The Royal Yacht Squadron, 1815-1985 Ian Dear, 1985 The Suffering Traveller and the Romantic Imagination Carl Thompson, 2007-05-31 Thompson explores the romance that can attach to the notion of suffering in travel and the importance of the persona of suffering traveller for Romantic writers and travellers He considers how and why the Romantics typically chose to imitate the hapless protagonists of these accounts British Sport: a Bibliography to 2000 Richard Cox, 2013-12-16 Volume one of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian Yacht and Rowing Club Buttons Roger Revell, 2010-01-19 This is the first detailed study of buttons used by British yacht and rowing clubs covering a period of some two hundred years The book will be of interest to members of yacht and boat clubs as well as to collectors needing information on identity age and values of these early buttons Descriptions and illustrations are included for nearly a hundred and eighty buttons used by nearly a hundred and sixty clubs The study gives brief histories of individual organisations and includes many useful appendices for identifying and dating buttons Many of the buttons are illustrated and described for the first time in print The Channel Islands in Anglo-French Relations, 1689-1918 Colin Partridge, Andrew Lambert, Jean de Préneuf, 2024 Examines how the Channel Islands have been crucial to Britain's successful maritime superiority in the English Channel The Channel Islands have played a key role in both naval warfare and Anglo French diplomacy but this has not always been highlighted sufficiently even though Britain and France were at war for most of the period 1689 1815 This book considers a wide range of maritime subjects where the role of the Channel Islands has been significant such as intelligence gathering piracy and privateering and naval strategy and control of the Channel It also examines topics in relation to the Channel Islands specifically such as surveying and hydrography fortifications trade and Channel Islands societies It charts changes over time including the impact of technological changes from the wars of Louis XIV and William III through the many Anglo French wars of the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries and includes planning for wars which were anticipated but avoided Throughout the issues are discussed from the perspectives of Britain France and the Channel Islands themselves equal weight being given to all three perspectives Andrew Lambert is Professor of War Studies at King's College London and one of Britain's foremost maritime and naval historians Colin Partridge is a former consultant to the States of Guernsey's Fortress Guernsey programme for the restoration and interpretation of Guernsey's fortifications Jean de Préneuf is a Senior Lecturer at the University of Lille and Head of the Research Teaching and Studies Unit at the Historical Branch of the French Ministry of Defence at Vincennes Troubled Waters Nigel Sharp, 2015-10-15 Nigel Sharp tells the story of leisure boating during the Second World War Royal Yacht Squadron IAN.
