of the False Eco uncovers layers of mistakes that have shaped human history such as Columbus's assumption that the world was much smaller than it is leading him to seek out a quick route to the East via the West and thus fortuitously discovering America. The fictions that grew up around the cults of the Rosicrucians and Knights Templar were the result of a letter from a mysterious Prester John undoubtedly a hoax that provided fertile ground for a series of delusions and conspiracy theories based on religious, ethnic and racial prejudices. While some false tales produce new knowledge like Columbus's discovery of America and others create nothing but horror and shame, the Rosicrucian story wound up fueling European anti-Semitism; they are all powerfully persuasive. In a careful unraveling of the fabulous and the false, Eco shows us how serendipities, unanticipated truths often spring from mistaken ideas. From Leibniz's belief that the I Ching illustrated the principles of calculus to Marco Polo's mistaking a rhinoceros for a unicorn, Eco tours the labyrinth of intellectual history illuminating the ways in which we project the familiar onto the strange. Eco uncovers a rich history of linguistic endeavor, much of it ill conceived that sought to heal the wound of Babel. Through the Middle Ages and the Renaissance, Greek, Hebrew, Chinese and Egyptian were alternately proclaimed as the first language that God gave to Adam, while in keeping with the colonial climate of the time, the complex language of the Amerindians in Mexico was viewed as crude and diabolical. In closing, Eco considers the erroneous notion of linguistic perfection and shrewdly observes that the dangers we face lie not in the rules we use to interpret other cultures but in our insistence on making these rules absolute. With the startling combination of erudition and wit, bewildering anecdotes and scholarly rigor that are Eco's hallmarks, Serendipities is sure to entertain and enlighten any reader with a passion for the curious history of languages and ideas. Eco's Chaosmos Cristina Farronato, 2003-01-01

While Umberto Eco's intellectual itinerary was marked by his early studies of post-Crocean aesthetics and his spectacular concentration on linguistics, information theory, structuralism, semiotics, cognitive science and media studies, what constitutes the peculiarity of his critical and fiction writing is the tension between a typically medieval search for a code and the hermeneutic representative of deconstructive tendencies. This tension between cosmos and chaos, order and disorder is reflected in the word chaosmos. In this brilliant assessment of the philosophical basis of Eco's critical and fictional writing, Cristina Farronato explores the other distinctive aspect of Eco's thought: the struggle for a composition of opposites, the outcome deriving from his ability to elicit similar contrasts from the past and re-play them in modern terms. Focusing principally on how Eco's scholarly background influenced his study of semiotics, Farronato analyzes The Name of the Rose in relation to William of Ockham's epistemology, C. S. Peirce's work on abduction and Wittgenstein's theory of language. She discusses Foucault's Pendulum as an explicit comment on the modern debate on interpretation through a direct reference to Early Modern hermetic thought, correlates The Island of the Day Before as a postmodern mixture of science and superstition and reviews Baudolino as an historical fantastic novel that once again situates the Middle Ages in a postmodern context. Eco's Chaosmos demonstrates how Eco's use of semiotic theory is important for an understanding of the postmodern aspects of today's literature and culture The Modern Afterlives of Old Irish Travel Narratives Natalia I. Petrovskaja, 2025-07-24 This book explores the reception of the medieval Irish tradition of fantastic journey tales in Jonathan Swift's Gulliver's Travels C S Lewis's The Voyage of the Dawn Treader Umberto Eco's Baudolino and the science fiction television franchises Star Trek and Stargate In doing so the book opens the door to a new history of literary reception using Old Irish genre categories to analyse post medieval texts It aims to show that there is a family of texts produced in the post medieval period that are heirs of the medieval Irish literary tradition of fantastic voyage narratives and that using Old Irish genre categories to analyse post medieval works can open up new perspectives in our understanding of these works Poets, Heroes, and their Dragons (2 vols) James R. Yeats, Ezra Pound, and the Poetry of Paradise* Sean Pryor, 2016-02-24 Emphasizing the interplay of aesthetic forms and religious modes Sean Pryor's ambitious study takes up the endlessly reiterated longing for paradise that features throughout the works of W B Yeats and Ezra Pound Yeats and Pound define poetry in terms of paradise and paradise in terms of poetry Pryor suggests and these complex interconnections fundamentally shape the development of their art Even as he maps the shared influences and intellectual interests of Yeats and Pound and highlights those moments when their poetic theories converge Pryor's discussion of their poems profound formal and conceptual differences uncovers the distinctive ways each writer imagines the divine the good the beautiful or the satisfaction of desire Throughout his study Pryor argues that Yeats and Pound reconceive the quest for paradise as a quest for a new kind of poetry a journey that Pryor traces by analysing unpublished manuscript drafts and newly published drafts that have received little attention For Yeats and Pound the journey towards a paradisaic poetic becomes a never ending quest at once self defeating and self fulfilling a formulation that has implications not only for the work of these two poets but for the study of modernist literature Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice _ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science The Poetics of Grammar and the Metaphysics of Sound and Sign ,2007-08-30 This book examines the seemingly universal notion of a grammatical cosmos Individual essays discuss how many of the great civilizations provide cognitive maps that emerge from a metaphysical linguistics in which sounds syllables and other signs form the constructive elements of reality The essays address cross cultural issues such as Why does grammar serve as a template in these cultures How are such templates culturally contoured To what end are they applied i e what can one do with grammar and how does it work upon the world The book is divided into three sections that deal with the metaphysics of linguistic creation practices of encoding and decoding as a means of deciphering reality and language in the widest sense as a medium for self and cultural transformation Contributors include Jan Assman Sara Sviri Michael Stone M Finkelberg Yigal Bronner Martin Kern Brouria Bitton Ashkelony Dan Martin Jonathan Garb Tom Hunter David Shulman and Sergio La Porta Adam's Ancestors David N. Livingstone,2011-03-15 Although the idea that all human beings are descended from Adam is a long standing conviction in the West another version of this narrative exists humans inhabited the Earth before or alongside Adam and their descendants still occupy the planet This book traces the history of and debates surrounding the idea of non Adamic humanity The Key to "The Name of the Rose" Adele J. Haft,Jane G. White,Robert J. White,1999 Unravels Umberto Eco's classic mystery novel Ideogram J. Marshall Unger,2003-10-31 In this latest book J Marshall Unger exposes the historical scientific cultural and practical flaws accompanying the widespread belief that Chinese characters embody pure language less meaning Whether one is interested in Chinese characters from the standpoint of language literature semiotics psychology history cultural studies or computers Ideogram contains new ideas and insights that are sure to challenge preconceptions and provoke thought Conditions of Comparison Ming Xie,2011-08-04 How do we know the other culture How do such inquiries impact on our knowledge of our own culture These questions lie at the heart of comparative intercultural studies As a theoretical inquiry into how conceptual resources of cultures such as explicit and implicit categories of thought may pre figure our perspectives this book re conceives and reorients comparative intercultural inquiry by arguing for the importance of an epistemological approach and for its potential to transform current critical paradigms in contrast to approaches that emphasize primarily the political and the ethical. By critically engaging with and developing the insights of scholars and thinkers from both Anglo American and Continental traditions the book makes a significant meta critical contribution to a rethinking of comparative intercultural studies and literary theory. It will be of interest to students and scholars in comparative literature, English world literature and global and translation studies.

The Francis Daniel Pastorius Reader Patrick Erben, Alfred Brophy, Margo Lambert, 2020-02-26

Francis Daniel Pastorius was one of the first German settlers to Pennsylvania and a touchstone figure of German American cultural heritage. This monumental anthology presents a selection of his many writings in one volume. Pastorius sailed to North America as a Pietist but found a unique home among the Quakers in Pennsylvania. Within this early modern religious context he was a lawyer, educator and community leader, a polymath and a prolific writer and collector of knowledge. At the turn of the eighteenth century Pastorius held one of the largest manuscript collections in North America and wrote voluminously in multiple languages. His collecting, curation and dissemination represents a unique look at the ways information was stored, processed and utilized during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries in both North America and Europe. This rich selection of Pastorius's writings on religion, education, gardening, law and community and the colony of Pennsylvania as well as letters, poems and numerous encyclopedic and bibliographic works shows the mind of a true humanist in action. Pastorius's works have long been important to the archival study of early German settlement and the Atlantic world. Now available together, transcribed, translated and annotated, his writings will have widespread significance to the study of early American literature and history.

Linguistic Purism in Action Nils Langer, 2013-02-18

The auxiliary do tun is one of the most discussed constructions in West Germanic. In German there is a striking opposition between modern standard German where the construction is virtually ungrammatical and considered to be sub standard by most speakers whilst, as this book shows, the construction is attested in all modern dialects as well as historic stages since 1350. In answering why auxiliary tun is ungrammatical in modern standard German it is shown that the stigmatization of tun was caused by prescriptive grammarians in the 16th-18th century. Furthermore it is shown that the stigmatization of tun as bad German occurred in clearly discernible stages from bad poetry 1550-1680 to bad written German 1680-1740 and finally to bad German in general after 1740, thus providing evidence that the history of the standardization of German needs to take into account direct metalinguistic comments from prescriptive grammarians. The effectiveness of linguistic purism is also shown by evidence from two other constructions, namely polynegation and double perfect.

Early Encounters between East Asia and Europe Ralf Hertel, Michael Keevak, 2017-07-14 While inquiries into early encounters between East Asia and the West have traditionally focused on successful interactions this collection inquires into the many forms of failure experienced on all sides in the period before 1850 Countering a tendency in scholarship to overlook unsuccessful encounters it starts from the assumption that failures can prove highly illuminating and provide valuable insights into both the specific shapes and limitations of East Asian and Western imaginations of the Other as well as of the nature of East West interaction Interdisciplinary in outlook this collection brings together the perspectives of sinology Japanese and Korean studies historical studies literary studies art history religious studies and performance studies The subjects discussed are manifold and range from missionary accounts travel reports letters and trade documents to fictional texts as well as material objects such as tea chinaware or nautical instruments exchanged between East and West In order to avoid a Eurocentric perspective the collection balances approaches from the fields of English literature Spanish studies Neo Latin studies and art history with those of sinology Japanese studies and Korean studies It includes an introduction mapping out the field of failures in early modern encounters between East Asia and Europe as well as a theoretically minded essay on the lessons of failure and the ethics of cross cultural understanding
