The Choreography of Antony Tudor Rachel S. Chamberlain Duerden, 2003 The Choreography of Antony Tudor Focus on Four Ballets presents both an analytical overview of the ballets created for the stage by Antony Tudor and an in depth critical analysis of four key works Jardin aux Lilas 1936 Dark Elegies 1937 Pillar of Fire 1942 and The Leaves Are Fading 1975 Tudor was a British choreographer who spent a large part of his working life in the United States and although he was not prolific in his output his works include several masterpieces of twentieth century ballet repertoire Characteristic of his work is an exceptionally creative and sensitive relationship of choreography with music a relationship different from that developed by his equally musical contemporary George Balanchine in that it privileges subtle layers of dramatic often psychological exposition as well as complex mythic structures Tudor's ballets invariably involve a psychological human dimension even when there is no story as such and it is these two strands the musical and the dramatic that the choreographer exploits with consummate skill in the best of his work
