Program Evaluation In Human Services:

Program Evaluation in Human Services Michael J. Smith, 2004-01-01 It is a rare occurrence to read an introductory text written by an accomplished practitioner in which the essentials are identified and addressed and the temptations to pursue the subject in depth appropriately avoided The resulting product is enlightening to the sophisticater as well as to the novice Harold Smith Dean Hunter College School of Social Work Program Evaluation in the Human Services Robert O. Washington, 1980 Effective Grant Writing and Program Evaluation for Human Service Professionals Francis K. O. Yuen, Kenneth L. Terao, Anna Marie Schmidt, 2013-07-29 A state of the art guide for developing grants with a strong emphasis on using program outcome measurement to underscore need and accountability Based on the authors many years of experience in the public and nonprofit sectors Effective Grant Writing and Program Evaluation for Human Service Professionals integrates the topics of grant proposal writing and program evaluation offering grant seekers the practical guidance they need to develop quality proposals obtain funding and demonstrate service results and accountability The authors clearly and succinctly illustrate and describe each stage of the grant writing and evaluation process Problems or issues that arise frequently are highlighted and followed by specific advice In addition numerous real world examples and exercises are included throughout the book to give readers the opportunity for reflection and practice This timely reference incorporates a strengths perspective providing An inside look at the grant writing and evaluation processes with insights from experienced grant writers agency administrators foundation program managers and grant reviewers Specific examples of successful grant proposals and evaluation plans and instruments serving as models for learning and practice Field tested individual and group exercises that facilitate the development of grant writing and evaluation skills Discussion of electronic technology in grant writing and evaluation including writing and submitting grant proposals online and identifying funding sources This grant writing and program evaluation guide follows a needs driven evidence based result oriented and client centered perspective Its authoritative discussion equips human service professionals to effectively develop grants with a strong emphasis on measuring program outcomes Program Evaluation Kenneth J. Linfield, Emil J. Posavac, 2018-09-03 This text provides a solid foundation in program evaluation covering the main components of evaluating agencies and their programs how best to address those components and the procedures to follow when conducting evaluations Different models and approaches are paired with practical techniques such as how to plan an interview to collect qualitative data and how to use statistical analyses to report results In every chapter case studies provide real world examples of evaluations broken down into the main elements of program evaluation the needs that led to the program the implementation of program plans the people connected to the program unexpected side effects the role of evaluators in improving programs the results and the factors behind the results In addition the story of one of the evaluators involved in each case study is presented to show the human side of evaluation This new edition also offers enhanced and expanded case studies making them a central organizing theme and adds more international examples New online resources for this edition include a table of evaluation models examples of program evaluation reports sample handouts for presentations to stakeholders links to YouTube videos and additional annotated resources All resources are available for download under the tab eResources at www.routledge.com 9781138103962 Program Evaluation in Human Services Organizations Janaki Santhiveeran,1994 Pragmatic Program Evaluation for Social Work Allen Rubin,2020-07-23 This textbook balances methodological rigor with the practicalities of becoming a successful evaluator in service oriented settings Human Services Program Evaluation Thomas Barrett,James Sorensen,2015 The term outcome evaluation has become one of the most popular terms among human service providers and those whose job it is to evaluate the impact of human service programs In the public sector alone there are over a hundred instruments in use to evaluate the impact of state human service programs Most states many providers and most accrediting bodies have taken on the challenge of developing better program evaluation because there is universal agreement that better evaluation systems are needed This multiplicity of approaches may have been appropriate for the early stages of development but eventually some standardization is necessary This program evaluation discusses the following topics as a means to inform and guide sound policy and practice decision making 1 Why Do You Need to Know about Program Evaluation 2 Getting Started 3 Needs Assessments 4 Client Outcomes and Costs in Human Services Organizations 5 Financial Management in Human Services Organizations 6 Special Programs in Program Evaluation 7 Research Designs in Program Evaluation 8 Implementation and Maintenance of Program Evaluation and 9 Role of the Evaluator Individual chapters contain appendices and references Current Perspectives on Program Evaluation in Human Services Agencies; Proceedings University of Texas at Austin. Center for Social Work Research,1978 Program Evaluation Robert L. Schalock,C.V.D. Thornton,1988-07-31 This book is written to help human service program administrators either in terpret or conduct program evaluations Our intended audience includes admin istrators and those students being trained for careers in human services administration Our focus is on persons interested in assessing programs in which people work with people to improve their condition The book s title Program Evaluation A Field Guide for Administrators describes how we hope you use this book as a tool In writing the book we have attempted to meet the needs of persons who have to conduct program evaluations as well as those who must use those evaluations Hence we have attempted to make the book user friendly You will find for example numer ous guidelines cautions and specific suggestions Use the book actively Our primary motive is to help administrators make better decisions In fact the primary reason for program evaluation is to help program administrators make good decisions These decisions often must balance the goals of equity or fairness in the distribution of goods and services among people in the economy efficiency obtaining the most output for the least resources and political feasi bility Take for example the administrator who must decide between a new program favored by some of the program s constituents and maintaining the status quo which is favored by other constituents Program Evaluation in the Public Sector Brenda J. Davis Rowe,1983 Evaluation Models D.L. Stufflebeam,George F. Madaus,T. Department of Human Services,2002 Handbook of Program Evaluation for Social Work and Health Professionals Michael J. Smith,2010-01-21 Evaluation is crucial for determining the effectiveness of social programs and interventions In this nuts and bolts handbook social work and health care professionals are shown how evaluations should be done taking the intimidation and guesswork out of this essential task Current perspectives in social work and health practice such as the strengths perspective consumer empowerment empowerment evaluation and evidence based practice are linked to evaluation concepts throughout the book to emphasize their importance This book makes evaluation come alive with comprehensive examples of each different type of evaluation such as a strengths based needs assessment in a local community a needs assessment for Child Health Plus programs comprehensive program descriptions of HIV services and community services for the aged a model for goals and objectives in programs for people with mental illness a monitoring study of private practice social work and process evaluations of a Medicare advocacy program and a health advocacy program to explain advance directives Equal emphasis is given to both quantitative and qualitative data analysis with real examples that make statistics and concepts in qualitative analysis un intimidating By integrating both evaluation and research methods and assuming no previous knowledge of research this book makes an excellent reference for professionals working in social work and health settings who are now being called upon to conduct or supervise program evaluation and may need a refresher on research methods With a pragmatic approach that includes survey design data collection methods sampling analysis and report writing it is also an excellent text or classroom resource for students new to the field of program evaluation
