Modern Grammar For Classical Hebrew:

A Modern Grammar for Classical Hebrew Duane A. Garrett, 2002 One of the few Hebrew grammar books written with the student in mind rather than the scholar A Modern Grammar for Classical Hebrew focuses on pedagogy for the minister who needs to learn Hebrew This book does a rapid overview of the essentials of grammar and then gets into the original text as students learn new material and review previously learned material This textbook is geared toward being easily used in the classroom and easily integrated into any teacher's teaching schedule

A Modern Grammar for Biblical Hebrew Duane A. Garrett, Jason S. DeRouchie, 2019-11-15 A Modern Grammar for Biblical Hebrew is a complete revision of Duane Garrett's respected 2002 release originally entitled A Modern Grammar for Classical Hebrew In addition to the revisions and contributions from new coauthor Jason DeRouchie the book now includes the answer key for an all new companion workbook and an updated vocabulary list for second year Hebrew courses

The Verbal System in Late Enlightenment Hebrew Lily Kahn, 2009-10-31 This book constitutes the first detailed corpus based analysis of the verbal morphology and syntax employed in the Eastern European Maskilic Jewish Enlightenment Hebrew prose fiction written between 1857 and 1881 This verbal system exhibits biblical rabbinic and medieval elements as well as unprecedented features and similarities to Israeli Hebrew and Yiddish The first section of the work offers a selective examination of maskilic verbal morphology while the second section constitutes a thorough examination of the functions of the verbal conjugations and the third section surveys selected features of verbal syntax The work fills a serious gap in the Hebrew philological literature and will therefore be of great relevance to students and scholars of diachronic Hebrew language and linguistics

Revivalistics Ghil'ad Zuckermann, 2020-04-14 In this book Ghil'ad Zuckermann introduces revivalistics a new trans disciplinary field of enquiry surrounding language reclamation revitalization and reinvigoration Applying lessons from the Hebrew revival of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries to contemporary endangered languages Zuckermann takes readers along a fascinating and multifaceted journey into language revival and provides new insights into language genesis Beginning with a critical analysis of Israeli the language resulting from the Hebrew revival Zuckermann's radical theory contradicts conventional accounts of the Hebrew revival and challenges the family tree model of historical linguistics Revivalistics demonstrates how grammatical cross fertilization with the revivalists mother tongues is inevitable in the case of successful revival languages The second part of the book then applies these lessons from the Israeli language to revival movements in Australia and globally describing the why and how of revivalistics With examples from the Barngarla Aboriginal language of South Australia Zuckermann proposes ethical aesthetic and utilitarian reasons for language revival and offers practical methods for reviving languages Based on years of the author's research fieldwork and personal experience with language revivals all over the globe Revivalistics offers ground breaking theoretical and pragmatic contributions to the field of language reclamation revitalization and reinvigoration

Curriculum Model of Orthodox Jewish High Schools in North America Reuven Chaim (Rudolph) Klein,2021-11-11 The dual curriculum model ubiquitous to Orthodox Jewish day schools in North America typically bifurcates into religious Judaic studies and general studies While most classes generally fit into one of those two halves of the curriculum some classes are not intuitively categorized as wholly belonging to one part over the other One of those classes is Ivrit Modern Hebrew This study aims to describe Ivrit s place in the dual curriculum model and the various factors that contribute to that reality by exploring the context in which Ivrit emerged as a subject matter for Orthodox schools and seeking to identify trends in the ways Ivrit is taught This paper lays out the theories behind how ideology influences curriculum formation and documents how Hebrew has fit into the curriculum of Jewish Education throughout the ages It also provides a picture of the particular context of North American Orthodox Jewry that this study focuses on as well as a review of the different theories behind Hebrew education heritage language vs communicative language With this theoretical background in hand this dissertation surveyed 36 Orthodox high schools in North America to better understand how they viewed Ivrit s place and shows that ultimately this subject s place in the dual curriculum model remains ambiguous Documenting how Ivrit is taught and examining the reasons as to why Ivrit is taught helped shed light on Ivrit s precarious place in the dual curriculum model as some of those policies techniques motives seem to line up with the aims of the Judaic studies curriculum while others seemingly reflect the goals of the general studies curriculum

Morphologie G. E. Booij,Christian Lehmann,Joachim Mugdan,2000 This series of HANDBOOKS OF LINGUISTICS AND COMMUNICATION SCIENCE is designed to illuminate a field which not only includes general linguistics and the study of linguistics as applied to specific languages but also covers those more recent areas which have developed from the increasing body of research into the manifold forms of communicative action and interaction For classic linguistics there appears to be a need for a review of the state of the art which will provide a reference base for the rapid advances in research undertaken from a variety of theoretical standpoints while in the more recent branches of communication science the handbooks will give researchers both an verview and orientation To attain these objectives the series will aim for a standard comparable to that of the leading handbooks in other disciplines and to this end will strive for comprehensiveness theoretical explicitness reliable documentation of data and findings and up to date methodology The editors both of the series and of the individual volumes and the individual contributors are committed to this aim The languages of publication are English German and French The main aim of the series is to provide an appropriate account of the state of the art in the various areas of linguistics and communication science covered by each of the various handbooks however no inflexible pre set limits will be imposed on the scope of each volume The series is open ended and can thus take account of further developments in the field This conception coupled with the necessity of allowing adequate time for each volume to be prepared with the necessary care means that there is no set time table for the publication of the whole series Each volume will be a self contained work complete in itself The order in which the handbooks are published does not imply any rank ordering but is determined by the way in which the series is organized the editor of the whole series enlist a competent editor for each individual volume Once the principal editor for a volume has been found he or she then has a completely free hand in the choice of co editors and contributors The editors plan each volume independently of the others being governed only by general formal principles The series editor only intervene where questions of delineation between individual volumes are concerned It is felt that this modus operandi is best suited to achieving the objectives of the series namely to give a competent account of the present state of knowledge and of the perception of the problems in the area covered by each volume

Linguistics and Biblical Hebrew Walter Ray Bodine,1992 The essays in this volume arose out of the Society of Biblical Literature section on linguistics and Biblical Hebrew and have been selected to provide a summary and statement of the state of the question with regard to a number of areas of investigation The sixteen articles are organized into sections on phonology morphology syntax semantics discourse
