Profit By Design:

Profit by Design John Waters, Meghan Wier, 2021-01-11 Profit by Design is a success methodology developed by John Waters of Waters Business Consulting Group. The methodologies and approaches used are the culmination of 35 years of John's business experience in various industries coupled with his research mentoring failures and successes in 9 different businesses of his own and hundreds of client businesses over the years. John has summarized his approach into simplified methodologies applicable to any business and any stage in the business life cycle. Now these are available to you and your business. If implemented, the Profit by Design Methodology will have a profound and long-lasting impact on the success of your business and the overall quality of your life and as a leader. In this book, we're going to outline the 10 Steps Towards Growing and Scaling Your Business. We have broken this book into 10 main chapters, one for each of the steps as well as included real-life case studies from our practice. Through our own businesses and the business coaching and consulting of over hundreds of organizations, we have developed this program that will help you understand, grow, and even sell your company with success. We look forward to sharing our blueprint and working with you to help you grow your business.
