Modern Auditing and Assurance Services 6e Philomena Leung, Paul Coram, Barry John Cooper, 2014 Modern Auditing and Assurance Services Philomena Leung, Paul Coram, Barry J. Cooper, 2007

On 1 May 2006 the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board AUASB introduced a series of new legally enforceable Australian Auditing Standards ASAs effective 1 July 2006. Corporate collapses over the last five years and subsequent criticisms of the audit role have necessitated a review of the existing auditing standards to ensure audit quality, return stakeholder confidence in the reputation of the audit process and reinstate to the profession the core audit qualities of reliability, transparency, trust and integrity. Modern Auditing and Assurance Services 3rd edition reflects the latest developments in the profession, detailing the audit procedures under the 35 legally enforceable ASAs. Further, this edition has been thoroughly revised to present a current coverage of the auditing environment, the increased focus on professional ethics and ethical competence, governance and professional independence, changes in legal liability for the audit profession, local and international regulatory developments, whilst continuing to provide a thorough analysis of contemporary audit practice as well as significant consideration of assurance services beyond the traditional audit.

Built on the foundations of Jeffrey Ridley's extensive internal auditing experience across the public and private sectors, the author uses his articles and research to explore and develop the motivations, goals and categories of innovation in internal auditing today. It develops and brings up to date an imaginative internal auditing model created and used by the author in the early 1980s, drawing on research and guidance by The Institute of Internal Auditors Inc, its Research Foundation and the Institute of Internal Auditors UK and Ireland. Each chapter stands alone by focusing on an individual internal auditing theme, considered from both the perspective of internal auditing and its customers, to suggest an appropriate vision as a goal for every internal audit activity. Each chapter also includes self-assessment questions to challenge the reader's understanding of its messages. Companion website contains some of the author's training slides and seventy case studies, many written by leading internal audit practitioners.
