Modern Poetics:

Modern Poetics James Scully, 1965 Great modern poets from Yeats to Lowell discuss their craft Modern Poetry after Modernism James Longenbach, 1997-11-27 In this book James Longenbach develops a fresh approach to major American poetry after modernism Rethinking the influential breakthrough narrative the oft told story of postmodern poets throwing off their modernist shackles in the 1950s Longenbach offers a more nuanced perspective Reading a diverse range of poets John Ashbery Elizabeth Bishop Amy Clampitt Jorie Graham Richard Howard Randall Jarrell Robert Lowell Robert Pinsky and Richard Wilbur Longenbach reveals that American poets since mid century have not so much disowned their modernist past as extended elements of modernism that other readers have suppressed or neglected to see In the process Longenbach allows readers to experience the wide variety of poetries written in our time without asking us to choose between them

Victorian and Modern Poetics Carol T. Christ, 1984 Robert Frost Frank Lentricchia, 1975 Ghostlier Demarcations Michael Davidson, 2022-05-13 Why do modern poets quote from dictionaries in their poems How has the tape recorder changed the poet's voice What has shopping to do with Gertrude Stein's aesthetics These and other questions form the core of Ghostlier Demarcations a study of modern poetry as a material medium One of today's most respected critics of twentieth century poetry and poetics Michael Davidson argues that literary materiality has been dominated by an ideology of modernism based on the ideal of the autonomous work of art which has hindered our ability to read poetry as a socially critical medium By focusing on writing as a palimpsest involving numerous layers of materiality from the holograph manuscript to the printed book Davidson exposes modern poetry's engagement with larger historical forces The palimpsest that results is less a poem than an arrested stage of writing in whose layers can be discerned ghostly traces of other texts This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997 Left of Poetry Sarah Ehlers, 2019-04-11 In this incisive study Sarah Ehlers returns to the Depression era United States in order to unsettle longstanding ideas about poetry and emerging approaches to poetics By bringing to light a range of archival materials and theories about poetry that emerged on the 1930s left Ehlers reimagines the historical formation of modern poetics Offering new and challenging readings of prominent figures such as Langston Hughes Muriel Rukeyser and Jacques Roumain and uncovering the contributions of lesser known writers such as Genevieve Taggard and Martha Millet Ehlers illuminates an aesthetically and geographically diverse matrix of schools and movements Resisting the dismissal of thirties left writing as mere propaganda the book reveals how communist affiliated poets experimented with poetic modes such as lyric and documentary and genres including songs ballads and nursery rhymes in ways that challenged existing frameworks for understanding the relationships among poetic form political commitment and historical transformation As Ehlers shows Depression left movements and their international connections are crucial for understanding both the history of modern poetry and the role of poetic thought in conceptualizing historical change

taken together broadly delineate a possible poetics of the contemporary In these essays the most interesting and distinguished theorists in the field renegotiate the contours of what might constitute contemporary poetics ranging from the historical advent of concrete poetry to the current technopoetics of cyberspace Concerned with a poetics that extends beyond our own time as a mere marker of present day literary activity their work addresses the limits of a writing practice beginning with Stéphane Mallarmé in the late nineteenth century that engages concretely with what it means to be contemporary Charles Bernstein's Swiftian satire of generative poetics and the textual apparatus together with Marjorie Perloff's critical historical treatment of writing after Bernstein and other proponents of language poetry provides an itinerary of contemporary poetics in terms of both theory and practice The other essays consider precursors recognizable figures within the histories or prehistories of contemporary poetics from Kafka and Joyce to Wallace Stevens and Kathy Acker conjunctions in which more strictly theoretical and poetical texts enact a concerted engagement with rhetoric prosody and the vicissitudes of intelligibility cursors which points to the open possibilities of invention from Augusto de Campos's concrete poetics to the codework of Alan Sondheim and transpositions defining the limits of poetic invention by way of technology

Modern Poetry After Modernism James Longenbach, 1997 Reading a diverse range of poets John Ashbery Elizabeth Bishop Amy Clampitt Jorie Graham Richard Howard Randall Jarrell Robert Lowell Robert Pinsky and Richard Wilbur Longenbach reveals that American poets since mid century have not so much disowned their modernist past as extended elements of modernism that other readers have suppressed or neglected to see

Expressivity in Modern Poetry Donald Wellman, 2019-02-26 Expressivity in Modern Poetry explores three interrelated subjects The first is a general exposition of the radical or deeply realistic aspects of the poetry and visual arts of the modern period The focus is on the works of Ezra Pound as understood through a prism of postmodern thought The second subject is the poetry and poetics of Charles Olson a pivotal figure during the transition from modernism to postmodernism The third subject is contemporary innovative poetry with special attention to transcultural neobarroco and language centered aspects of composition The grounding for this section is found in the works of William Carlos Williams Aimé Césaire and José Lezama Lima A reversal of the relation between the center and periphery decentering the New York to Paris vector is crucial for understanding the Caribbean as a seedbed for both innovative and identity based poetics Wellman's purpose is to amplify the cultural importance of expressivity in a field where critical discussion is often dominated by constructivism and conceptualism Expressivity in Modern Poetry offers a new reading of the relation between twentieth century modernism and contemporary poetic practice
