The Complete History of American Film Criticism Jerry Roberts, 2010-02-01 The Complete History of American Film Criticism is a chronicle of the lives and work of the most influential film critics of the past 100 years From the first movie review in the New York Times in 1896 through the Silent Era the pre and postwar years the Film Generation of the 1960s the Golden Age of the 1970s and into the 21st century critics have educated generations of discriminating moviegoers on the differences between good films and bad They call attention to great directors cinematographers production designers screenwriters and actors and shed light on their artistic visions and storytelling sensibilities People interested in what the great film critics had to say have usually been shortchanged as to their backgrounds and just why they are qualified to sit in judgment Using mini biographies placed within a chronological framework The Complete History of American Film Criticism is the biography of a profession whose cultural impact has left an indelible mark on the 20th century s most significant art form      Sex, Sadism, Spain, and Cinema Nicholas G. Schlegel,2015-06-11 From 1968 to 1977 Spain experienced a boom in horror movie production under a restrictive economic system established by the country s dictator Francisco Franco Despite hindrance from the Catholic Church and Spanish government which rigidly controlled motion picture content hundreds of horror films were produced during this ten year period This statistic is even more remarkable when compared with the output of studios and production companies in the United States and elsewhere at the same time What accounts for the staggering number of films and what does it say about Spain during this period In Sex Sadism Spain and Cinema The Spanish Horror Film Nicholas G Schlegel looks at movies produced distributed and exhibited under the crumbling dictatorship of General Franco The production and content of these films the author suggests can lead to a better understanding of the political social and cultural conditions during a contentious period in Spain s history The author addresses the complex factors that led to the official sanctioning of horror films which had previously been banned and how they differed from other popular genres that were approved and subsidized by the government In addition to discussing the financing and exhibiting of these productions the author examines the tropes conventions iconography and thematic treatments of the films Schlegel also analyzes how these movies were received by audiences and critics both in Spain and abroad Finally he looks at the circumstances that led to the rapid decline of such films in the late 1970s and early 1980s By examining how horror movies thrived in Spain during this decade this book addresses a sorely neglected gap in film scholarship and also complements existing literature on Spanish national cinema Sex Sadism Spain and Cinema will appeal to fans of horror films as well as scholars of film history European history genre studies and cultural studies      Freedom of the Screen Laura Wittern-Keller,2008-01-11 At the turn of the twentieth century the proliferation of movies attracted not only the attention of audiences across America but also the apprehensive eyes of government officials and special interest groups concerned about the messages disseminated by the silver screen Between 1907 and 1926 seven states New York Pennsylvania Ohio Virginia Kansas Maryland and Massachusetts and more than one hundred cities authorized censors to suppress all images and messages considered inappropriate for American audiences Movie studios hoping to avoid problems with state censors worrying that censorship might be extended to the federal level and facing increased pressure from religious groups also jumped into the censoring business restraining content through the adoption of the self censoring Production Code also known as the Hays code But some industry outsiders independent distributors who believed that movies deserved the free speech protections of the First Amendment brought legal challenges to censorship at the state and local levels Freedom of the Screen chronicles both the evolution of judicial attitudes toward film restriction and the plight of the individuals who fought for the right to deliver provocative and relevant movies to American audiences The path to cinematic freedom was marked with both achievements and roadblocks from the establishment of the Production Code Administration which effectively eradicated political films after 1934 to the landmark cases over films such as The Miracle 1948 La ronde 1950 and Lady Chatterley's Lover 1955 that paved the way for increased freedom of expression As the fight against censorship progressed case by case through state courts and the U S Supreme Court legal authorities and the public responded growing increasingly sympathetic toward artistic freedom Because a small unorganized group of independent film distributors and exhibitors in mid twentieth century America fought back against what they believed was the unconstitutional prior restraint of motion pictures film after 1965 was able to follow a new path maturing into an artistic medium for the communication of ideas however controversial Government censors would no longer control the content of America's movie screens Laura Wittern Keller's use of previously unexplored archival material and interviews with key figures earned her the researcher of the year award from the New York State Board of Regents and the New York State Archives Partnership Trust Her exhaustive work is the first to discuss more than five decades of film censorship battles that rose from state and local courtrooms to become issues of national debate and significance A compendium of judicial action in the film industry Freedom of the Screen is a tribute to those who fought for the constitutional right of free expression and paved the way for the variety of films that appear in cinemas today Shock Value Jason Zinoman, 2011-07-07 In the dark underbelly of 1970s cinema an unlikely group of directors rewrote the rules of horror breathing new life into the genre and captivating audiences like never before Much has been written about the storied New Hollywood of the 1970s but while Steven Spielberg and Martin Scorsese were producing their first classic movies a parallel universe of directors gave birth to the modern horror film Shock Value tells the unlikely story of how directors like Wes Craven Roman Polanski and John Carpenter revolutionized the genre plumbing their deepest anxieties to bring a gritty realism and political edge to their craft From Rosemary's Baby to Halloween the films they unleashed on the world created a template for horror that has been relentlessly imitated but rarely matched Based on unprecedented access to the genre's major players this is an enormously entertaining account of a hugely influential golden age in American film Caroline Munro, First Lady of Fantasy Robert Michael "Bobb" Cotter, 2014-01-10 This filmography including television and music video appearances chronicles the career of Caroline Munro a woman of humble beginnings whose chance entry in a Face of the Year photo competition propelled her to international fame as a model and actress and whose work in genre cinema has won her the well earned title of First Lady of Fantasy It provides complete technical and cast credits for each film a synopsis reviews and notes and a foreword by Caroline Munro Inventory A.V. Club, 2009-10-13 Each week the writers of The A V Club issue a slightly slanted pop culture list filled with challenging opinions Is David Bowie's Young Americans nearly ruined by saxophone and fascinating facts Exploring twenty four great films too painful to watch twice fourteen tragic movie masturbation scenes eighteen songs about crappy cities and much more Inventory combines a massive helping of new lists created especially for the book with a few favorites first seen at AVClub.com and in the pages of The A V Club's sister publication The Onion But wait There's more John Hodgman offers a set of minutely detailed and probably fictional character actors Patton Oswalt waxes ecstatic about the quiet film revolutions that changed cinema in small but exciting ways Amy Sedaris lists fifty things that make her laugh Weird Al Yankovic examines the noises of Mad magazine's Don Martin Plus lists from Paul Thomas Anderson Robert Ben Garant Tom Lennon Andrew W K Tim and Eric Daniel Handler and Zach Galifianakis and an epic foreword from essayist Chuck Klosterman

Reel Terror David Konow, 2012-10-02 From the author of the definitive heavy metal history Bang Your Head a behind the scenes look a century of horror films Reel Terror is a love letter to the wildly popular yet still misunderstood genre that churns out blockbusters and cult classics year after year From The Cabinet of Dr Caligari to Paranormal Activity Konow explores its all time highs and lows why the genre has been overlooked and how horror films just might help us overcome fear His on set stories and insights delve into each movie and its effect on American culture For novices to all out film buffs this is the perfection companion to this Halloween's movie marathons

Interrogating the Image Del Jacobs, 2009-09-22 Interrogating the Image argues that movies examining the role film and television plays in the lives of their audience have created changes both in the movies themselves and in their viewers and considers fourteen films where the moving picture is central to the narratives Three films discussed The Purple Rose of Cairo Pleasantville and The Truman Show offer frame breaking experiences for their characters that allow spectators to appreciate the ruptures between lived reality and media play delivering therapeutic payoffs that can be restorative reconstructive or rejective Other examples come from the worlds of cinema The Majestic Matinee Cinema Paradiso television Bamboozled Network Natural Born Killers Medium Cool and the sociopolitical realm where media dominates Being There Wag the Dog Bob Roberts Bulworth Meanwhile significant interpretive stances reflective reflexive critical and ironic are engendered and embraced by filmmakers and audiences who create and consume these works The result is a media saturated culture in transformation and best understood using cinema's interrogative resources

Esoteric Hollywood II Jay Dyer, 2018-12-01 Like no other book before it this work delves into the deep dark and mysterious undertones hidden in Tinseltown's biggest films Esoteric Hollywood is a game changer in an arena of tabloid populated titles After years of scholarly research Jay Dyer has compiled his most read essays combining philosophy comparative religion symbolism and geopolitics and their connections to film Readers will watch movies with new eyes able to decipher on their own as the secret meanings of cinema are unveiled

Cineaste on Film Criticism, Programming, and Preservation in the New Millennium Cynthia Lucia, Rahul Hamid, 2017-11-01 Digital technology and the Internet have revolutionized film criticism programming and preservation in deeply paradoxical ways The Internet allows almost everyone to participate in critical discourse but many print publications and salaried positions for professional film critics have been eliminated Digital technologies have broadened access to filmmaking capabilities as well as making thousands of older films available on DVD and electronically At the same time however fewer older films can be viewed in their original celluloid format and newer digitally produced films that have no material prototype are threatened by ever changing servers that render them obsolete and inaccessible Cineaste one of the oldest and most influential publications focusing on film has investigated these trends through a series of symposia with the top film critics programmers and preservationists in the United States and beyond This volume compiles several of these symposia Film Criticism in America Today 2000 International Film Criticism Today 2005 Film Criticism in the Age of the Internet 2008 Film Criticism The Next Generation 2013 The Art of Repertory Film Exhibition and Digital Age Challenges 2010 and Film Preservation in the Digital Age 2011 It also includes interviews with the late celebrated New Yorker film critic Pauline Kael and the critic John Bloom Joe Bob Briggs as well as interviews with the programmers curators Peter von Bagh and Mark Cousins and with the film preservationist George Feltenstein This authoritative collection of primary source documents will be essential reading for scholars students and film enthusiasts
