A Legacy of Art Carol Lowrey,2007 For more than a century a Gilded Age mansion on the south side of New York City's Gramercy Park has been home to the National Arts Club NAC its magnificent interior a refuge from hectic city life In this special catalog Lowrey curator of the club's permanent collection documents selected works by Artist Life Members artists who were given lifetime memberships in the club in exchange for one of their works the program ended in 1950 with the advent of the abstract expressionists The father of well known American sculptor Alexander Calder Alexander Stirling Calder was an Artist Life Member and his sculpture of the painter George Bellows is among the many artworks included here Also featured are an A to Z listing of Artist Life Members and a brief history of the NAC The catalog section includes full color reproductions and descriptions of the artworks as well as brief biographies of the artist Many members works show European influences particularly impressionism and the Barbizon school while others are distinctly American as in the Ash Can school A fine and fitting tribute to the NAC legacy that will be of interest to club academic and large public libraries 75 colour 175 b w illustrations Juan Gris Juan Gris,Paloma Esteban Leal,2005 Old Masters Worldwide Susanna Avery-Quash,Barbara Pezzini,2020-10-15 As a result of the Napoleonic wars vast numbers of Old Master paintings were released on to the market from public and private collections across continental Europe The knock on effect was the growth of the market for Old Masters from the 1790s up to the early 1930s when the Great Depression put an end to its expansion This book explores the global movement of Old Master paintings and investigates some of the changes in the art market that took place as a result of this new interest. Arguably the most important phenomenon was the diminishing of the traditional figure of the art agent and the rise of more visible increasingly professional dealerships firms such as Colnaghi and Agnew s in Britain Goupil in France and Knoedler in the USA came into existence Old Masters Worldwide explores the ways in which the pioneering practices of such businesses contributed to shape a changing market
