Profundity A Universal Value:

Profundity Jean Garbert Harrell, 2008 The crisis or death of philosophy currently identified both within and outside professional circles is commonly attributed to the failure to find universals in metaphysics epistemology and most obviously in valuational judgment Profundity concentrates on an assumption uniformly upheld in the theory of value that all human values are contextually dependent Harrell contends to the contrary that there exists one major value that is universal to humans regardless of context That value is profundity or depth Considering how profundity is used in our language leads Harrell to identify two fundamental sensory patterns that are common to all human life at its origin an auditory pattern that is first experienced before birth and a visual one that is experienced immediately after birth From analysis of these patterns as they recur in music and the visual arts Harrell moves on to discuss their related manifestations in religious doctrine ceremony and experience and also in works of literature Overall her theory entails a radical revamping of the concept of creativity since no artist can create profundity as a universal value and provides the first full scale treatment of profundity in the history of Western philosophy

Value Education: Based On All The Religions Of The World (In Two Volumes) Sukh Lal Dhani,2007 The book on Value Education based on all the religions of the world is an anthology During Dr Promilla Kapur s Travels she was approached by many eminent scholars to compile a book based on the teachings of all the religions of the world It was a Herculean task but the efforts were worth the trouble In the month of January 2001 she started approaching the eminent Scholars and religious heads to write chapters of the book The most eminent scholars in Hinduism Jainism Arya Samaj Islam Christianity Zoroastrianism Sikhism Bhai s faith and so on were contacted Almost hundred reminders to each were sent At one stage it gave the feelings that it was an impossible task but the tenacity of Dr Promilla Kapur kept her on the track By January of 2004 the chapters started arriving All the religious leaders and eminent scholars gave the word of wisdom on all the religions of the world It was heartening to read that not a single chapter writer differed from the positive image of each religion The preaching was almost identical Love affection caring and sharing Forgiveness tolerance and compassion for the entire human beings were the common theme revealed in all the papers The book is the need of the hour and will earn its proper place in the human society all over the world Aesthetics in Perspective Kathleen Marie Higgins,1996 This anthology appropriate for introductory aesthetics and philosophy of art courses includes comprehensive coverage of traditional material as well as substantial inclusion of contemporary and non Western readings Readings from popular culture entice students into the study of aesthetics and motivate them to learn more The organization of the text is also student oriented with chapters that pose such questions as What Is Art and Should We Focus on Form Managing Diversity in the Global Organization Celia de Anca, Antonio Vazquez Vega,2016-01-03 Global diversity is a key issue facing all companies and organizations This innovative new book embraces diversity and shows how it can if carefully understood and developed provide the tools needed to attain the values and characteristics increasingly demanded by business corporations and environments We Need New Stories Nesrine Malik,2021-05-11 Named a Most Anticipated Book of Spring 2021 by Publishers Weekly A rigorous examination of six political myths used to deflect and discredit demands for social justice In 2016 presidential candidate Donald Trump declared I think the big problem this country has is being politically correct Reeling from his victory Democrats blamed the corrosive effect of identity politics When banned from Twitter for inciting violence Trump and his supporters claimed that the measure was an assault on free speech In We Need New Stories Nesrine Malik explains that all of these arguments are political myths variations on the lie that American values are under assault Exploring how these and other common political myths function she breaks down how they are employed to subvert calls for equality from historically disenfranchised groups Interweaving reportage with an incendiary analysis of American history and politics she offers a compelling account of how calls to preserve free speech are used against the vulnerable how a fixation with wokeness political correctness and cancel culture is in fact an organized and well funded campaign by elites and how the fear of racial minorities and their identity politics obscures the biggest threat of all white terrorism What emerges is a radical framework for understanding the crises roiling American contemporary politics

Spiritually-Engaged Knowledge Jennifer Crawford,2017-03-02 In a supposedly global age which not everyone accepts the late Dr Jennifer Crawford has brought together a range of disciplines in her creation of a unified sensitive way of knowing for the global era Drawing upon her academic and lived experience in philosophy environmental science social work and feminism together with a deep spiritual commitment Jennifer Crawford has deftly woven together complex ideas in her reconceptualisation of global justice Spiritually Engaged Knowledge The Attentive Heart is framed within the author's troubling encounters in India recounted in the Prologue and Epilogue These transformative experiences inspired her multi disciplinary exploration of justice which took her beyond the boundaries of Western epistemology Locating the global the author defines what it is to be a member of a global community in which cross cultural encounters bring forth the possibility of new genre of knowledge Crawford situates her argument within contemporary philosophical contexts drawing upon postmodern discourse globalisation theory and the realisation of shared horizon for all human knowledge which offers up a potential for knowing globally Crawford takes the reader through feminist theory the ethic of care the craft of othering surrender to the other and to our relationship with the earth which she argues can be reconfigured into an ethically based way of knowing Drawing on a range of belief systems including Australian Aboriginal spirituality Christianity Buddhism Hinduism metaphysics and Western philosophy Crawford rebuilds an inclusive compassionate redefinition of care for the new millennium which she calls spiritually engaged knowledge

The Biographical Treasury. A dictionary of Universal Biography, etc Samuel MAUNDER,1838 The New Royal and Universal English Dictionary ... To which is Prefixed, a Grammar of the English Language. By J. Johnson, D.D.F.R.S. J. Johnson (D. D., F. R. S.),1763

"Was deutsch und echt..." Kasper Bastiaan van Kooten,2019-03-25 By examining theoretical debates about the nature of nineteenth century German opera and analyzing the genre's development and its international dissemination this book shows German opera's entanglement with national identity formation The thorough study of German opera debates in the first half of the nineteenth century highlights the esthetic and ideological significance of this relatively neglected repertoire and helps to contextualize Richard Wagner's attempts to define German opera and to gain a reputation as the German opera composer par excellence By interpreting Wagner's esthetic endeavors as a continuation of previous campaigns for the emancipation of German opera this book adds an original and significant perspective to discussions about Wagner's relation to German nationalism
