Clark, 2001-04-30 From the mid 19th century to the early Cold War the United States has a long history with China and that interaction has not always been positive or productive This brief history of foreign intervention in China viewed through the experiences of the United States Marines examines how the occupying powers dealt with a fellow sovereign nation In many cases this involved the partition or outright absorption of Chinese territory through naked aggression Clark contends that considering the past two centuries the Chinese have good reason to distrust all foreigners and he urges the pursuit of a badly needed rapprochement This is however also the story of the evolution of the Marine Corps as a separate service Although an occupying force the Marines did make considerable efforts to earn the friendship of the Chinese people Always on the brink of extinction due to budgetary cuts and the enmity of the army and navy the Marines managed to perform an onerous and difficult duty in a foreign land With a resurgent China constantly testing the United States a fellow Pacific Rim nation every policymaker should be well aware of the often difficult history that we share and the mistakes that have been made in the past Manuals Combined: AMPHIBIOUS WARFARE & NAVAL SCIENCE FOR THE MERCHANT MARINE OFFICER, AMPHIBIOUS WARFARE LETTER OF PROMULGATION This curriculum guide builds upon the work of many contributors Intellectual rigor and academic standards demand that the full scope of amphibious warfare be encompassed rather than the tracing of Marine Corps History emphasizing the landings of the Great Pacific War which had forged our modern Corps The present course structure and content reflect the determination that 1 the history of amphibious warfare remains a valid intellectual endeavor 2 its scope greatly exceeds the study of the U S Marine Corps and 3 a historical survey of amphibious warfare is best approached from a Maneuver Warfare perspective exploring the various levels of war and their impact on each battle The levels of war would include the political strategic operational and tactical technical This construct of classes
