Wealthy Slaves and The Ecclesiastes Jocelyn de Castro, 2010-09-23 Nature versus Nurture Michael quickly summoned me to his office where his pet spider is housed in an aquarium feeling strange about the idea of having an arachnida for a pet As Michael set me on a miniature ottoman in front of the arachnid's home the terrestrial environment he provided my skepticism promptly transformed into fascination One single spider had reproduced a sac housing hundreds of precious eggs soon to hatch to young uns sadly to the demise of its mother upon their births The gleaming gossamer of spider silk which I had learned in my zoology and biochemistry classes to be the strongest fiber known even stronger than steel One beneficial lesson we humans can learn from this creature is an allimportant one recycling Once the web is destroyed the spider swallows this delicate lace and re uses its protein in rebuilding the next structure Nothing should be wasted even the most despised creature learns from its Creator The eyes have seen the ears have heard the wonders of God's miraculous creation Yet regrettably some people live to say that there is no God Given a glimpse of his home I finally saw what Michael meant in his expression and sentiment over the difference in our homes Michael may not see or admit but as he spoke of my home I can feel the yearning

in his voice and I also audibly hear the ache Mr Kamo Toyatori can rest assured that his legacy passed on to his son will live on This legacy weighs heavily on his son s shoulders but will not give up His son is simply incapable of doing so his son aware that it could only lead to his own fi nancial ruin Michael will labor day and night he needs to wary not to plant himself in less exalted ground than what he deserves and that which his father expects Akbar-Birbal Combined B/W TANVIR
