Rubble Years:

The Miracle Years Hanna Schissler, 2020-12-08 Stereotypical descriptions showcase West Germany as an economic miracle or cast it in the narrow terms of Cold War politics Such depictions neglect how material hardship preceded success and how a fascist past and communist sibling complicated the country's image as a bastion of democracy Even more disappointing they brush over a rich and variegated cultural history That history is told here by leading scholars of German history literature and film in what is destined to become the volume on postwar West German culture and society In it we read about the lives of real people from German children fathered by black Occupation soldiers to communist activists from surviving Jews to Turkish guest workers from young hoodlums to middle class mothers We learn how they experienced and represented the institutions and social forces that shaped their lives and defined the wider culture We see how two generations of West Germans came to terms not only with war guilt division from East Germany and the Angst of nuclear threat but also with changing gender relations the Americanization of popular culture and the rise of conspicuous consumption Individually these essays peer into fascinating overlooked corners of German life Together they tell what it really meant to live in West Germany in the 1950s and 1960s In addition to the editor the contributors are Volker R Berghahn Frank Biess Heide Fehrenbach Michael Geyer Elizabeth Heineman Ulrich Herbert Maria Hahn Karin Hunn Kaspar Maase Richard McCormick Robert G Moeller Lutz Niethammer Uta G Poiger Diethelm Prowe Frank Stern Arnold Sywottek Frank Trommler Eric D Weitz Juliane Wetzel and Dorothee Wierling

Ambient History

Kamila Baraniecka-Olszewska, 2025-09-30 Ambient History presents the role urban fabric plays in constructing the wartime history of Warsaw It focuses on history embedded in matter and details the practices followed by municipal institutions artists and historical reenactors who pull history out of the background through their actions The book offers a new perspective on the material history of the city It presents the concept of ambient history history hidden in the background in the landscape waiting to be utilised by individuals coming into contact with the fabric of the city It draws on anthropological considerations of history which embrace non academic methods of conceptualising the past and processes of democratising history The book has two principal objectives One is to give theoretical grounding to the term ambient history which facilitates the conceptualisation of material history and the role experiencing it plays in the process of constructing history The other is to try and determine the limits of the heuristic potential of posthumanist reflection on materiality in reference to research focused on the making of history Therefore the book is valuable reading for researchers studying non academic methods of curating history scholars investigating materiality and things anthropologists of history scholars of heritage studies experts in urban studies historians focused on public history and archaeologists analysing the discipline's theory

Gendering

Post-1945 German History Karen Hagemann, Donna Harsch, Friederike Brühöfener, 2019-04-02 Although entanglement has become a keyword in recent German history scholarship entangled studies of the postwar era have largely limited their scope to politics and economics across the two Germanys while giving short shrift to social and cultural phenomena like gender At the same time historians of gender in Germany have tended to treat East and West Germany in isolation with little attention paid to intersections and interrelationships between the two countries This groundbreaking collection synthesizes the perspectives of entangled history and gender studies bringing together established as well as upcoming scholars to investigate the ways in which East and West German gender relations were culturally socially and politically intertwined

The Chora of Croton 1 Jon Mörter, 2012-10-03 From 1974 to the present the Institute of Classical Archaeology ICA at the University of Texas at Austin has carried out archaeological excavations and surveys in ancient territories chorae in southern Italy This wide ranging investigation which covers a large number of sites and a time period ranging from prehistory to the Middle Ages has unearthed a wealth of new information about ancient rural economies and cultures in the region These discoveries will be published in two multivolume series Metaponto and Croton This volume on the Neolithic settlement at Capo Alfiere is the first in the Croton series The Chora of Croton 1 reports the excavation results of a remarkable Neolithic site at Capo Alfiere on the Ionian coast Capo Alfiere is one of a very few early inhabitation sites in this area to have been excavated extensively with a full team of scientific specialists providing interdisciplinary studies on early farming and animal husbandry It provides comprehensive documentation of the economy material culture and way of life in the central Mediterranean in the sixth and fifth millennia BC Most notable are the remains of a wattle and daub hut enclosed within a massive stone wall Unique for this area this well preserved structure may have been used for special purposes such as ritual as well as for habitation The presence of Stentinello wares shows that the range of this pottery type extended further east than previously thought and casts new light on the development of ceramics in the area

To See In the Dark Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2025-01-20 Timely and clearly written To See In the Dark is a manifesto to solidarity Stephen Sheehi co author of Psychoanalysis Under Occupation Mirzoeff sharply urges us to divest from a mere spectatorship to a genocide and insists that we see in relation in solidarity and as an anti colonial collective Simone Browne author of Dark Matters Mirzoeff argues incisively for a return to ways of seeing that are grounded in solidarity and resistance Candice Breitz video and photography artist To see Palestine is to see the world Since October 7th 2023 the forces of racial capitalism and settler colonialism have become all too visible in Israel's genocidal war on Gaza In To See In the Dark Nicholas Mirzoeff explores how images and especially video viewed outside Palestine enabled a dramatic switch in public opinion leading to a global uprising against the genocide In this groundbreaking analysis he connects the personal and the political through his own anti Zionist Jewishness and its histories of violence The result is a new collective and anti colonial way of seeing intersecting online and embodied experience Nicholas Mirzoeff is a pioneering figure in the field of visual culture and has written extensively on Jewishness and Palestine His books include How To See The World and The Right to Look He has written for the Guardian and The Nation

Zatlin, 2007-08-29 A historical study of modern German advertising from the Imperial period through the 1970s that explores mass consumption in modern society and the relationship between business mentalities artistic creation consumer behavior and ideology Natural Resource Year in Review , 2006 Fassbinder's Germany Thomas Elsaesser, 1996 Rainer Werner Fassbinder is one of the most prominent and important authors of post war European cinema Thomas Elsaesser is the first to write a thoroughly analytical study of his work He stresses the importance of a closer understanding of Fassbinder's career through a re-reading of his films as textual entities Approaching the work from different thematic and analytical perspectives Elsaesser offers both an overview and a number of detailed readings of crucial films while also providing a European context for Fassbinder's own coming to terms with fascism Composers of the Nazi Era Michael H. Kater, 2000 How does creativity thrive in the face of fascism How can a highly artistic individual function professionally in so threatening a climate The final book in a critically acclaimed trilogy that includes Different Drummers OUP 1992 and The Twisted Muse OUP 1997 this is a detailed study of the often interrelated careers of eight outstanding German composers who lived and worked amid the dictatorship of the Third Reich Werner Egk Paul Hindemith Kurt Weill Karl Amadeus Hartmann Carl Orff Hans Pfitzner Arnold Schoenberg and Richard Strauss Noted historian Michael H. Kater weighs issues of accommodation and resistance to ask whether these artists corrupted themselves in the service of a criminal regime and if so whether this is evident in their music He also considers the degrees to which the Nazis poetically socially economically and aesthetically succeeded in their treatment of these individuals whose lives and compositions represent diverse responses to totalitarianism West Germany Julia Sneyinger, 2024-10-17 Julia Sneyinger's book provides a concise overview of developments in the Federal Republic of Germany from the end of the Second World War and Germany's division to the unification of East and West Germany in 1990 Within the framework of key political and economic moments it illuminates how West Germans experienced social economic and cultural change across four decades Chronologically structured and supplemented with timelines each chapter in the book presents the major themes events and developments occurring during the period A focused bibliography is also included to offer guidance on further reading Among the notable topics covered are The redefining of German identity after Nazism Democratization The explosion of consumer culture The protest movements of 1968 Changing gender and sexual roles Immigration and multiculturalism Pop culture Environmentalism Terrorism The return of the right in politics West Germany in Focus is a peerless introduction to West Germany for anyone looking to understand the complexities of German history since 1945 Miniature Monuments Helmut Puff, 2014-09-23 Miniature Monuments Modeling German History offers a series of essays on small scale models of bombed out cities Created between 1946 and the present these plastic renderings of places provide eerie glimpses of destruction and devastation resulting of the air war This study thus permits fresh angles on post war responses to the compounded losses of WW II and it does so through considering these miniature monuments of among others Frankfurt Munich Schwetzingen Heilbronn and Hiroshima in a deep cultural history that interlaces the sixteenth eighteenth and twentieth centuries Three dimensional renderings in diminutive size have rarely been subjected to rigorous theoretical reflection Conventionally models whether of ruins or intact spaces have been assumed to be easily legible that is they have been assumed to be vehicles of the authentic Yet rubble and other models should be theorized as complex simulacra of abstract realities and catalysts of memories Miniature Monuments thus tackles a haunting paradox building ruins The book elucidates how utterly contingent processes of crumbling and collapse the English words for the Latin ruina came to command such great interest in modern Europe that tremendous efforts were taken to uncover render and most of all recreate ruins
