Zima, 1981-01-01 By focusing on the East European dialogues and polemics both contemporary and past the present volume pursues two aims 1 It would like to locate the discussion between semiotics and dialectics in an historical context 2 It would like to make the reader familiar with the solutions proposed by theoreticians like Bakhtin Lotman Voloshinov Fischer and Mukarovsk solutions which in the past were frequently ignored by European Marxists semioticians and sociologists of literature At present one cannot help feeling that if they had been familiar with the works of these authors Marxism Critical Theory semiotics and the sociology of literature of the text would have evolved differently

Dictionary of the Prague School of Linguistics Josef Vachek, 2003-06-23 This is the first English version of a text out of print for more than 40 years summarising the positions and key concepts of an influential stream of linguistic thought Using quotations as entries J Vachek 1909 1997 a leading advocate of the Prague School employed more than 160 sources papers and monographs by well over 30 representatives of the school Mathesius Trnka Skali ka Dane Dokulil Muka ovsk Jakobson Trubetzkoy Isachenko and others The dictionary both captures the pioneering efforts and achievements of the school from its foundation in 1926 and provides a framework for assessing the current state of affairs attesting to its originality and serving as a preventive to treading paths already explored The headword concepts are provided with French German and Czech equivalents and Vachek's original preface is supplemented by a foreword which traces the development of the school up to the present date and puts it into perspective
