The Artist's Garden Jackie Bennett, 2019-10-29 The Artist's Garden will feature up to 20 gardens that have inspired and been home to some of the greatest painters of history These gardens not only supplied the inspiration for creative works but also illuminate the professional motivation and private life of the artists themselves from Cezanne's house in the south of France to Childe Hassam at Celia Thaxter's garden off the coast of Maine Flowers and gardens have often been the first choice for artists looking for a subject A garden close to the artist's studio is not only convenient for daily material and ideas but also has the advantage of changing through the seasons and over time Claude Monet's Giverny was the catalyst for hundreds of great paintings by Monet and other artists each one different from the one before Sometimes a whole village becomes the focus for a colony of artists as at Gerberoy in Picardy and Skagen on the northernmost tip of Denmark This book is about the real

homes and gardens that inspired these great artists gardens that can still be visited today The relationship between artist and garden is a complex one A few artists including Pierre Bonnard and his neighbour Monet were keen gardeners as much in love with their plants as their work while for others like Sorolla in Madrid his courtyard home was both a sanctuary and a source of ideas

Artistic Practices and Cultural Transfer in Early Modern Italy Allison Sherman, 2017-07-05 For too long the centre of the Renaissance has been considered to be Rome and the art produced in or inspired by it This collection of essays dedicated to Deborah Howard brings together an impressive group of internationally recognised scholars of art and architecture to showcase both the diversity within and the porosity between the centre and periphery in Renaissance art Without abandoning Rome but together with other centres of art production the essays both shift their focus away from conventional categories and bring together recent trends in Renaissance studies notably a focus on cultural contact material culture and historiography They explore the material mechanisms for the transmission and evolution of ideas artistic training and networks as well as the dynamics of collaboration and exchange between artists theorists and patrons The chapters each with a wealth of groundbreaking research and previously unpublished documentary evidence as well as innovative methodologies reinterpret Italian art relating to canonical sites and artists such as Michelangelo Titian Tintoretto Veronese and Sebastiano del Piombo in addition to showcasing the work of several hitherto neglected architects painters and an inimitable engineer inventor

Library, George Peabody Library, 1885 Leonardo's Holy Child Fred R Kline, 2016-05-10 Fred Kline is a well known art historian dealer connoisseur and explorer who has made a career of scouring antique stores estate sales and auctions looking for unusual and often misidentified works of art Many of the gems he has found are now in major museum collections like the Frick the Getty and the Metropolitan Museum of Art But this book is about the discovery of one piece in particular About ten years ago when Kline was routinely combing through a Christie's catalog a beautiful little drawing caught his eye Attributed to Carracci it came with a very low estimate but Kline's every instinct told him that the attribution was wrong He placed a bid and the low asking price and bought the drawing outright And that was the beginning of how Kline discovered Leonardo da Vinci's model drawing for the Infant Jesus and the Infant St John It is the first work by da Vinci to have surfaced in over a century LEONARDO'S HOLY CHILD chronicles not only the story of this amazing discovery from Kline's research all over the world to how exactly attributions work with regards to the old masters most of their works are unsigned Kline also sheds light on the idea of connoisseurship an often overlooked facet of art history that's almost Holmesian in its intricacy and specificity
