Modern Literary Theory A Comparative Introduction:

Modern Literary Theory David Forgacs, 1986 A guide to modern literary theory Topics covered include Russian formalism structuralism modern psychoanalytic criticism This revised edition contains new chapters on reading and interpretation hermeneutics phenomenology reception theory and feminist literary theory Modern Literary Theory Ann Jefferson, David Robey, 1985 Modern Literary Theory Ann Jefferson, David Robey, 1988 Modern literary Theory Ann Jefferson, 1982

Theory into Practice: A Reader in Modern Literary Criticism Ryan Johnson, 1992-08-25 Students of literary theory have been well provided for by the publication of various Readers in literary theory However the relation between theory and critical practice still presents a problem to the general reader This book brings together essays by major critics which apply theory to practice in an accessible way This will help a general literary readership gain a better understanding of the various types of theoretical criticism see theory being applied to practice powerfully and persuasively and encourage students to use theory in their own critical writing A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory Raman Selden, 1993-06-08

Unsurpassed as a text for upper division and beginning graduate students Raman Selden's classic text is the liveliest most readable and most reliable guide to contemporary literary theory Includes applications of theory cross referenced to Selden's companion volume Practicing Theory and Reading Literature Rehabilitating Literary Theory Khaled Besbes, 2011 The present work seeks to bring literary theory in line with the most recent practical turn the humanities are witnessing When simplified succinctly presented and skillfully used in multi coded interpretation within a semiocritical framework literary theories become practical exercises in criticism not only facilitating the interpretation of literature but also making it more enjoyable and more rewarding This book is different from its counterparts in the sense that it includes an exceptionally expanded model of the practice of literary theories and replaces long and theoretical discussions with brief synopses of the examined theories It relies on less overused texts for illustration as it compiles and organizes the terms and phrases that are often used by the proponents of the discussed theories The most influential literary theories that have so far been developed in academia are included the New Criticism reader response criticism structuralism deconstruction feminism Marxism psychoanalytic criticism linguistic criticism cultural materialism new historicism postcolonialism and semiotics Through eliminating the excesses made in the name of theory this book will restore the faith of students teachers and practitioners in the useful and enduring nature of literary theory for the analysis and appreciation of literature Understanding

Contemporary American Literary Theory Michael Paul Spikes, 2003 In this revised edition of Understanding Contemporary American Literary Theory Michael P Spikes adds Stanley Fish and Susan Bordo to the critics whose careers key texts and central assumptions he discusses in introducing readers to developments in American literary theory during the past thirty five years Underscoring the largely heterogeneous mix of strategies and suppositions that these critics along with Paul de Man Henry Louis Gates Jr Edward W Said and Stephen Greenblatt represent Spikes offers concise analyses of their principal claims and illustrates how their works reflect a range of critical perspectives from deconstruction African American studies and reader response theory to political criticism the new historicism and feminism production Beginning with a discussion of early commentaries the book presents and addresses the most significant critical arguments to give the reader a clear understanding of the ways in which each generation has sought to invest Richard II with new meaning The final section considers the radical new reading of Shakespeare s work provided by contemporary critics

The Routledge Companion to Media and Fairy-Tale Cultures Pauline Greenhill,Jill Terry Rudy,Naomi Hamer,Lauren Bosc,2018-03-28 From Cinderella to comic con to colonialism and more this companion provides readers with a comprehensive and current guide to the fantastic uncanny and wonderful worlds of the fairy tale across media and cultures It offers a clear detailed and expansive overview of contemporary themes and issues throughout the intersections of the fields of fairy tale studies media studies and cultural studies addressing among others issues of reception audience cultures ideology remediation and adaptation Examples and case studies are drawn from a wide range of pertinent disciplines and settings providing thorough accessible treatment of central topics and specific media from around the globe The Creation of History in Ancient Israel Marc Zvi Brettler,2002-11-01 The Creation of History in Ancient Israel demonstrates how the historian can start to piece together the history of ancient Israel using the Hebrew Bible as a source Introducing Biblical Hermeneutics Craig G. Bartholomew,2015-11-10 2016 Word Guild Award Academic category Honorable mention Grace Irwin Prize Renowned scholar Craig Bartholomew coauthor of the bestselling textbook The Drama of Scripture writes in his main area of expertise hermeneutics to help seminarians pursue a lifetime of biblical interpretation Integrating the latest research in theology philosophy and biblical studies this substantive hermeneutics textbook is robustly theological in its approach takes philosophical hermeneutics seriously keeps the focus throughout on the actual process of interpreting Scripture and argues that biblical interpretation should be centered in the context and service of the church an approach that helps us hear God s address today John Fowles's Fiction and the Poetics of Postmodernism Mahmoud Salami,1992 Salami presents for instance a critique of the self conscious narrative of the diary form in The Collector the intertextual relations of the multiplicity of voices the problems of subjectivity the reader s position the politics of seduction ideology and history in The Magus and The French Lieutenant s Woman The book also analyzes the ways in which Fowles uses and abuses the short story genre in which enigmas remain enigmatic and the author disappears to leave the characters free to construct their own texts Salami centers for example on A Maggot which embodies the postmodernist technique of dialogical narrative the problem of narrativization of history and the explicitly political critique of both past and present in terms of social and religious dissent These political questions are also echoed in Fowles s nonfictional book The Aristos in which he strongly rejects the totalization of narratives and the materialization of society Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction Arthur M. Saltzman,2016-11-11 In Designs of Darkness Arthur M Saltzman examines some of the ways in which fiction has traditionally conspired to promote a goal oriented vision of the work of art and explores the ways in which postmodern or postrealist fiction consistently and unavoidably subverts the clarity of this vision Offering readings of works by well known authors including Barthelme Doctorow DeLillo and Hakes as well as works by lesser known writers Auster Gangemi Saltzman concentrates on the breakdown of epiphany in recent fiction both as philosophical motive and as structural foundation In contemporary fiction Saltzman contends ambiguities blossom far beyond our capacities to stabilize summarize or restore them to sense The old rules of the game in which a reader looking for truth can expect come sort of satisfactory resolution no longer apply Literature now comes out of the answerless Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction is a valuable new resource for scholars and students of contemporary literature
