

programming the

An abstract, futuristic illustration in shades of purple and blue. A large, three-dimensional letter 'A' is constructed from reflective, metallic-looking surfaces. Inside the upper loop of the 'A', there is a circular lens or window that contains a detailed, glowing brain. Several bright, starburst-like light effects emanate from the edges and surfaces of the 'A', creating a sense of high-tech energy and digital connectivity. The background is a gradient of dark to light purple.
