Modern Faith And Thought:

Modern Faith and Thought Helmut Thielicke, 1990-11 Thielicke here studies the themes of doubt and appropriation in modern Protestant thought A leading advocate of dialectical theology Thielicke examines the work of the great German Protestant religious philosophers from Lessing and Schliermacher through Barth and Tillich probing these theologians understanding of their context and how this tradition can impact our own engagement with our times Clear finely nuanced historically and philosophically mature this is a vital reflection on the history of theology and in systematic theology

Modern Faith and Thought Helmut Thielicke, The Faith and Modern Thought William Temple, 1913 Volume 10, Tome I: Kierkegaard's Influence on Theology Jon Stewart, 2016-12-05 Kierkegaard has always enjoyed a rich reception in the fields of theology and religious studies This reception might seem obvious given that he is one of the most important Christian writers of the nineteenth century but Kierkegaard was by no means a straightforward theologian in any traditional sense He had no enduring interest in some of the main fields of theology such as church history or biblical studies and he was strikingly silent on many key Christian dogmas Moreover he harbored a degree of animosity towards the university theologians and churchmen of his own day Despite this he has been a source of inspiration for numerous religious writers from different denominations and traditions Tome I is dedicated to the reception of Kierkegaard among German Protestant theologians and religious thinkers The writings of some of these figures turned out to be instrumental for Kierkegaard s breakthrough internationally shortly after the turn of the twentieth century Leading figures of the movement of dialectical theology such as Karl Barth Emil Brunner Paul Tillich and Rudolf Bultmann spawned a steadily growing awareness of and interest in Kierkegaard s thought among generations of German theology students Emanuel Hirsch was greatly influenced by Kierkegaard and proved instrumental in disseminating his thought by producing the first complete German edition of Kierkegaard s published works Both Barth and Hirsch established unique ways of reading and appropriating Kierkegaard which to a certain degree determined the direction and course of Kierkegaard studies right up to our own times

Kierkegaard's Influence on Theology: German Protestant theology Jon Bartley Stewart, 2012 Tome I is dedicated to the reception of Kierkegaard among German Protestant theologians and religious thinkers The writings of some of these figures turned out to be instrumental for Kierkegaard s breakthrough internationally shortly after the turn of the twentieth century Leading figures of the movement of dialectical theology such as Karl Barth Emil Brunner Paul Tillich and Rudolf Bultmann spawned a steadily growing awareness of and interest in Kierkegaard s thought among generations of German theology students Emanuel Hirsch was greatly influenced by Kierkegaard and proved instrumental in disseminating his thought by producing the first complete German edition of Kierkegaard s published works Both Barth and Hirsch established unique ways of reading and appropriating Kierkegaard which to a certain degree determined the direction and course of Kierkegaard studies right up to our own times Mystics of the Renaissance and Their Relation to Modern Thought,

Including Meister Eckhart, Tauler, Paracelsus, Jacob Boehme, Giordano Bruno, and Others Rudolf Steiner, 1910-01-01

The matter which I am laying before the public in this book formed the content of lectures which I delivered during last winter at the Theosophical Library in Berlin I had been requested by Graf von Brockdorff to speak upon Mysticism before an audience for whom the matters thus dealt with constitute a vital question of the utmost importance Ten years earlier I could not have ventured to fulfil such a request Not that the realm of ideas to which I now give expression did not even then live actively within me For these ideas are already fully contained in my Philosophy of Freedom Berlin 1894 Emil Felber But to give expression to this world of ideas in such wise as I do to day and to make it the basis of an exposition as is done on the following pages to do this requires something quite other than merely to be immovably convinced of the intellectual truth of these ideas It demands an intimate acquaintance with this realm of ideas such as only many years of life can give Only now after having enjoyed that intimacy do I venture to speak in such wise as will be found in this book Any one who does not approach my world of ideas without preconceptions is sure to discover therein contradiction after contradiction I have quite recently Berlin 1900 S Cronbach dedicated a book upon the world conceptions of the nineteenth century to that great naturalist Ernst Haeckel and closed it with a defence of his thought world In the following expositions I speak about the Mystics from Master Eckhart to Angelus Silesius with a full measure of devotion and acquiescence Other contradictions which one critic or another may further count up against me I shall not mention at all It does not surprise me to be condemned from one side as a Mystic and from the other as a Materialist When I find that the Jesuit Father M ller has solved a difficult chemical problem and I therefore in this particular matter agree with him unreservedly one can hardly condemn me as an adherent of Jesuitism without being reckoned a fool by those who have insight Whoever goes his own road as I do must needs allow many a misunderstanding about himself to pass That however he can put up with easily enough For such misunderstandings are in the main inevitable in his eyes when he recalls the mental type of those who misjudge him I look back not without humorous feelings upon many a critical judgment that I have suffered in the course of my literary career At the outset matters went fairly well I wrote about Goethe and his philosophy What I said there appeared to many to be of such a nature that they could file it in their mental pigeon holes This they did by saying A work such as Rudolf Steiner's Introduction to Goethe's Writings upon Natural Science may without hesitation be described as the best that has been written upon this question When later I published an independent work I had already grown a good bit more stupid For now a well meaning critic offered the advice Before he goes on reforming further and gives his Philosophy of Freedom to the world he should be pressinglly advised first to work himself through to an understanding of these two philosophers Hume and Kant The critic unfortunately knows only so much as he is himself able to read in Kant and Hume practically therefore he simply advises me to learn to see no more in these thinkers than he himself sees When I have attained that he will be satisfied with me Then when my Philosophy of Freedom appeared I was found to be as much in need of correction as the most ignorant beginner This I received from a gentleman who probably nothing else impelled to the writing of books except that he had not understood innumerable foreign ones He gravely informs me that I should have noticed my mistakes if I had made more thorough studies in psychology logic and the theory of knowledge and he enumerates forthwith the books I ought to read to become as wise as himself Mill Sigwart Wundt Riehl Paulsen B Erdmann What amused me especially was this advice from a man who was so impressed with the way he understood Kant that he could not even imagine how any man could have read Kant and yet judge otherwise than himself He therefore indicates to me the exact chapters in question in Kant's writings from which I may be able to obtain an understanding of Kant as deep and as thorough as his own

Modern Jewish Thought on Crisis Ghilad H. Shenhar, Cedric Cohen-Skalli, Gilad Sharvit, 2024-01-29 This volume brings together scholars from a range of disciplines to explore the intersections between crisis scholarship and action The aim of this book is to think about the moment of crisis through the concepts writings and methodologies awarded to us by Jewish thinkers in modernity This book offers a broad gallery of accounts on the notion of crisis in Jewish modernity while emphasizing three terms interpretation heresy and messianism The main thesis of the volume is that the diasporic and exilic experience of the Jewish people turned their philosophers and theologians into experts in crisis management who had to find resources within their own religion culture and traditions in order to react endure and overcome short and long term historical crises The underlining assumption of this book is therefore that Jewish thought obtains resources for conceptualizing and reacting to the current forms of crisis in the global European and Israeli spheres The volume addresses a large readership in humanities social and political sciences and religious studies taking as its assumption that scholars in modern Jewish thought have an extended responsibility to engage in contemporary debates

The Christology of John Macquarrie Vernon L. Purdy, 2009 The Christology of John Macquarrie comprehensively scrutinizes the life and writings of Scottish born systematic theologian and philosopher John Macquarrie 1919 2007 in an attempt to comprehend and evaluate his Christology The author examines the people e g Heidegger Schleiermacher the philosophical and theological positions and the writings that formed Macquarrie s thinking One major influence was his commitment to modern critical theology including the premise that in the modern world the only acceptable Christological tenets are those that can stand up to the scrutiny of modern critical reasoning The work concludes that this commitment profoundly shaped Macquarrie s theology especially his Christology The book also discusses Macquarrie s evaluation and criticisms of the Christology of other theologians e g Kierkegaard Moltmann Pannenberg and others concluding that Macquarrie s understanding of the Christian faith and the person of Jesus Christ is consonant with modern liberal Anglo Catholicism This idea furthers the argument that Macquarrie s reluctance to accept traditional incarnational categories suggests that his Christology is a modern form of Adoptionism

Christians in today's world A provocative Christian assessment of culture and ministry for people who know that something is wrong The Philosophy of the Christian Curriculum R. J. Rushdoony, 2012-10-17 The Christian School represents a break with humanistic education but too often in leaving the state school the Christian educator has carried the state's humanism with him A curriculum is not neutral it is either a course in humanism or training in a God-centered faith and life The liberal arts curriculum means literally that course which trains students in the arts of freedom This raises the key question is freedom in and of man or Christ The Christian art of freedom that is the Christian liberal arts curriculum is emphatically not the same as the humanistic one It is urgently necessary for Christian educators to rethink the meaning and nature of the curriculum It should be clear then that whether history science mathematics grammar literature ecology civic duty or law every aspect of curriculum must be reconstructed along Biblical lines The overall objective is for Christian families to prepare and equip themselves for service in the Kingdom of God and this cannot be done without a rethinking of the philosophy of the Christian curriculum In this study Rousas John Rushdoony develops the philosophy of the Christian curriculum It is the pioneering study in this field and it is important reading for all Christian educators The creeds of the Church and modern thought, 6 sermons George Bulstrode, 1886 Course of the History of Modern Philosophy Victor Cousin, 1852
