Craig,1998 TANKS IN THE WIRE The son of a career enlisted man Bill Craig was a hard bitten Korean War veteran and Special Forces brawler In Vietnam they called his kind of soldier a snake eater Now here is Craig s unvarnished account of a military career that catapulted him to team sergeant the pinnacle of achievement for a Special Forces operator It also took him to the trough of anger and despair For during Tet 1968 his camp at Lang Vei was overrun by NVA A nearby force of Marines refused to come to the camp s aid even though the NVA had parked a Soviet tank on Craig s command bunker and the enemy was dropping grenades down the air ducts The riveting description of the breakout that followed and the raw courage of men fighting to save their comrades is an inspiration for anyone venturing into harm's way The Sergeant 7 Gordon Davis,1982-01-01

To The Last Man Alexander Cohen,2018-10-18 In the Forgotten War there are many who served whose names and memories will never be forgotten US Army Sergeant William T Miles is one of them From the hunting trips of his youth in the Pocono Mountains where he learned many of the skills that would help him in wartime to chaotic battlefields of Korea Miles made a lasting impression on all those he knew then he disappeared On July 6 1951 Miles was part of a joint US South Korean Special Forces team operating deep behind enemy lines in North Korea when the team was attacked by a large enemy force As they tried to break contact with the enemy Miles volunteered to stay behind and cover the retreat of his fellow team members He was never seen or heard from again Miles's fate remained a mystery for decades after the end of the Korean War Amid conflicting and erroneous reports of what happened on the day he disappeared his family never knew the full details or circumstances of his disappearance However in 2017 new evidence discovered among declassified military documents and among the recollections of Korean War veterans shed new light on the story of William T Miles and the sacrifice he made that day providing closure to his family after sixty six years No Time For Sergeants Mac Hyman ,1954

Sergeant York and His People Sam K. Cowan,2017-05-08 Sergeant York And His People By Sam K Cowan The Sergeant Dennis Murphy,1969 The Sergeant ,2013 Description Movie Press Kits Sergeant York and His People Sam K. Cowan,2015-03-23 They had gone but a short distance when they stepped upon a forest path Just below them were two Germans with Red Cross bands upon their arms At the sight of the Americans the Germans dropped their stretcher turned and fled around a curve The sound of the shots fired after them was lost in the clatter of the machine guns above One of the Germans fell but regained his feet and both disappeared in the shrubs to the right We Went as Boys...We Came Back as OLD MEN! Sergeant Dennis Urban,2024-10-01 The Infantryman His emotions are impenetrable yet his shoulders are soft for someone to lean on His hands are firm yet know exactly where to be If he has his arms wrapped around you you're either in the last moments of your life or the safest place you could ever be He's stubborn but will let you have your way just to see you smile He's deadly with a rifle but gentle with a child He plays poker with the devil but guards the gate of Heaven He curses like no other but is the perfect gentleman He has a thousand yard stare but when you look into his eyes it's the most comforting thing you've ever felt The US government trained him as a weapon but raised him as a lover He knows every part of his rifle and every curve of his woman There is no other man like him Whether you love him or hate him both are a privilege He could be your worst nightmare or your best friend I am a seventy five year old former infantry soldier with eight months of hazardous duty pay under my belt I made my Sergeant E 5 stripes the hard way I earned them while patrolling inside the DMZ for over four months The patrol ambush teams that I worked with took part in a number of small firefights leading to three confirmed enemy kills and numerous wounded enemy forces The North Koreans almost always carried off their wounded and dead soldiers so the U N would have no evidence of them violating the truce agreement signed in 1953

That doesn't mean we didn't kill and wound more of them we just could not recover their bodies Our team suffered one casualty during our five months in the DMZ from August 7 1968 to January 7 1969 Our company had at least three patrol teams available each and every day but there was no communication between the teams so we had no way to know what they were running into on a daily basis While on the barrier fence positions I had one incident where I fatally wounded a North Korean infiltrator who managed to take shelter inside the fifty yard deep minefield after which he died I was involved in a vicious firefight along with a nearby foxhole as we fought against a much superior force of North Korean infiltrators which resulted in three North Korean soldiers bodies being recovered The quick response force the next morning found many pools of frozen blood used combat bandages and bloody drag trails headed back toward North Korea close to two miles away The QRF leader later told us we were up against a force as large as thirty men and we were instrumental in stopping them while other forces were sent for By the time they arrived we were all down to our last bullets for our rifles and had already put our bayonets on the end of our rifles expecting a full assault on our two positions My last firefight was while on a woodcutting detail inside the DMZ very close to the MDL or the dividing line between South and North Korea A medium sized North Korean force totally camouflaged in white managed to get within one hundred yards of our location before they were spotted and a firefight took place as we fled the scene leaving our tools and precious wood behind The next morning we returned with a full platoon of armed soldiers and found many blood pools on the ground and bloody drag marks where dead and injured soldiers were carried away to North Korea about one half mile north of the battle scene With the added guards we completed our mission to gather the much needed firewood for the troops on the line and got the hell out of there Two days later our unit rotated to our camp south of the Imjin River
