and new light is shed on the sometimes contradictory ways in which these ideals have informed the nation s history and culture For introductory undergraduate courses in American Studies American History and American Literature Flannery O'Connor R. Neil Scott,2002 Cross-cultural Visions in African

American Modernism Yoshinobu Hakutani,2006 Yoshinobu Hakutani traces the development of African American modernism which initially gathered momentum with Richard Wright s literary manifesto Blueprint for Negro Writing in 1937 Hakutani dissects and discusses the cross cultural influences on the then burgeoning discipline in three stages American dialogues European and African cultural visions and Asian and African American cross cultural visions In writing Black Boy the centerpiece of the Chicago Renaissance Wright was inspired by Theodore Dreiser Because the European and African cultural visions that Wright Ralph Ellison Alice Walker and Toni Morrison acquired were buttressed by the universal humanism that is common to all cultures this ideology is shown to transcend the problems of society Fascinated by Eastern thought and art Wright Walker Sonia Sanchez and James Emanuel wrote highly accomplished poetry and prose Like Ezra Pound Wright was drawn to classic haiku as reflected in the 4 000 haiku he wrote at the end of his life As W B Yeats s symbolism was influenced by his cross cultural visions of noh theatre and Irish folklore so is James Emanuel s jazz haiku energized by his cross cultural rhythms of Japanese poetry and African American music The book demonstrates some of the most visible cultural exchanges in modern and postmodern African American literature Such a study can be extended to other contemporary African American writers whose works also thrive on their cross cultural visions such as Amiri Baraka Ishmael Reed Charles Johnson and haiku poet Lenard Moore WLA ,2006 Postwar American Fiction and the Rise of Modern Conservatism Bryan M. Santin,2021-03-11 Bryan M Santin examines over a half century of intersection between

American fiction and postwar conservatism He traces the shifting racial politics of movement conservatism to argue that contemporary perceptions of literary form and aesthetic value are intrinsically connected to the rise of the American Right Instead of casting postwar conservatives as cynical hustlers or ideological fanatics Santin shows how the long term rhetorical shift in conservative notions of literary value and prestige reveal an aesthetic antinomy between high culture and low culture This shift he argues registered and mediated the deeper foundational antinomy structuring postwar conservatism itself the stable social order of traditionalism and the creative destruction of free market capitalism Postwar conservatives produced in effect an ambivalent double register in the discourse of conservative literary taste that sought to celebrate neo aristocratic manifestations of cultural capital while condemning newer more progressive manifestations revolving around racial and ethnic diversity

Performing the Everyday in Henry James's Late Novels Maya Higashi Wakana,2016-05-13 Focusing on James s last three completed novels The Ambassadors The Wings of the Dove and The

Golden Bowl Maya Higashi Wakana shows how a microsociological approach to James s novels radically revises the widespread tradition of putting James s characters into historical and cultural contexts Wakana begins with the premise that day to day living is inherently theatrical and thus duplicitous and goes on to show that James s art relies significantly on his powerful sense of the agonizing and even dangerous complications of mundane face to face rituals that pervade his work Centrally informed by social thinkers such as G H Mead and Erving Goffman Wakana s study discloses the richness complexity and singularity of the interpersonal connections depicted in James s late novels Persuasively argued and rich in original close readings her book makes an important contribution to James s studies and to theories of social interaction

Art in Contemporary Anglo-American Fiction Sofie Behluli, 2025-05-30 This book addresses the recent surge of Anglo American novels about visual art since the 2010s and interprets it as a coming of age of an old literary sub genre which is here termed as the ekphrastic novel These novels are distinguished by their systematic use of ekphrasis which creatively and critically negotiates the intertwined aesthetics of literature and visual art By addressing the challenge of representing visual images such as photographs paintings and art installations with words these novels reveal a greater interest in exploring how and why we engage with art rather than merely depicting the art itself In this way ekphrastic novels present themselves as powerful practitioners and critics of contemporary image making The book focuses on four aspects emerging from ekphrastic passages value form affect and scale to explore critical questions posed by contemporary ekphrastic novels Who has the power to assign value today and at what cost Which social political historical cultural and ethical dimensions are obscured by certain forms and how can ekphrasis re introduce these aspects into public discourse What affects do images and artworks elicit and how do they reinforce or challenge existing value systems How can narrative scale uncover potential injustices in the interplay between life and art Moreover what insights do ekphrastic novels offer into contemporary reading habits and strategies By tracing a literary tradition from nineteenth century to contemporary fiction and offering detailed close readings of several critically acclaimed and widely read contemporary novels this book delves into the theoretical and practical intersections of ekphrasis and the novel
