Process and Reality Alfred North Whitehead, 2018-01-05 This is another book by English mathematician and philosopher Alfred North Whitehead best known as the defining figure of the philosophical school known as process philosophy which today has found application to a wide variety of disciplines including ecology theology education physics biology economics and psychology among other areas Beginning in the late 1910s and early 1920s Whitehead gradually turned his attention from mathematics to philosophy of science and finally to metaphysics He developed a comprehensive metaphysical system which radically departed from most of western philosophy Whitehead argued that reality consists of processes rather than material objects and that processes are best defined by their relations with other processes thus rejecting the theory that reality is fundamentally constructed by bits of matter that exist independently of one another Today Whitehead's philosophical works particularly Process and Reality are regarded as the foundational texts of process philosophy

Process and Reality Alfred North Whitehead, 1941 A Key to Whitehead's Process and Reality Alfred North Whitehead, 1981-09-15 Whitehead's magnum opus is as important as it is difficult It is the only work in which his metaphysical ideas are stated systematically and completely and his metaphysics are the heart of his philosophical system as a whole Sherburne has rearranged the text in a way designed to lead the student logically and coherently through the intricacies of the system without losing the vigor of Whitehead's often brilliant prose The Key renders Process and Reality pedagogically accessible for the first time Journal of Religion

PROCESS AND REALITY ALFRED N. WHITEHEAD, 1929 Process and Reality Alfred North Whitehead (Philosopher, Mathematician, Great Britain, United States), 1936 Process, Reality, and the Power of Symbols M. Code, 2007-06-28 Following A N Whitehead this book takes up the principal challenge facing a natural philosopher who wishes to engage with Nature while rescuing both Life and Thought from materialistic approaches which rob them of their quicknesses Selecting certain insights and intuitions from the writings of Peirce Coleridge Deleuze and Nietzsche the author proffers a remedy for the pervasive nihilism of the moderns which illustrates Deleuze's suggestion that philosophy should be imaged as a dynamic collage that is forever in the making Process and Reality Alfred North Whitehead, 1929 Subjectivity, Process, and Rationality Michel Weber, Pierfrancesco Basile, 2013-05-02 This volume gathers prominent international scholars to celebrate the complex legacy of Reiner Wiehl whose work has been instrumental in bringing together the European tradition of prima philosophia as represented by Plato Spinoza Kant and Hegel with the adventurous speculative renewal of the twentieth century by Alfred North Whitehead Grouped into four sections Process and Universals Nature and Subjectivity Ethics and Civilization Psychology and Phenomenology the fifteen papers collected in this book cover a range of topics which is as wide and as intertwined as Wiehl's own expertise The common thread running through all contributions is the problematic nature of subjectivity and especially of its process slant which easily eludes the static and abstract schemes of rationality
