One Grand Noise Jerrilyn McGregory, 2021-07-29 Winner of the 2022 Chicago Folklore Prize For many December 26 is more than the day after Christmas Boxing Day is one of the world s most celebrated cultural holidays As a legacy of British colonialism Boxing Day is observed throughout Africa and parts of the African diaspora but unlike Trinidadian Carnival and Mardi Gras fewer know of Bermuda s Gombey dancers Bahamian Junkanoo Dangriga s Jankun and Charikanari St Croix s Crucian Christmas Festival and St Kitts s Sugar Mas

One Grand Noise Boxing Day in the Anglicized Caribbean World delivers a highly detailed thought provoking examination of the use of spectacular vernacular to metaphorically dramatize such tropes as one grand noise foreday morning and from back o town In cultural solidarity and an obvious critique of Western values and norms revelers engage in celebratory sounds often donning masks cross dressing and dancing with abandon along thoroughfares usually deemed anathema to them Folklorist Jerrilyn McGregory demonstrates how the cultural producers in various island locations ritualize Boxing Day as a part of their struggles over identity class and gender relations in accordance with time and space Based on ethnographic study undertaken by McGregory One Grand Noise explores Boxing Day as part of a creolization process from slavery into the twenty first century McGregory traces the holiday from its Egyptian origins to today and includes chapters on the Gombey dancers of Bermuda the evolution of Junkanoo Jankun in The Bahamas and Belize and J ouvert traditions in St Croix and St Kitts Through her exploration of the holiday McGregory negotiates the ways in which Boxing Day has expanded from small communal traditions into a common history of colonialism that keeps alive a collective spirit of resistance

My Soul Is in Haiti Bertin M. Louis, Jr., 2016-12 Offers a greater understanding of the spread of Protestant Christianity both regionally and globally by studying local transformations in the Haitian diaspora of the Bahamas In the Haitian diaspora as in Haiti itself the majority of Haitians have long practiced Catholicism or Vodou However Protestant forms of Christianity now flourish both in Haiti and beyond In the Bahamas where approximately one in five people are now Haitian born or Haitian descended

Protestantism has become the majority religion for immigrant Haitians In My Soul Is in Haiti Bertin M Louis Jr has combined multi sited ethnographic research in the United States Haiti and the Bahamas with a transnational framework to analyze why Protestantism has appealed to the Haitian diaspora community in the Bahamas The volume illustrates how devout Haitian Protestant migrants use their religious identities to ground themselves in a place that is hostile to them as migrants and it also uncovers how their religious faith ties in to their belief in the need to save their homeland as they re imagine Haiti politically and morally as a Protestant Christian nation This important look at transnational migration between second and third world countries shows how notions of nationalism among Haitian migrants in the Bahamas are filtered through their religious beliefs By studying local transformations in the Haitian diaspora of the Bahamas Louis offers a greater understanding of the spread of Protestant Christianity both regionally and globally Get Involved! Kim Williams-Pulfer, 2024-06-14 Philanthropy is commonly depicted as a universal practice and is either valued for supporting community transformation or critiqued for limiting social justice However dominant definitions and even popular connotations tend to privilege wealthy Western approaches Using the Caribbean as a rich site of observance and concentrating on the island nation state of The Bahamas Get Involved uncovers the hidden and under documented activities of philanthropy from below revealing a broader conception of philanthropy and civil society especially within Black and other historically marginalized populations Kim Williams Pulfer draws on narrative analysis from enslavement to the current post post colonial moment depicting the repertoires and practices of primarily Afro Bahamians through the stories emerging from history including the transnational observations of Zora Neale Hurston social movements and political and social institution building the arts from Junkanoo literature and visual practices to the lived experiences of contemporary civil society leaders Get Involved shows the long history and continued significance of civil society and philanthropic engagement in The Bahamas the circum Caribbean and the wider African Diaspora Junkanoo is the national cultural festival of The Bahamas It fosters a sense of community pride identity companionship spirituality and unity Watch a video about Junknoo <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tnMpMesNb1Q> t 14s The Color of Love Elizabeth Hordge-Freeman, 2015-10-30 Winner Section on the Sociology of Emotions Outstanding Recent Contribution Book Award American Sociological Association 2016 Charles Horton Cooley Award for Recent Book Society for the Study of Symbolic Interaction 2017 Best Publication Award Section on Body and Embodiment American Sociological Association ASA 2018 The Color Of Love reveals the power of racial hierarchies to infiltrate our most intimate relationships Delving far deeper than previous sociologists have into the black Brazilian experience Elizabeth Hordge Freeman examines the relationship between racialization and the emotional life of a family Based on interviews and a sixteen month ethnography of ten working class Brazilian families this provocative work sheds light on how families simultaneously resist and reproduce racial hierarchies Examining race and gender Hordge Freeman illustrates the privileges of whiteness by revealing how those with blacker features often experience material and emotional hardships From parental ties to sibling interactions to extended family and romantic relationships the chapters chart new territory by revealing the connection between proximity to whiteness and the distribution of affection within families Hordge Freeman also explores how black Brazilian families particularly mothers rely on diverse strategies that reproduce negotiate and resist racism She frames efforts to modify racial features as sometimes reflecting internalized racism and at other times as responding to material and emotional considerations Contextualizing their strategies within broader narratives of the African diaspora she examines how Salvador s inhabitants perceive the history of the slave trade itself in a city that is referred to as the blackest in Brazil She argues that racial hierarchies may orchestrate family relationships in ways that reflect and reproduce racial inequality but black Brazilian families actively negotiate these hierarchies to assert their citizenship and humanity

Black Seminoles in the Bahamas Rosalyn Howard,2023-05-01 An excellent case study of a little studied and poorly known community experiencing the processes of identity formation and culture change Brent R Weisman University of South Florida This is the first full length ethnography of a unique community within the African diaspora Rosalyn Howard traces the history of the isolated Red Bays community of the Bahamas from their escape from the plantations of the American South through their utilization of social memory in the construction of new identity and community Some of the many African slaves escaping from southern plantations traveled to Florida and joined the Seminole Indians intermarried and came to call themselves Black Seminoles In 1821 pursued and harassed by European Americans through the First Seminole War approximately 200 members of this group fled to Andros Island where they remained essentially isolated for nearly 150 years Drawing on archival and secondary sources in the United States and the Bahamas as well as interviews with members of the present day Black Seminole community on Andros Island Howard reconstructs the story of the Red Bays people She chronicles their struggles as they adapt to a new environment and forge a new identity in this insular community and analyzes the former slaves relationship with their Native American companions Black Seminoles in contemporary Red Bays number approximately 290 the majority of whom are descended directly from the original settlers As part of her research Howard lived for a year in this small community recording its oral history and analyzing the ways in which that history informed the evolving identity of the people Her treatment dispels the air of mystery surrounding the Black Seminoles of Andros and provides a foundation for further anthropological and historical investigations
