Modern Poetic Practice

Robert E. Scholes

Modern Poetic Practice:

Modern Poetic Practice Peter Baker, 1986 This book attempts to develop a generative criticism of poetic practice The order of presentation follows a certain model for how the poem comes into being Poetic practice as it is actualized in the work of the creative imagination stems from memory as the place where the poem arises among the conflicts of the imagination absence or the loss which weighs on the utterance and gives it urgency desire as the force structuring the poem according to the subject's need knowing or how the subject's experience of the world and other people finds expression and style or how the poem exemplifies a compassionate understanding Poets whose work is examined include Hardy Mallarmé Williams Ungaretti Apollinaire Saint John Perse John Ashbery and Frank O'Hara How to Profit from that Impulse Lucia Trent, Ralph Cheyney, Benjamin Francis Musser, 1928 Poetic Theory, Poetic Practice Robert E. Scholes, 1969

Onward Peter Baker, 1996 Onward Contemporary Poetry and Poetics is an anthology of statements on poetics by twenty contemporary North American poets along with selections from their poetry The poets collected here represent the forefront of engaged experimental poetic practice and their statements vary from the extended essay form to collage assemblages of various prose and poetically charged forms These explorations of poetics lead to intersections of thought and practice both among themselves and with other recently published poetry anthologies Expressivity in Modern Poetry Donald Wellman, 2019-02-26 Expressivity in Modern Poetry explores three interrelated subjects The first is a general exposition of the radical or deeply realistic aspects of the poetry and visual arts of the modern period The focus is on the works of Ezra Pound as understood through a prism of postmodern thought The second subject is the poetry and poetics of Charles Olson a pivotal figure during the transition from modernism to postmodernism The third subject is contemporary innovative poetry with special attention to transcultural neobarroco and language centered aspects of composition The grounding for this section is found in the works of William Carlos Williams Aimé Césaire and José Lezama Lima A reversal of the relation between the center and periphery decentering the New York to Paris vector is crucial for understanding the Caribbean as a seedbed for both innovative and identity based poetics Wellman's purpose is to amplify the cultural importance of expressivity in a field where critical discussion is often dominated by constructivism and conceptualism Expressivity in Modern Poetry offers a new reading of the relation between twentieth century modernism and contemporary poetic practice subjectivity Philosophy as a Literary Art Costica Bradatan, 2016-04-14 Despite philosophers growing interest in the relation between philosophy and literature in general over the last few decades comparatively few studies have been published dealing more narrowly with the literary aspects of philosophical texts The relationship between philosophy and literature is too often taken to be literature as philosophy and very rarely philosophy as literature It is the dissatisfaction with this one sidedness that lies at the heart of the present volume Philosophy has nothing to lose by engaging in a serious process of literary self analysis On the contrary such an exercise would most likely make it stronger more sophisticated more playful and especially more self reflexive By not moving in this direction philosophy places itself in the position of not following what has been deemed since Socrates at least the worthiest of all philosophical ideals self knowledge This book was originally published as a special issue of The European Legacy

French Symbolist Poetry and the Idea of Music Joseph Acquisto, 2017-03-02 What role did music play in the creation of a new aesthetics of poetry in French from the 1860s to the 1930s How did music serve as an unassimilable other against which the French symbolist poets crafted a new poetics And why did music gradually disappear from early twentieth century poetic discourse These are among the questions Joseph Acquisto poses in his lively study of the ways in which Baudelaire Mallarmé Ghil and Roy re question the nature and function of the lyric through an ever shifting set of intertextual and cultural contexts Rather than focusing on musicality in verse the author addresses the consequences of choosing music as a site of dialogue with poetry Acquisto argues that memory plays an under acknowledged yet vital role in these poets rewriting of symbolist poetics His reading of their interactions and his focus on both major and neglected poets exposes the myth of a small handful of great authors shaping symbolism while a host of disciples propagated the tradition Rather Acquisto proposes the multiplicity of authors writing and rewriting symbolism invites a dialogic approach to the poetics of the period Moreover music as theorized rather than performed or heard serves as a privileged mobile space of poetic creation and dialogue for these poet critics it is through engagement with music supposedly the purest or most abstract of the arts that one can retrace the textual and cultural transformations accomplished by the symbolist tradition By extension these poets rethinking of poetics is an occasion for present day critics to re examine assumptions not only about the intersections of music and poetry and our understanding of symbolist poetics but also about the role that the aesthetic implicitly plays in the creation preservation or reshaping of cultural memory
