AB Bookman's Weekly ,1998 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature
,1895 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1895 200 Years of Children Edith Henderson Grotberg,1977

Importing the First Amendment Ian Loveland,1998-07-01 These studies by a group of eminent academics and judges compare the different approaches of the British European and American courts to the questions of free speech which lie at the heart of much debate in constitutional law The authors of these studies adopt opposing views some favouring the pursuit of a US inspired approach to protecting free speech in the belief that the political culture of British society would be enhanced if our courts were to fashion our common law in accordance with many First Amendment principles Others more sceptically reject this embrace of US legal culture offering distinctly American sceptic views and arguing for a solution based on common law principles and on the jurisprudence of the European courts Celestial Songs for Religious Worship B. B. Funk,1890 The World of the American Revolution Merril D. Smith,2015-08-28 This two volume set brings to life the daily thoughts and routines of men and women rich and poor of various cultures religions races and beliefs during a time of great political social economic and legal turmoil What was life really like for ordinary people during the American Revolution What did they eat wear believe in and think about What did they do for fun This encyclopedia explores the lives of men women and children of European Native American and African descent through the window of social cultural and material history The two volume set spans the period from 1774 to 1800 drawing on the most current research to illuminate people's emotional lives interactions opinions views beliefs and intimate relationships as well as connections between the individual and the greater world The encyclopedia features more than 200 entries divided into topical sections each dealing with a different aspect of cultural life for example Arts Food and Drink and Politics and Warfare Each section opens with an introductory essay followed by A Z entries on various aspects of the subject area Sidebars and primary documents enhance the learning experience Targeting high school and college students the title supports the American history core curriculum and the current emphasis on social history Most importantly its focus on the realities of daily life rather than on dates and battles will help students identify with and learn about this formative period of American history Written for Children John Rowe Townsend,1996-05-01 This revised and updated edition provides children's and young adult librarians teachers literature classes and library school classes with an authoritative history and analysis of the best British and American children's literature through 1994 with a new 2003 postscript including such recent phenomena as J K Rowling and Philip Pullman Written for Children traces the development of children's literature from its origins through the beginnings of the multimedia revolution In effortless and entertaining style Townsend a world renowned authority in the field examines the changing attitudes toward children and their literature and analyzes the various strands that make up this important field While examining many well known American classics Townsend also looks at British works that American audiences may have overlooked With illustrations and bibliography The Fortnightly Review ,1875 Whispers in the Dark Elizabeth Lennox Keyser,1993 Alcott s wealth of allusion to other writers such as Charlotte Bronte Margaret Fuller and especially Nathaniel Hawthorne and of recurring motifs such as textiles texts and theatricals reveals her consistent subversion of conventional values for women The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1928 The First Time He Hit Her Heidi Lemon,2020-06-30 For readers of true crime and books such as See What You Made Me Do a shocking and movingly told portrait of the murder of suburban mum Tara Costigan and an examination of why domestic violence affects us all Tara Costigan was the woman next door A hard worker Quick to laugh and easy to like She was happy confident strong A woman who always looked after herself and her kids Close with her family and her friends she was much loved Then in 2013 she met Marcus Rappel A local tradie he was charming and sincere they dated and fell in love That should have been the end of a happy ever after story But for Tara it was much uglier And for her family it would be devastating A year later Tara was pregnant to Marcus Her family had been worried for a while but Tara didn t tell anyone how Marcus s jealousy was souring the relationship She tried to keep it quiet Despite everything she never imagined he would be physically violent he would never hurt her Tara was wrong One fine day the last day of summer in 2015 she was holding their newborn baby in her arms when he attacked her with an axe Her murder seemed to come out of the blue But as this extraordinary often shocking book reveals it did not The First Time He Hit Her is an attempt to understand why dozens of women are murdered each year by men who profess to love them Catalogue of Books, Broad sides, Documents of American Historical Interest, Including the Library of Henry N. Moeller of New York, and Important Government Publications from the New Hampshire Historical Society, to be Sold ... on ... February 1st and 2nd [1921] ... American Art Association,1921 The American Bookseller ,1879 American Book Prices Current ,1909 A record of literary properties sold at auction in the United States A Sherwood Bonner Sampler, 1869-1884 Katherine Sherwood Bonner McDowell,2000 This book which adds significantly to the current resurgence of interest in Bonner brings back into print much of the author s best writing and will acquaint modern readers with her astute and witty observations about America s centennial era BOOK JACKET The Routledge Companion to Children's Literature and Culture Claudia Nelson,Elisabeth Wesseling,Andrea Mei-Ying Wu,2023-11-30 Focusing on significant and cutting edge preoccupations within children s literature scholarship The Routledge Companion to Children s Literature and Culture presents a comprehensive overview of print digital and electronic texts for children aged zero to thirteen as forms of world literature participating in a panoply of identity formations Offering five distinct sections this volume Familiarizes students and beginning scholars with key concepts and methodological resources guiding contemporary inquiry into children s literature Describes the major media formats and genres for texts expressly addressing children Considers the production distribution and valuing of children s books from an assortment of historical and contemporary perspectives highlighting context as a driver of content Maps how children s texts have historically presumed and prescribed certain identities on the part of their readers sometimes addressing readers who share some part of the author's identity sometimes seeking to educate the reader about a presumed other and in recent decades increasingly foregrounding identities once lacking visibility and voice Explores the historical evolutions and trans regional contacts and inter connections in the long process of the formation of global children's literature highlighting issues such as retranslation transnationalism transculturality and new digital formats for considering cultural crossings and renegotiations in the production of children's literature Methodically presented and contextualized this volume is an engaging introduction to this expanding and multifaceted field

Reconstruction Kathryn B. McKee, 2019-01-08 Kathryn B McKee's Reading Reconstruction situates Mississippi writer Katharine Sherwood Bonner McDowell 1849 1883 as an astute cultural observer throughout the 1870s and 1880s who portrayed the discord and uneasiness of the Reconstruction era in her fiction and nonfiction works McKee reveals conflicts in Bonner's writing as her newfound feminism clashes with her resurgent racism two forces widely prevalent and persistently oppositional throughout the late nineteenth century Reading Reconstruction begins by tracing the historical contexts that defined Bonner's life in postwar Holly Springs McKee explores how questions of race gender and national citizenship permeated Bonner's social milieu and provided subject matter for her literary works Examining Bonner's writing across multiple genres McKee finds that the author's wry but dark humor satirizes the foibles and inconsistencies of southern culture Bonner's travel letters first from Boston and then from the capitals of Europe show her both embracing and performing her role as a southern woman before coming to see herself as simply American when abroad Like unto Like the single novel she published in her lifetime directly engages with Mississippi's postbellum political life especially its racial violence and the rise of Lost Cause ideology Her two short story collections including the raucously comic pieces in Dialect Tales and the more nostalgic Suwanee River Tales indicate her consistent absorption in the debates of her time as she ponders shifting definitions of citizenship questions the evolving rhetoric of postwar reconciliation and readily employs humor to disrupt conventional domestic scenarios and gender roles In the end Bonner's writing offers a telling index of the paradoxes and irresolution of the period advocating for a feminist reinterpretation of traditional gender hierarchies but verging only reluctantly on the questions of racial equality that nonetheless unsettle her plots By challenging traditional readings of postbellum southern literature McKee offers a long overdue reassessment of Sherwood Bonner's place in American literary history
