Know it All, Find it Fast Robert John Duckett,Bob Duckett,Peter Walker,Christinea Donnelly,2008 There is a queue the phone is ringing the photocopier has jammed and your enquirer is waiting for a response You are stressed and you can feel the panic rising Where do you go to find the information you need to answer the question promptly and accurately Answering queries from users is one of the most important services undertaken by library and information staff Yet it is also one of the most difficult least understood subjects There are still very few materials available to help frontline staff often paraprofessional develop their reader enquiry skills This award winning sourcebook is an essential guide to where to look to find the answers quickly It is designed as a first point of reference for library and information practitioners to be depended upon if they are unfamiliar with the subject of an enquiry or wish to find out more It is arranged in an easily searchable fully cross referenced A Z list of around 150 of the subject areas most frequently handled at enquiry desks Each subject entry lists the most important information sources and where to locate them including printed and electronic sources relevant websites and useful contacts for referral purposes The authors use their extensive experience in reference work to offer useful tips warn of potential pitfalls and spotlight typical queries and how to tackle them This new edition has been brought right up to date with all sources checked for currency and many new ones added The searchability is enhanced by a comprehensive index to make those essential sources even easier to find saving you valuable minutes Readership Offering quick and easy pointers to a multitude of information sources this is an invaluable reference deskbook for all library and information staff in need of a speedy answer in reference libraries subject departments and other information units

The Birds of Ireland Jim Wilson,Mark Carmody,2013-09-04 An important tool of a birdwatcher is a good identification guide Most cover the birds of Europe and few deal exclusively with Ireland This first photographic identification guide to the birds of Ireland has over 1 600 photos of more than 260 species in an easy quick reference format

With eight to fifteen images per species the key identification features of each bird are shown with concise descriptions and pointers to indicate important features This guide is produced in association with BirdWatch Ireland Ireland's leading bird conservation organisation The purchase of this guide contributes funds to BirdWatch Ireland's conservation and education initiatives to help protect and promote Ireland's wild birds and habitats similar to Ireland's Garden Birds by Jim Wilson and Oran O Sullivan

Walking in the Auvergne Rachel Crolla, Carl McKeating, 2013-04-22 A guidebook to 42 day walks in the Auvergne Exploring the volcanic hills of central France the walks are suitable for beginner and experienced walkers alike Walks range from 2 to 16km 1 10 miles and can be enjoyed in 1 6 hours The routes are clustered into five different areas making ideal bases Cantal the Chaîne des Puys Monts Dômes the Monts Dore the Haute Loire Livradois and Velay and the Montagne Bourbonnaise Sketch maps are included for each walk Detailed information on accommodation public transport and the region's volcanic history Local points of interest are featured including the Livradois Forez and Auvergne Volcanoes regional nature parks

Purposeful Birdwatching Rob Hume, 2024-02-06 I remember well my first Bewick's swans which I bumped into one November day not far from home They looked at me unsure whether or not to fly into the fog as I tried to get as close as I dared What is it exactly that can many years later recall such emotionally charged birding moments so vividly to mind I can't really remember my birthdays at all but my first green woodpecker and my first jay are firmly embedded And with some of these things the place it happened is equally important With its mix of memoir gentle advice and enthusiastic advocacy this book sets out a case for purposeful birdwatching Along the way it explains how to make your birding more enjoyable fulfilling and worthwhile Using ideas and techniques from his five decades of experience Rob Hume reveals how an ever enquiring approach to observation of the natural world can yield unexpected treasures whether this be something rare or simply new details concealed in the apparently everyday From the basics of equipment and methods through the mysteries of seawatching to special insights on the likes of honey buzzards and goshawks and a focus on some iconic sites his breadth of knowledge ensures there is something for every curious birder Illuminatingly illustrated throughout with the author's sketches and fieldnotes at its heart this is a call to appreciate birds for themselves as individuals and as species and not merely as numbers on a list It will help lead beginners towards a practical and more satisfying hobby while also being of great interest to experienced birders who will relate to the content through their own experiences

Introduction to Wildlife Conservation in Farming Stephen Burchett, Sarah Burchett, 2011-07-20 This book provides an invaluable comprehensive and practical introduction to conservation issues associated with current farming practice Representing both industry and conservation as an integrated and holistic system it explores conservation issues within every farming discipline from arable and horticulture to grasslands woodlands aquatic and coastal farming and will include an assessment of the impact of global warming The book includes relevant case studies and international real world examples focusing on applied management and not just ecological facts theories and principles The carefully structured book begins by introducing the overall subject including some statistics on current farming activities giving a brief outlook for the future of farming systems in relation to conservation Each subsequent chapter will have its own introduction setting the commercial context and conservation value of an example farm and will progress with a series of case studies that will include the following elements site assessment species list soils management options and a habitat management plan A summary section will draw together the common themes of the chapter and develop a lead in to subsequent chapters It will provide students with an informed appreciation of current practice whilst raising questions about the development of conservation in farming in the future
