Times Roberta Fluellen, 2014-12-19 The selections of the poems contained herein were written over a period of many decades. These poems reflect the times that we have lived and will be living. Most of them are based on true feelings and events that have taken place during my life and yours in this society and other countries. I truly hope that you will enjoy them and I truly thank you for sharing these precious moments and poems with me. Also please keep an open mind when reading them and if you can think about some of the events that have taken place in our world, understand that there are always pros and cons to any given occurrence in our world. Remember that there is a destiny that connects all mankind. No one stands alone. Whatever vibes you send will be channeled in different directions into our universe. With due respect, I know and understand that we do not hold on to the same values and belief systems. Please keep an open mind. Open your hearts and spiritual beliefs and allow Mother Nature's wind to blow into a time with me. I believe that whatever you send into the lives and experiences of others will certainly at some point or another have an effect on us, whether we accept the outcome or not; it is so written. In the Company of Many Good Poets. Collected Papers of Franco Montanari Franco Montanari, 2023-10-24 Volume I of Franco Montanari's Kleine Schriften comprises some 66 papers on ancient scholarship, a topic which he decisively helped establishing as an extremely important field of study; they include general surveys of Alexandrian and Pergamene philology, major contributions to ancient Homeric scholarship with a particular emphasis on Aristarchus, ancient scholarship on Hesiod and Aeschylus as well as an important number of editions and notes on papyrological scholarly texts. Volume II consists of 42 contributions to Homer's Iliad and Odyssey, Pindar, Aeschylus, Herodotus, Euripides, the Athenaion Politeia, Lucian, Nonnus, philosophical papyri, the reception of antiquity and portraits of contemporary scholars. Brill's Companion to Hesiod

Franco Montanari, Chr. Tsagalis, Antonios Rengakos, 2009-09-15 This is the first full scale companion on Hesiod to appear in English. The twelve contributions included in this volume cover a wide range of aspects of Hesiodic poetry such as the relation between Hesiod and the literary traditions of the Near East and the entire span of works comprising the Hesiodic corpus from the Theogony and the Works and Days to the Melampodia and the Aigimios. They also explore the language, style, poetics and narrative art of Hesiod as well as his influence on Hellenistic and Roman poetry but also his reception by the ancient biographical traditions and scholia. The aim of this volume is to supply all those interested in Greek poetry with an up to date and comprehensive overview of scholarly approaches to Hesiod and various other works which have come down to us under his name. Selected Poems of Vladimir Nabokov

Vladimir Nabokov, 2012-05-29 Though we know Vladimir Nabokov as a brilliant novelist, his first love was poetry. This landmark collection brings together the best of his verse, including many pieces that have never before appeared in English. These poems span the whole of Nabokov's career from the newly discovered Music written in 1914 to the short playful To Vra composed in 1974. Many are newly translated by Dmitri Nabokov, including The University Poem, a sparkling novel in verse modeled on Pushkin's Eugene Onegin that constitutes a significant new addition to Nabokov's oeuvre. Included too are such poems as Lilith, an early work which broaches the taboo theme revisited nearly forty years later in Lolita and An Evening of Russian Poetry a masterpiece in which Nabokov movingly mourns his lost language in the guise of a versified lecture on Russian delivered to college girls The subjects range from the Russian Revolution to the American refrigerator taking in on the way motel rooms butterflies ice skating love desire exile loneliness language and poetry itself and the poet whirls swiftly between the brilliantly painted facets of his genius wearing masks that are by turns tender demonic sincere self parodizing shamanic visionary and ingeniously domestic The

The Victorian Novel and the Problems of Marine Language Matthew P. M. Kerr, 2022-01-27 To write about the sea in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries was to do so against a vast accretion of past deeds patterns of thought and particularly patterns of expression many of which had begun to feel not just settled but exhausted The Victorian Novel and the Problems of Marine Language takes up this circumstance showing how prose writers in this period grappled with the super conventionalized nature of the sea as a setting as a shaper of plot and character as a structuring motif and as a source of metaphor But while writing about the sea required careful negotiation of multiple and sometimes conflicting associations the sea's multiplicity and freight function not just as impediments to thought or expression but as sources of intellectual and expressive possibilities The Victorian Novel and the Problems of Marine Language treats a provocatively diverse group of key authors spanning from the 1830s to the 1930s and including both those inextricably associated with the sea Frederick Marryat Joseph Conrad and those whose writings are less obviously marine such as Charlotte Brontë Charles Dickens George Eliot William Makepeace Thackeray and Virginia Woolf What these writers share among other things is that they simultaneously register and turn to account the difficulties that attend writing about and writing with the sea In the process their sea writing sheds new light on the value of marginalized representational techniques including repetition cliché and imprecision Regional Russian Studies.
