casebooks and monographs it builds on the experiences gathered in the national legal systems over the past decades and thereby fills a major gap which still exists today It thus does what the previous volumes in the Digest of European Tort Law series did for other key elements of tort law namely natural causation and damage Once again the publication contains a selection of the most important cases from 28 states across Europe as well as cases handed down by European Union courts it also highlights cases from earlier periods of legal history For each case the facts and the relevant court decision are presented and these are then accompanied by an analytical commentary In addition the editors provide comparative analyses of the cases reported and a special report is dedicated to how key decisions would be resolved under model European rules on tort law The editors believe that the material gathered here may provide guidance for an organic convergence of the national legal systems in Europe It constitutes the basis of an acquis commun that is infinitely richer though also much more complex than the rather bland and abstract concepts contained in national codifications European legislation and modern model rules

codifications European legislation and modern model rules Beyond Evidence Julia Viebach,Dagmar Hovestädt,Ulrike Lühe,2022-02-23 Drawing on conceptual debates in transitional justice and critical archival studies as well as empirical cases from various countries around the world the contributions in this book critically examine how archives are produced by and used in transitional justice processes such as tribunals truth commissions and remembrance processes This edited volume provides conceptual critiques of the transitional justice paradigm and innovations in providing a new lens on archival practices in transitional justice In doing so it offers in depth analyses of the relationship between archives and transitional justice in France Colombia Rwanda South Africa and Northern Ireland it highlights truth commission and international court archives as much as personal collections and oral histories The authors bring critical archival studies into dialogue with transitional justice discourses to highlight the activism and emancipatory potential but also the possibilities of injustices inherent in archives and archival practice Crucially the book goes beyond merely highlighting the evidentiary value of archives by linking them to a multitude of transitional justice processes goals and ideals including remembrance processes witnessing reconciliation non recurrence and various struggles against injustices and prevalent violence This collection contributes to and expands our understanding of archives in transitional justice and critically questions core assumptions being made about the inherently positive contributions archives and records make to dealing with a violent past The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The International Journal of Human Rights Human Choice and Computers Klaus Brunnstein,Jacques Berleur,2013-04-18 Human Choice and Computers Issues of Choice and Quality of Life in the Information Society presents different views about how terrorist actions are influencing political and social discussions and decisions and it covers questions related to legitimacy and power in the Information Society Ethical principles are important guidelines for responsible behavior of IT professionals But even under strong external pressure long ranging aspects such as education and the roles of developing countries in the Information Society are important to discuss especially to enable all to actively participate in information processes Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1998-04 The AALS Directory of Law Teachers ,2006
