were a powerless minority in the political realm of this period Cai argues that the notorious witchcraft scandal of 91 87 BCE reshuffled the power structure of the Western Han bureaucracy and provided Confucians an opportune moment to seize power evolve into a new elite class and set the tenor of political discourse for centuries to come Teaching Confucianism Jeffrey L. Richey, 2008-02-05 Even the most casual observer of Chinese society is aware of the tremendous significance of Confucianism as a linchpin of both ancient and modern Chinese identity Furthermore the Confucian tradition has exercised enormous influence over the values and institutions of the other cultures of East Asia an influence that continues to be important in the global Asian diaspora If forecasters are correct in labeling the 21st century the Chinese century teachers and scholars of religious studies and theology will be called upon to illuminate the history character and role of Confucianism as a religious tradition in Chinese and Chinese influenced societies The essays in this volume will address the specifically pedagogical challenges of introducing Confucian material to non East Asian scholars and students Informed by the latest scholarship as well as practical experience in the religious studies and theology classroom the essays are attentive to the various settings within which religious material is taught and sensitive to the needs of both experts in Confucian studies and those with no background in Asian studies who are charged with teaching these traditions The authors represent all the arenas of Confucian studies from the ancient to the modern Courses involving Confucius and Confucianism have proliferated across the disciplinary map of the modern university This volume will be an invaluable resource for instructors not only in religious studies departments and theological schools but also teachers of world philosophy non Western philosophy Asian studies and world history Reconstructing the Confucian Dao Joseph A. Adler, 2014-03-27 Zhu Xi the twelfth century architect of the neo Confucian canon declared Zhou Dunyi to be the first true sage since Mencius This was controversial as many of Zhu Xi s contemporaries were critical of Zhou Dunyi s Daoist leanings and other figures had clearly been more significant to the Song dynasty Confucian resurgence Why was Zhou Dunyi accorded such importance Joseph A Adler finds that the earlier thinker provided an underpinning for Zhu Xi s religious practice Zhou Dunyi s theory of the interpenetration of activity and stillness allowed Zhu Xi to proclaim that his own theory of mental and spiritual cultivation mirrored the fundamental principle immanent in the natural world This book revives Zhu Xi as a religious thinker challenging longstanding characterizations of him Readers will appreciate the inclusion of complete translations of Zhou Dunyi s major texts Zhu Xi s published commentaries and other primary source material Zhipan's Account of the History of Buddhism in China Thomas Jülch, 2021-02-22 The Fozu tongji by Zhipan ca 1220 1275 is a key text of Chinese Buddhist historiography The core of the work is formed by the Fayun tongsai zhi an annalistic history of Buddhism in China which extends through Fozu tongji juan 34 48 Thomas J lch now presents a translation of the Fayun tongsai zhi in three volumes This second volume covers the annalistic display from the Sui dynasty to the end of the Wudai period Offering elaborate annotations J lch succeeds in clarifying the backgrounds to the historiographic contents which Zhipan presents in highly essentialized style J

Ich identifies the sources for the historical traditions Zhipan refers to and when accounts presented by Zhipan are inaccurate or imprecise he points out how the relevant matter is depicted in the sources Zhipan relies on Consistently employing these means in reliable style J Ich defines a new standard for translations of medieval Chinese historiographic texts

'Justification by Grace Alone' Facing Confucian Self-Cultivation Arne Redse, 2015-09-29 Chinese contexts as influenced by the religious moral philosophy of New Confucianism are characterized by the idea of becoming a sage through self cultivation For Christian theology with its emphasis on God's grace rather than on self cultivation Confucian teaching in this matter may appear as a problem Chinese Christian theology may ask How can the Christian doctrine of justification by grace alone be contextualized in Chinese contexts which are characterized by the contradicting idea of self cultivation Another question may be equally interesting for Christian theology in all contexts Which insights can be attained from an attempt at contextualizing the Christian doctrine of justification to contexts influenced by New Confucianism In this book professor Arne Redse contributes to answering these questions

Archery Metaphor and Ritual in Early Confucian Texts Rina Marie Camus, 2020-09-28 Archery Metaphor and Ritual in Early Confucian Texts explores the significance of archery as ritual practice and image source in classical Confucian texts Archery was one of the six traditional arts of China the foremost military skill a tool for education and above all an important custom of the rulers and aristocrats of the early dynasties Rina Marie Camus analyzes passages inspired by archery in the texts of the Analects Mencius and Xunzi in relation to the shifting social and historical conditions of the late Zhou dynasty the troubled times of early followers of the ruist master Confucius Camus posits that archery imagery is recurrent and touches on fundamental themes of literature ritual archers in the Analects sharp shooters in Mencius and the fashioning of exquisite bows and arrows in Xunzi represent the gentleman pursuit of ren and self cultivation Furthermore Camus argues that not only is archery an important Confucian metaphor it also proves the cognitive value of literary metaphors more than linguistic ornamentation metaphoric utterances have features and resonances that disclose their speakers salencies of thought

The Master from Mountains and Fields ,2022-11-30 The Master from Mountains and Fields is a fully annotated translation of the prose texts from the collected works of S Ky ngd k 1489 1546 an influential Confucian scholar from the early Chos n period 1392 1910 A native of Songdo also known as Kaes ng in present day North Korea S has loomed large in the Korean cultural imagination and appeared as an exceptional sage and popular hero in numerous tales dramas and films yet his writings are little known outside the academic milieu Also called Master

Hwadam S embodied an archetype of the secluded scholar who remains hidden in mountains and forests to devote himself to his studies. Held in esteem in both South and North Korea today, a notable exception in contemporary studies on Chosŏn Neo-Confucianism, S and his ideas about Vital Energy influenced the great Korean Neo-Confucian debates of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries surrounding the psychophysiological origins of morality as well as various non-orthodox intellectual trends in the late Chosŏn. His thought is fundamentally rooted in the cosmology based on the exegesis of the Book of Changes and follows the teachings of various early Chinese Neo-Confucian thinkers; it presents a vivid example of the eclectic nature of ideas and intellectual trends coexisting within what is generically called Neo-Confucianism. Out of convenience, this volume presents the first English translation of all prose writings attributed to S and most of the peritexts from his posthumously published collection Hwadam chip. It reflects the importance of literary compilations munjip in the intellectual history of Chosŏn and the complex process of the making of Confucian masters in Korea. S's prose works are concise and diverse and offer a glimpse at an author who thwarts stereotyping. An introduction and annotations provide further context. The lengthy endnotes that accompany each text make this a useful handbook for anybody interested in Chosŏn Korea and Confucianism from students in East Asian and Korean studies to specialists in literary Chinese hanmun or East Asian intellectual history.

Cross-Textual Reading of Ecclesiastes with the Analects Elaine Wei-Fun Goh, 2019-10-03 Various cross-textual readings have been attempted between the Christian Bible and Chinese literature. Using cross-textual hermeneutics, this study centers on the political wisdom of Ecclesiastes and the Analects, and its goal is to demonstrate that both texts offer wisdom pointers for human survival amid uncertain sociopolitical realities. Chapter 1 introduces the vibrant interaction of biblical wisdom literature within the ancient Near East and highlights some of its political connections. The openness of wisdom literature is then proposed to support this present effort of cross-textual research. Chapter 2 offers readings of eight passages that communicate Qoheleth's political wisdom in Ecclesiastes. Chapter 3 centers on the Analects and on some notable passages that relate to Confucius's political ideas. Chapter 4 seeks to demonstrate the dialogical dynamics between the two works by exploring specific hermeneutical connections. In conclusion, readers will come to understand the distinctive and collective political insights of both wisdom texts. That is, this study suggests contextualized ideas for living wisely from within both a faith tradition and a native tradition.

Intellectual Property in the Global Trading System Wei Shi, 2008-07-20 After exploring multifaceted issues of IPR enforcement, this book argues that the problems with it are not an actual outcome of Confucian philosophy and that to steal a book is not an elegant offence. This book demonstrates that counterfeiting and piracy are inevitable consequences of inadequate economic development. It goes on to state that they are a by-product of a unique set of socioeconomic crises that have their origin in a dysfunctional institutional regime.

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown, 2018 This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics, issues, methods, and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts.
