Professions Conversations On The Future Of Literary And Cultural Studies:

Professions Donald Eugene Hall, 2001 Sometimes playful always provocative Professions is a collection of searching and candid conversations ranging from dialogues to tongue in cheek diatribes on the issues that face literary and cultural critics today This volume bares professional concerns relationships ambitions and insecurities about working in academe Professions provides hard to get insider information for students contemplating an academic career It also challenges professional scholars to retrieve the intellectual curiosity that drew them to scholarship in the first place while demonstrating how disagreement on controversial issues can be conducted with respect good humor and an open mind Professions features Jane Tompkins and Gerald Graff John McGowan and Regenia Gagnier James Phelan and James Kincaid Marjorie Perloff and Robert von Hallberg Judith Jackson Fossett and Kevin Gaines Dennis W Allen and Judith Roof Niko Pfund Gordon Hutner and Martha Banta Geoffrey Galt Harpham Donald E Hall and Susan S Lanser J Hillis Miller Herbert Lindenberger Sandra Gilbert Bonnie Zimmerman Nellie Y McKay and Elaine Marks Novel Professions Jennifer Ruth, 2006

The Bible in Theory Stephen D. Moore, 2010 The sixteen essays assembled in this volume four of them co authored chart the successive phases of a professional life lived in the interstices of Bible and theory Engaging such texts as the Song of Songs 4 Maccabees Mark Luke Acts John and Romans and such themes as the quest for the historical Jesus the essays simultaneously traverse postmodernism deconstruction New Historicism autobiographical criticism cultural studies postcolonial studies masculinity studies queer theory and posttheory Individual essay introductions and periodic annotated bibliographies make the volume an advanced introduction to biblical literary criticism From publisher s description

Social Constructionist Identity Politics and Literary Studies S. Gupta, 2007-01-10 This study presents a critique of social constructionist identity politics which is distinguished from specific identity based political positions from within and with social constructionist commitments Gupta examines the institutionalization of social constructionist identity politics in literary studies considering the notions of canonicity Theory's Empire Daphne Patai, Wilfrido Corral, 2005-04-20 Not too long ago literary theorists were writing about the death of the novel and the death of the author today many are talking about the death of Theory Theory as the many theoretical isms among them postcolonialism postmodernism and New Historicism are now known once seemed so exciting but has become ossified and insular This iconoclastic collection is an excellent companion to current anthologies of literary theory which have embraced an uncritical stance toward Theory and its practitioners Written by nearly fifty prominent scholars the essays in Theory s Empire question the ideas catchphrases and excesses that have let Theory congeal into a predictable orthodoxy More than just a critique however this collection provides readers with effective tools to redeem the study of literature restore reason to our intellectual life and redefine the role and place of Theory in the academy The Invention of the Biblical Scholar Stephen D. Moore, Yvonne Sherwood, In this tale of two disciplines Stephen D Moore and Yvonne Sherwood invite the reader into a paradox just as the wider field of literary studies has now come to operate after theory biblical scholars continue their long search for an elusive Holy Grail a definitive literary critical theory Understanding that paradox requires revisiting the peculiar history by which the curious figure of the biblical scholar was invented during the Enlightenment and how contemporary biblical scholarship continues however unwittingly to pursue Enlightenment goals

The Reimagined PhD Leanne M Horinko, Jordan M Reed, James M Van Wyck, 2021-08-13 Long seen as proving grounds for professors PhD programs have begun to shed this singular sense of mission The Reimagined PhD normalizes the multiple career paths open to PhD students while providing practical advice geared to help students faculty and administrators incorporate professional skills into graduate training build career networks and prepare PhDs for a range of careers

Clueless in Academe Gerald Graff, 2008-10-01 Gerald Graff argues that our schools and colleges make the intellectual life seem more opaque narrowly specialized and beyond normal learning capacities than it is or needs to be Left clueless in the academic world many students view the life of the mind as a secret society for which only an elite few qualify In a refreshing departure from standard diatribes against academia Graff shows how academic unintelligibility is unwittingly reinforced not only by academic jargon and obscure writing but by the disconnection of the curriculum and the failure to exploit the many connections between academia and popular culture Finally Graff offers a wealth of practical suggestions for making the culture of ideas and arguments more accessible to students showing how students can enter the public debates that permeate their lives

Globalization and Literature Suman Gupta, 2013-04-30 This book presents a state of the art overview of the relationship between globalization studies and literature and literary studies and the bearing that they have on each other It engages with the manner in which globalization is thematized in literary works examines the relationship between globalization theory and literary theory and discusses the impact of globalization processes on the production and reception of literary texts Suman Gupta argues that while literature has registered globalization processes in relevant ways there has been a missed articulation between globalization studies and literary studies Examples are given of some of the ways in which this slippage is now being addressed and may be taken forward taking up such themes as the manner in which anti globalization protests and world cities have figured in literary works the ways in which theories of postmodernism and postcolonialism familiar in literary studies have diverged from and converged with globalization studies and how industries to do with the circulation of literature are becoming globalized This book is intended for university level students and teachers researchers and other informed readers with an interest in the above issues and serves as both a survey of the field and an intervention within it

Value and the Humanities Zoe Hope Bulaitis, 2020-06-29 Tracing the shift from liberal to neoliberal education from the nineteenth century to the present day this open access book provides a rich and previously underdeveloped narrative of value in higher education in England Value and the Humanities draws upon historical financial and critical debates concerning educational and cultural policy Rather than writing a singular defence of the humanities against economic rationalism Zoe Hope Bulaitis constructs a nuanced map of the intersections of value in the humanities encompassing an exploration of policy engagement scientific discourses fictional representation and the humanities in public life The book articulates a kaleidoscopic range of humanities practices which demonstrate that although recent policy encourages higher education to be entirely motivated by outcomes fiscal targets and the acquisition of employability skills the humanities continue to inspire and aspire beyond these limits This book is a historically grounded and theoretically informed analysis of the value of the humanities within the context of the market

American Literature in Transition, 1960-1970 David Wyatt, 2018-09-13 The decade of the 1960s has come to occupy a uniquely seductive place in both the popular and the historical imagination While few might disagree that it was a transformative period the United States remains divided on the question of whether the changes that occurred were for the better or for the worse Some see it as a decade when people became more free others as a time when people became more lost American Literature in Transition 1960 1970 provides the latest scholarship on this time of fateful turning as seen through the eyes of writers as various as Toni Morrison Gary Snyder Michael Herr Amiri Baraka Joan Didion Louis Chu John Rechy and Gwendolyn Brooks This collection of essays by twenty five scholars offers analysis and explication of the culture wars surrounding the period and explores the enduring testimonies left behind by its literature In Memory of Elaine Marks Richard Goodkin, 2007-05-01 A widely recognized and respected authority on French literature women s writing feminist theory and Jewish studies Elaine Marks wrote groundbreaking books on Collette Simone de Beauvoir and Jewish themes in French literature In Memory of Elaine Marks continues her legacy of rigorous intellectual exploration enlivening scholarship in diverse areas of thought The eleven essays in the collection bring together a number of intellectual political and ethical domains that were central to Marks s work pedagogy feminism lesbianism women s auto biography Jewish identity community memory mourning isolation and death In their interpretations of works by Marks Simone de Beauvoir H l ne Cixous Philip Roth Jacques Derrida Roland Barthes Saint Simon La Bruy re Marcel Proust and others the authors illustrate and engage Marks s existential vision fearlessly probing the human experience to make sense of how we live die and understand both The Knowledge Contract David B. Downing, 2005-01-01 The Knowledge Contract intervenes in the ongoing debates about the changing conditions of higher education in America with a special focus on English studies and the humanities This highly original study integrates three crucial concerns the economic restructuring of higher education the transformation of disciplinary models of teaching and research and the rise of the academic labor movement Whereas most contemporary critiques of higher education have focused on the impact of global economic forces The Knowledge Contract adds a new dimension to the discussion by addressing the tensions between disciplinary and nondisciplinary forms of academic work David B Downing draws on several traditions of scholarship histories of the university sociological studies of education critiques of disciplinary and interdisciplinary forms of work histories of academic capitalism and the labor movement and field specific analyses of the history of English studies Building on his analysis Downing develops alternative possibilities to the dominance of disciplinary forms of labor and offers scenarios for creating more equitable working and learning conditions for faculty and students

The Slow Professor Maggie Berg, Barbara K. Seeber, 2016-04-06 If there is one sector of society that should be cultivating deep thought in itself and others it is academia Yet the corporatisation of the contemporary university has sped up the clock demanding increased speed and efficiency from faculty regardless of the consequences for education and scholarship In The Slow Professor Maggie Berg and Barbara K Seeber discuss how adopting the principles of the Slow movement in academic life can counter this erosion of humanistic education Focusing on the individual faculty member and his or her own professional practice Berg and Seeber present both an analysis of the culture of speed in the academy and ways of alleviating stress while improving teaching research and collegiality The Slow Professor will be a must read for anyone in academia concerned about the frantic pace of contemporary university life

The Poetics of American Song Lyrics Charlotte Pence, 2012-01-02 The Poetics of American Song Lyrics is the first collection of academic essays that regards songs as literature and that identifies intersections between the literary histories of poems and songs The essays by well known poets and scholars including Pulitzer Prize winner Claudia Emerson Peter Guralnick Adam Bradley David Kirby Kevin Young and many others locate points of synthesis and separation so as to better understand both genres and their crafts The essayists share a desire to write on lyrics in a way that moves beyond sociological historical and autobiographical approaches and explicates songs in relation to poetics Unique to this volume the essays focus not on a single genre but on folk rap hip hop country rock indie soul and blues The first section of the book provides a variety of perspectives on the poetic history and techniques within songs and poems and the second section focuses on a few prominent American songwriters such as Bob Dylan Bruce Springsteen and Michael Stipe Through conversational yet in depth analyses of songs the essays discuss sonnet forms dramatic monologues Modernism ballads blues poems confessionism Language poetry Keatsian odes unreliable narrators personas poetic sequences rhythm rhyme transcription methods the writing process and more While the strategies of explication differ from essay to essay the nexus of each piece is an unveiling of the poetic history and poetic techniques within songs

Postmodern Sophistry Gary A. Olson, Lynn Worsham, 2006-01-01 Fifteen prominent scholars from a range of academic disciplines legal studies critical legal studies political science Jewish studies rhetoric and literary studies explore various aspects of cultural and literary critic Stanley Fish's work They examine Fish's understanding of how interpretation functions the various philosophical issues that Fish has addressed or failed to address in his work and the political consequences of Fish's thought Stanley Fish responds to the ideas put forth in this book in a detailed Afterword

Poetics in a New Key Marjorie Perloff, 2014-10-29 Marjorie Perloff writes in her preface to Poetics in a New Key that when she learned David Jonathan Y Bayot wanted to publish a collection of her interviews and essays she was at once honored and mystified But to Perloff s surprise and her readers delight the resulting assembly not only presents an accessible and provocative introduction to Perloff s critical thought but also highlights the wide range of her interests and the energetic reassessments and new takes that have marked her academic career The fourteen interviews in Poetics in a New Key conducted by scholars poets and critics from the United States Denmark Norway France and Poland including Charles Bernstein H l ne Aji and Peter Nicholls cover a broad spectrum of topics in the study of poetry its nature as a literary genre its current state and its relationship to art politics language theory and technology Also featured in the collection are three pieces by Perloff herself an academic memoir an exploration of poetry pedagogy and an essay on twenty first century intellectuals But across all the interviews and essays Perloff s distinctive personality and approach to reading and talking resound making this new collection an inspiring resource for scholars both of poetry and writing

Performing the Victorian Sharon Aronofsky Weltman, 2007 Performing the Victorian John Ruskin and Identity in Theater Science and Education by Sharon Aronofsky Weltman is the first book to examine Ruskin s writing on theater In works as celebrated as Modern Painters and obscure as Love s Meinie Ruskin uses his voracious attendance at the theater to illustrate points about social justice aesthetic practice and epistemology Opera Shakespeare pantomime French comedies juggling acts and dance prompt his fascination with performed identities that cross boundaries of gender race nation and species These theatrical examples also reveal the primacy of performance to his understanding of science and education In addition to Ruskin on theater Performing the Victorian interprets recent theater portraying Ruskin The Invention of Love The Countess the opera Modern Painters as merely a Victorian prude or pedophile against which contemporary culture defines itself These theatrical depictions may be compared to concurrent plays about Ruskin s friend and student Oscar Wilde Gross Indecency The Three Trials of Oscar Wilde The Judas Kiss Like Ruskin Wilde is misrepresented on the fin de millennial stage in his case anachronistically as an icon of homosexual identity These recent characterizations offer a set of static identity labels that constrain contemporary audiences more rigidly than the mercurial selves conjured in the prose of either Ruskin or Wilde Rhyme's Challenge

David Caplan,2014-01-13 Rhyme s Challenge offers a concise pithy primer to hip hop poetics while presenting a spirited defense of rhyme in contemporary American poetry David Caplan s stylish study examines hip hop s central but supposedly outmoded verbal technique rhyme At a time when print based poets generally dismiss formal rhyme as old fashioned and bookish hip hop artists deftly deploy it as a way to capture the contemporary moment Rhyme accommodates and colorfully chronicles the most conspicuous conditions and symbols of contemporary society its products technologies and personalities Ranging from Shakespeare and Wordsworth to Eminem and Jay Z David Caplan s study demonstrates the continuing relevance of rhyme to poetry and everyday life
