Sense Of Siege:

The Apocalypse Explained According to the Spiritual Sense in which the Arcana There Predicted But Heretofore Concealed are Revealed Emanuel Swedenborg, 1889 Applied Systemic Studies Henry Selvaraj, Takayuki Fujimoto, 2023-03-21 This book is a collection of a wide range of research papers that combine both the humanities and sciences in applied informatics. In particular, it is intended for readers interested in the fields of artificial intelligence, data science, virtual reality, and intelligent systems. Technologies and findings in artificial intelligence, data science, virtual reality, and intelligent systems are being used in all academic disciplines today. This book is a compilation of specific and advanced research findings from a wide range of research fields where they are being applied today. The papers included are based on those presented in August 2022 at the International Conference on Systems Engineering ICSEng Tokyo, a prestigious academic conference that has been held annually since 1974. The papers have been rigorously reviewed and selected by multiple peer reviewers.

Security, Technology and Global Politics Mark Lacy, 2014-02-05 This book analyses some of the key problems explored in Paul Virilio's theorising on war and security. Paul Virilio has developed a provocative series of writings on how modern societies have shaped the acceleration of military security technologies and how technologies of security and acceleration have transformed society, economy, and politics. His examination of the connections between geopolitics, war, speed, technology, and control are viewed as some of the most challenging and disturbing interventions on the politics of security in the twenty-first century. Interventions that help us understand a world that confronts problems that increasingly emerge from the desire to make life safer, faster, networked, and more efficient. Security, Technology and Global Politics examines some of the key concepts and concerns in Virilio's writings on security, society, and technology: endo-colonization, fear, and the war on terror; cities and panic; cinema and war; ecological security and integral accidents; universities and ideas of progress. Critics often point to an apocalyptic or fatalistic element to Virilio's writings on global politics, but this book challenges this apocalyptic reading of Virilio's work, suggesting that while he doesn't provide us with easy solutions to the problems we face, the political force in Virilio's work comes from the questions he leaves us with about speed, security, and global politics in times of crisis, terror, and fear. This book will be of interest to students of critical security studies, political theory, sociology, political geography, cultural studies, and IR in general.

The Apocalypse Or Book of Revelations, Explained According to the Spiritual Sense, Wherein are Disclosed the Arcana Therein Foretold which Have Been Hitherto Hidden Emanuel Swedenborg, 1901 Rediscovering Women Writers of Wartime London Evelina Garay Collcutt, 2024-02-29 This book shows the war-stricken city through the eyes of five women writers whose novels vividly portray life in the Blitz. This new appraisal of their work brings to light the way in which they documented the Blitz in their fiction, highlighting the social changes which were taking place, especially in the lives of women, and leading to a fuller understanding of those turbulent times. The book re-evaluates the contribution of these writers to wartime literature.

The World According To Israeli Newspapers Margret Müller,2017-01-26
Since its outbreak the Israeli Palestinian conflict has been shaped by international involvement These external engagements in the conflict are primarily transmitted to Jewish Israelis through the Israeli mass media These media portrayals shape not only perceptions of the global attitudes towards the conflict but in so doing they also influence and legitimize domestic political debates and decisions This research is guided by the question how Israeli newspapers represent international involvement in the Israeli Palestinian conflict How is the involvement contextualized and how qualified Do societal constructs and beliefs shape the media representations and if so in which manner Do media representations differ in times of crisis and routine Margret Müller explores these questions in a content analysis of the four general daily Israeli newspapers media coverage during the Gaza flotilla raid 2010
