Process Praxis And Transcendence:

Process, Praxis, and Transcendence James L. Marsh, 1999-01-28 Presents a North American philosophy of liberation that defends both metaphysics and philosophy of religion and acts as a critique of neo imperialism New Critical Theory William S. Wilkerson, Jeffrey Paris, 2001-11-19 New Critical Theory surveys contemporary leftist thought while introducing the tenets of this new form of critical theory Beginning with an exploration of the relationship between Marxism Habermas and the politics of identity William S Wilkerson and Jeffrey R Paris present a collection that critiques the globalization of capital The development of personality appears as subject to socialized standards in an age of global capitalism Only after scrutinizing the effects of such a system can liberation be found The essays within join Critical Theory with postmodern insights on language and subjectivity to provide a more comprehensive view of emancipatory social theory Through this and other reflections on critical race gender and queer theories Wilkerson and Paris emerge with an encompassing volume defining New Critical Theory Living Traditions and Universal Conviviality Roland Faber, Santiago Slabodsky, 2016-03-03 The World Parliament of Religions adopted the view that there will not be peace in this world without including peace among religions Yet even with the unified force of the world's religions and wisdom traditions this cannot be accomplished without justice among people In one way or another unity among religions as based on justice and the will to accept the other's religions and even irreligiosity as means of justice will not prevail without an internal and external spiritual theological philosophical and practical investigation into the very reasons for religious strife and fanaticism as well as the resources that people cultures religions and wisdom traditions might provide to disentangle them from the injustices of their host regimes and to seek the balance that leads to a measure of universal fairness among the multiplicity of religious and non religious expressions of humanity Conviviality expresses the depth and breadth of living together which itself can be understood as a translation of a central term of Whitehead's philosophy and the process tradition concrescence growing together becoming concrete as it is recently and increasingly used in different discourses to name the concrete community of difference of individuals cultures and religions in appreciation of the mutual inclusiveness of their lives This book seeks to bring together experts from different religious and non religious traditions and spiritual persuasions to suggest ways in which the living wisdom traditions might contribute to and transform themselves into a universal conviviality among the people cultures and religions of this world for a common future It wishes to test the resources that we can contribute to this concurrent and urgent matter aware of Whitehead's call for a radical transformation of power and violence in thought and action as perhaps the ultimate theory of conflict resolution Unjust Legality James L. Marsh, 2001 This book is an interpretation and critique of Habermas's philosophy as contained in his book Between Facts and Norms The main argument is that while Habermas does succeed in laying out foundations conceptual and methodological for the philosophy of law the book is flawed by a fundamental contradiction between a democracy ruled by law and capitalism Visit our website for sample chapters

In Deference to the Other Jim Kanaris, Mark J. Doorley, 2012-02-01 In Deference to the Other brings contemporary continental thought into conversation with that of Bernard Lonergan 1904 1984 the Jesuit philosopher and theologian This is an opportune moment to open such a dialogue philosophers and theologians indebted to Lonergan have increasingly found themselves challenged by the insights of thinkers typically dubbed postmodern while postmodernists most notably Jacques Derrida have begun to ask the God question While Lonergan was not a continental philosopher neither was he an analytic philosopher Concerned with both epistemology and cognition his systematic and hermeneutic like proposals resonate with the concerns of philosophers such as Derrida Foucault Levinas and Kristeva Contributors to this volume find insight and affiliation between Lonergan's thought and contemporary continental thought in a wide ranging work that engages the philosophical problems of authenticity self appropriation ethics and the human subject Critique of Dialectical Reason, Vol. 2 Jean-Paul Sartre, 2006-07-17 Volume Two of Sartre's intellectual masterpiece introduced by Fredric Jameson

Communities of Individuals Michael J. R. Cross, 2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2001 This book examines the liberal communitarian debate from a new perspective Communitarians argue that liberal theory neglects the significance of communities for the lives of their members An examination of that argument reveals that there are deficiencies in the communitarian account of community Identifying and remedying those deficiencies is the key concern of this book Uniquely this book addresses the deficiencies using Sartre's anarchist theory derived largely but not exclusively from an interpretation of the Critique of Dialectical Reason Sartre champions the individual yet criticises liberalism The tension arising from these two apparently disparate positions makes for a fruitful argument enhanced by the connections made with Aristotelian and feminist theory Hobbes and Rousseau Finally a method is developed for inquiring into the nature of associations which it is argued should interest communitarians concerned to avoid deficiencies in their account of community Lonergan in the World James L. Marsh, 2014-01-01 Lonergan in the World compares and applies Lonergan's principles to major trends in contemporary philosophy including phenomenology hermeneutics postmodernism analytic philosophy and Marxism Faith, Resistance, and the Future James L. Marsh, Anna J. Brown, 2012 The book presents Daniel Berrigan's contribution and challenge to Catholic social thought The aim of this book is for the first time to make Berrigan's thought and life available to the academic Catholic community and to activists so that a fruitful interaction takes place Whitehead's Religious Thought Daniel A. Dombrowski, 2016-11-23 Presents the process theistic thought of Whitehead as a third alternative between classical theism and religious skepticism This original interpretation of the religious thought of Alfred North Whitehead highlights Whitehead's moves from mechanism to organism and from force to persuasion to offer a third alternative between classical theism and religious skepticism Daniel A. Dombrowski argues that the move from force to persuasion in particular is not only fundamental to Whitehead's own thought and to process thought in general but is a necessary condition for the continuing existence of civilized life Following this line of analysis Dombrowski demonstrates Whitehead's relevance to contemporary work in philosophy of mind political philosophy and environmental ethics by placing him in dialogue with six major thinkers David Ray Griffin Isabelle Stengers John Rawls Charles Hartshorne Judith Butler and William Wordsworth This mature synthesis of the full range of central concerns that have played out across Dombrowski's long and extraordinarily productive career represents an important contribution to the contemporary literature of process thought Moreover because his work has always embraced influences from outside of the process community this book will have the additional value of introducing many process oriented readers to nonprocess perspectives which Dombrowski presents with great care and accuracy
