Modern Literary Theory, 1992 Modern Literary Theory, 1989 Modern Literary Theory Philip Rice, Patricia Waugh, 1989-01-01 The new edition of this core text has been thoroughly revised and updated in light of the latest developments in the field Covering the key theoretical approaches in modern literary theory the text includes those essays and documents that are essential reading for students of literature and critical theory The original structure of the book has been improved and new material has been added including extracts from the writings of Marx Freud and de Beauvoir and a new section devoted to contemporary critical debates and issues

Modern Literary Theory: a Reader Patricia; Rice Waugh, 2011-04 This book covers the key theoretical approaches in modern literary theory and includes essays and texts that are essential reading for any student of critical theory It includes sections on Formalism and Structuralism Feminism Marxism Postmodernism and Postcolonialism and for the first time includes works by authors such as de Beauvoir and Freud who although not focusing specifically on literature make a significant contribution to the landscape of literary theory

Modern Criticism and Theory David Lodge, 1988 Provides within the covers of a single book a selection of important and representative work from all the major theoretical schools or tendencies in contemporary criticism and places them before the reader in two alternative orders one historical the other thematic

Modern Criticism and Theory Nigel Wood, David Lodge, 2014-06-11 This third edition of Modern Criticism and Theory represents a major expansion on its previous incarnations with some twenty five new pieces or essays included This expansion has two principal purposes Firstly in keeping with the collection's aim to reflect contemporary preoccupations the reader has expanded forward to include such newly emergent considerations as ecocriticism and post theory Secondly with the aim of presenting as broad an account of modern theory as possible the reader expands backwards to take in exemplary pieces by formative writers and thinkers of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries such as Marx Freud and Virginia Woolf This radical expansion of content is prefaced by a wide ranging introduction which provides a rationale for the collection and demonstrates how connections can be made between competing theories and critical schools The purpose of the collection remains that of introducing the reader to the guiding concepts of contemporary literary and cultural debate It does so by presenting substantial extracts from seminal thinkers and surrounding them with the contextual materials necessary to a full understanding Each selection has a headnote which gives biographical details of the author and provides suggestions for further reading and footnotes that help explain difficult

references The collection is ordered both historically and thematically and readers are encouraged to draw for themselves connections between essays and theories Modern Criticism and Theory has long been regarded as a necessary collection Now revised for the twenty first century it goes further and provides students and the general reader with a wide ranging survey of the complex landscape of modern theory and a critical assessment of the way we think and live in the world today

Modern Literary Theory and Ancient Texts Thomas Schmitz,2008-04-15 This book provides students and scholars of classical literature with a practical guide to modern literary theory and criticism Using a clear and concise approach it navigates readers through various theoretical approaches including Russian Formalism structuralism deconstruction gender studies and New Historicism Applies theoretical approaches to examples from ancient literature Extensive bibliographies and index make it a valuable resource for scholars in the field

Feminist Literary Theory Mary Eagleton,2010-12-20 Now in its third edition Feminist Literary Theory remains the most comprehensive single volume introduction to a vital and diverse field Fully revised and updated to reflect changes in the field over the last decade Includes extracts from all the major critics critical approaches and theoretical positions in contemporary feminist literary studies Features a new section Writing Glocal which covers feminism s dialogue with postcolonial global and spatial studies Revised chapter introductions provide readers with helpful contextual information while extensive notes offer recommendations for further reading
