European Dimensions and the Secondary School Curriculum Ivor Goodson, Veronica McGivney, 2018-10-03

Originally published in 1985 Europe and the EEC seemed to be virtually synonymous for the majority of our population and the ambivalent feelings many people have about the Community together with the consistently bad press it received in the UK seemed to engender a hostility in educational circles towards teaching about Europe as a whole However if one of the aims of education is to increase children s awareness tolerance and understanding of the world about them to widen their experience and horizons then teaching about the wider world must have a place in the curriculum This book argues for education about Europe not necessarily in favour of Europe breaking down the national insularity of the UK curriculum and using Europe as one convenient window on the wider world Subject Knowledge Christopher J. Anstead, Ivor F Goodson, J. Marshall Mangan, 2002-11-01 School knowledge has been a subject for historians notably in the field of history of education concentrating on the educational aspects of particular historical periods however links with contemporary education have often remained undeveloped This text attempts to account for the growth of increased interest by sociologists and others in school subjects since the 1960s Goodson s analysis of his own work in the UK and North America examines the range of insights afforded of the nature of schooling and teaching through the study of school subjects Compendium of Higher Education ,1998
